

City Clubs Promise to Aid Peter Rabbit in Easter Egg Hunt

Plenty of Prize "Nests" Assured Sharp-Eyed Children Taking Part in Annual Rolling Next Week-End.

CHOICE of a new Easter Bonnet may be causing the stir in the household for Mother, but her young son and daughter haven't any thoughts for the Easter parade. Instead, they are wondering if the Easter rabbit's supply of eggs is large enough.

Annually, the country clubs help Peter Rabbit in his task. At the club egg rollings the members hide enough eggs so that each child gets a plentiful collection—if he is sufficiently sharp-eyed.

The gold and silver eggs always are hidden the most carefully and the lucky children who find them get special prizes as a reward.

Meridian Hills Country Club children are to have their roll Saturday afternoon. The younger children are to hunt for the bounty on the club lawn, and their older brothers and sisters are to venture farther out on the grounds.

Mrs. Bert Cohee is working with a committee of mothers arranging the party.

The Hillcrest Country Club committee has a "big surprise" in store for entertainment of the children Easter afternoon after their egg hunt. No amount of wheedling will bring the committee to confess what is to happen.

The children do know that there are to be gold and silver eggs and a prize for finding them. They will start on the hunt with baskets to be given them as favors by the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, entertainment committee chairmen, have assigned Mr. and Mrs. Vance Oatout, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. Carleton Starkey to the committee.

Algonquin Riding Club members "house-warmed" their renovated clubhouse yesterday. Riders had dinner together after following the trials leading out from the club grounds.

Miss Gertrude Brown, entertainment committee chairman, was in Columbus, O., over the week-end and missed the approving remarks made by the club members. Miss Brown and Mrs. Thomas Twyman did much of the painting in the enlarged clubroom.

Miss Grace Speer and Mrs. Russell Williams worked with them on the house committee, helping in selection of the decorations.

Members gathered around the fire glowing in the large, stone fireplace as they had their coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haight and daughter, Frances; Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNutt; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McNutt and son Jimmy; Dr. Eliot Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hiatt and daughter, Marlow; Mr. and Mrs. C. Bohlen and son, Robert; Misses Dorothy Peterson, Mildred Blacklidge, Edith Allen and Emma and Mary Moore are among the riders frequenting the new clubhouse.

Rain kept Meridian Hills Riding Stables' equestrians under shelter yesterday, but they drove out to the country club to have breakfast together. Mrs. M. H. Fuller, manager, arranged the first early Sunday morning breakfast ride.

Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Martin, Mrs. E. S. Retter, Mrs. Julius Tindler, Mrs. Helen York and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brooks.
