

17 PER CENT OF LOCAL DRIVERS PARK ILLEGALLY

NYA Survey in Downtown Shows That 2243 Violate Law.

With the city's drive against traffic violators under way, a National Youth Administration survey revealed today that during a two-month period 17 per cent of all cars parked in the downtown mile square violated some city ordinance, exclusive of overtime regulations.

The survey was made during February and March by the NYA in co-operation with the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce. It disclosed that 24 per cent of all cars parked in the mile square violated overtime limits fixed by ordinance.

Since the "fix-proof" stickers have come into use, however, police say that traffic violation, especially parking offenses, have been greatly reduced.

This survey, first of its kind in the city, employed 150 youths. Recently, the NYA began a check on traffic violations at street intersections to obtain data to be used in the Indianapolis safety program. Results are to be compiled this month.

Class Is Conducted

In connection with the survey, the NYA is conducting a class in municipal government for youths employed on the projects.

A total of 12,946 cars were parked within the mile square from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days during the survey period, the report showed. Of this number, 10,703 cars were parked legally.

Double parking proved to be the most common violation with 694 cars or 31 per cent of the total checked for violating this rule. A total of 369 or 17 per cent were too far from the curb, 360 cars or 18 per cent parked in front of "no parking" signs, and 150 cars were too near the corner.

46 on Cross Walks

Other violations were 46 on a cross walk, 45 in a driveway entrance, 44 in a merchant's loading zone, 29 in a safety zone, 27 in a public entrance, 26 too near a fire plug, 22 in bus and taxi stands and 20 in front of traffic signals.

The survey showed that 3128 cars exceeded the time limit, with the largest number of overtime violations, 2662, in districts where the limit is one hour or less.

Chief Morrissey is studying the survey and has told NYA officials he hopes another survey will be undertaken in two months to show results of the traffic drive.

HOME EXHIBITS TO RANK WITH NATION'S BEST

Enlarged Show to Present Great Improvement, Plans Indicate.

Plans for the fifteenth annual Indianapolis Home Show opening a week from today in the Manufacturers Building at the State Fairground, today indicated the exhibit is to rank among the 20 most outstanding shows of its kind in the nation this year.

Ted C. Brown, show president, and J. Frank Cantwell, managing director, and others last night outlined the plans at a dinner in the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

"The outstanding development of this year's show," said Mr. Brown, "is its connection with the national program in the development of garden clubs. Exterior decorations and outdoor beautification methods are to be features of the exposition which we hope will stimulate interest both in beautification and construction."

The show is to extend over a 10-day period, closing on April 26.

COLLEEN GIVEN COACH FOR CASTLE PRINCESS

Colleen Moore, movie actress, was given a miniature Napoleonic coach for her $435,000 doll house by William A. Fisher, president of the General Motors' body-building division, in a ceremony at L. S. Ayres & Co. today.

The coach, the work of master craftsmen who labored on it for two months, was placed on display in front of the "fair castle."

FARM PROGRAM IN FULL SWING, ABBOTT CLAIMS

County Leaders to Complete Questionnaire on Use, Condition of Land.

Marion County's 1936 soil conservation program is in full swing, Horace E. Abbott, county agriculture agent, said today.

Township committees now are calling on the more than 1500 county farms to complete questionnaires on the condition and crop use of each, he said.

The program, as outlined by Mr. Abbott, is an attempt to retire 15 per cent of the farm land from soil depleting crops and convert it to soil conserving crops.

Those crops listed by the United States Department of Agriculture as soil depleting are corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, soy beans, potatoes and vegetables. Those listed as being soil conserving are alfalfa, hay, clover, timothy and other tame hay.

Land withdrawn from depleting crops is to be paid for by the government on a percentage basis not to exceed 15 per cent of any farm. If a farmer decides to withdraw more than 15 per cent he is to be paid only for the basic 15 per cent, the agent said.

The committee chairmen in charge of each township are William C. Schilling, Franklin; Henry J. Holzhausen, Warren; Walter Stones, Lawrence; Albert Steinmeier, Washington; Herman Snyder, Pike; Joseph Harden, Wayne, and Howard S. Mills, Decatur.
