He's Captain at 23

Linus Frey, Brooklyn second baseman, is the new captain of the Dodgers and is probably the youngest major leaguer to attain that honor. He is still a few months short of being 24.

HAVING been held in cold storage two days in a row, the Indians were eager to swing back into action this afternoon to sound out the Milwaukee Brewers. . . . The Cream City outfit lost three out of four to the "undernourished" Louisville Colonels and the Milwaukee scribes are running low on aibis. . . . On the other hand the twice-defeated Hoosiers have no excuses to offer except that a large supply of fly paper is needed in the outfield.

The Milwaukee series has been cut to three tilts, one today and a double-header tomorrow afternoon. Yesterday's opener was postponed and Monday's contest has been advanced to supply the bargain attraction on the Sabbath.

At any rate the Redskins are looking ahead to happier days when warm weather arrives to stay. . . . A few of the pastimers are bothered by aching leg muscles and back hinges caused by the strong wind.

The Indians and Mud Hens in the A. A. and the Athletics and Browns in the American still are batting exactly .000 in the club standings.

Brooklyn broke into the win column yesterday to shut off a flow of tears by Manager Casey Stengel. . . . The comedian manager sobbed so hard after losing a tough one to the Giants Thursday that flood warnings were sent out in the Greater New York district. . . . He's the hardest loser in big league circles.

WHEN Manager Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox received a broken thumb in Thursday's game Eric McNair was shifted from third to shortstop and Johnny Kroner drew the hot corner assignment. He's the same Kroner who had a couple of tryouts with Indianapolis a few years ago. He played with Syracuse last year and batted .323.

LOUISVILLE knows from horse race experience that the horse out in front during the early stages doesn't always win. The Colonels were ahead of the Blues, 6-3, going into the ninth yesterday when Kansas City exploded a bomb and tallied three runs to tie. Came the tenth and three more runs for the Kaws. Jockey Garrison never made a more thrilling finish.

The Milwaukee Brewers are carrying two Cubans, both versatile. They are Gilberto Don Torres, pitcher-infielder-outfielder, and Salvador Ramos Chico Hernandez, infielder-outfielder.

ALTHOUGH the Richmond (Va.) club is a New York Giant farm, it received its first help from the Boston Red Sox. . . . In the form of a glove for the playing-manager so that he could improve his outfielding. The glove was donated by Wes Ferrell. The playing-manager is George Ferrall, brother of the Red Sox mound ace.

Jimmy Fox lost no time in becoming an idol in Beantown that the Red Sox are out to establish a new attendance mark in Beantown. Jimmy smacked a single, double and triple in the first game and a circuit walk-off in the second.

The Cleveland club's right fielder's name is Bruce Douglas Campbell, which sounds like triple-distilled Scotch.

CHOICE catches are being reported daily by the local and state fishermen, but the anglers declare that the fish are not falling for any old gag this spring. It takes the old dogged patience to haul 'em in. Fishermen and golfers are brothers under the skin. They'll get up at 4 a. m. Sunday to be first at tee or stream.

Eight New Amateur Ring Kings Crowned in Finals

Torrid Fights Mark Windup of A. A. U. Tourney; Gary and South Bend Lads Triumph.

BY REED S. DUNHAM
United Press Staff Correspondent

CLEVELAND, April 18.—The National Amateur Athletic Union crowned eight new boxing champions today at the conclusion of a three-day tournament, which started with 257 entrants.

In the 147-pound division, two Pittsburgh boys fought it out and the victory went to Leo Sweeney. He defeated his teammate, Charlie Burley, in a cautious bout that showed each fighter knew what the other had.

The light-heavies and the heavies put on slow exhibitions compared with the torrid scraps of the lighter butlers. John Lasinski, New York, slugged his way to victory over Robert Tucker, his New York teammate and national A. A. U. junior champ.

The only fighter from west of the Mississippi town in a crown was Willard Dean, heavyweight of Shreveport, La. Dean knocked out big Frank Tymasko of Buffalo.

Further illustrative of the Joe Louis influence were Jackie Wilson, the six-foot Negro flyweight from Cleveland, who won the 112-pound title by defeating Jimmy Urso, Detroit, and Bill Joyce, Gary, Ind., 118-pounder, who defeated Clifford Red Elk, the Comanche from Oklahoma.

Slugging Joe Church, Batavia, N. Y., became 126-pound king by whipping Rudy Oden, Los Angeles WPA truck driver.

Tom Pallatine, clever lightweight from South Bend, Ind., maneuvered a victory over Verdi Patterson, Chicago Negro.

Biggest Chew

TOOTHACHE? No. It's probably the biggest chew of scrap tobacco to puff out the jaw of any man in the majors. It adorns the rugged face of Lon Warneke, Chicago Cubs ace twirler, and is said to be bigger and better than ever this year.

TERRY STEERS GIANTS INTO EARLY LEAD

Manager Bill Bats Team to Fourth Straight Win; Uses Strategy in Mound Choices

Doubles Against Bees to Drive In Deciding Runs; N. Y. Pilot Attempting to Go Easy on Ace Pitchers Until Later; Cincinnati Trounces Cubs, 12-3.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The late John McGraw used to say: "Boys, they count as much in April as they do in September." And the New York Giants of 1936, taking a tip from their old master, have started with a bang.

With the major league campaign only four days old, the Giants have yet to suffer defeat. This is only one game short of the pace they set in 1934 when they won the first five games. And it's far better than a year ago when, with the race four days old, they floundered in the cellar with no victories and two defeats.

Behind the early Giant success is keen strategy of working pitchers in the cellar with no victories and two defeats. Behind the early Giant success is keen strategy of working pitchers in the cellar with no victories and two defeats.

Terry Drives in 3
Only one of the New York victories have been turned in by veteran pitchers. On opening day, Dick Coffman, American League castoff, relieved Schumacher and scored a victory. The next day Rookie Harry Gumbert pitched a four-hitter. Thursday, Coffman again played a relief role and won.

Yesterday Fitzsimmons, who is being worked easily for fear of aggravating the elbow which he injured last year, relieved Carl Hubbell in the sixth inning against the Bees. The Giants trailed 3-2 and Hubbell was yanked for a pinch-hitter. Terry took over that spot and, with the bases full, hit a double that scored three runs—enough to put the game on ice. The Giants scored another in the seventh to win, 6-4.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, in second place 1½ games behind the Giants, saw their opening game with the St. Louis Cardinals frozen out. The Chicago Cubs, two games to the rear of the New Yorkers, got off to a bad start at Wrigley by dropping a 12-3 decision to the Cincinnati Reds. Paul Derringer held the Cubs to seven hits while his mates blasted Carleton, Shoun and Bryant for an even dozen. The Brooklyn Dodgers scored their first victory of the season, 4-3, in 10 innings over the Philadelphia Phillies. Babe Phelps' single scored Bucher with the winning run.

Grove, DeShong Hot
American League hostilities were featured by the two best pitching performances in either league to date. The former low mark of four hits was held jointly by four pitchers. Lefty Grove of Boston's Red Sox and Jimmy DeShong of Washington brought the record down to two hits. Grove yielded only two to the Sox in 10 innings, and one man reached second as the Sox whipped the New York Yankees, 8-0. The Senators whipped the Philadelphia Athletics, 3-2. One of DeShong's blows was a homer by Pinky Higgins.

The Cleveland Indians, scoring in the tenth, defeated the St. Louis Browns, 13-10. The Browns and A's are the only major league teams who haven't won this season.

Yesterday's Hero—Bill Terry, New York Giants manager, whose pinch hit double with the bases loaded brought in the runs that enabled his team to win its fourth straight game.

AZUCAR FAVORED IN BAY MEADOWS EVENT
SAN MATEO, Cal., April 18.—Bay Meadows track presented the first major handicap event of its spring meeting today with two stars of Fred M. Alger Jr.'s stable favored to parade to the winner's circle.

Azucar, 8-year-old dark converted steeplechaser, and Dark Winter, sensational in one race and dead in the next, were quoted even money bets to win the event, the $5000 added fashion stakes. Azucar was expected to be a slight post-time favorite.

Seven other horses complete the field. They are Arson, Jovius, Bahamas, Coldwater, Mickesys, Man, Velociter and Nubs, the latter two coupled as a G. A. Marshall entry.

PURDUE TENNIS TEAM DEFEATS SYCAMORES
LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 18.—Purdue University won its first tennis match of the season here yesterday, defeating Indiana State, 6 to 1.

Urey, Trucker, Wakefield and Edmonds attacked singles matches for the Bolleymakers. Burgett won a three-set contest with Nikolich for the Sycamores' only victory. Nikolich and Urey won a doubles victory and the Wakefield-Horne pair captured the other.

New Third Sacker Speeds Up Infield

ROBERT (BUCK) FAUSETT is displaying a lot of agility around the hot corner for Red Killefer's Redskins, and when the Texas locates his batting eye the Tribe boss feels sure the fans won't be disappointed in the work of the new infielder. Fausett was brought up from the Galveston club of the Texas League where he played four years after leaving last Texas Teachers College. The Texas loop is Class A, and going from campus to company that standard is rated better than an average accomplishment in baseball.

FAUSETT possesses a powerful and accurate arm and it is said the hot shots he throws across the diamond accounts for the nickname Buckshot. His best batting mark was .324 in 1933, and the third sacker from the Lone Star state is ambitious to become that type of hitter during the first season in the American Association, in spite of the fact his average dropped to .258 in 1935.

The Galveston graduate stands 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 165 and swings left-handed. He believes in all-year ruggedness and during the off-season is employed on a steamship line.

Glenn Morris Leads Star Field in First Five Events; Kansas Relays Get Under Way

By United Press
LAWRENCE, Kas., April 18.—Glenn Morris, a comparative unknown from Denver, today led a field of nationally known track and field stars into the final round of competition in the decathlon contest of the fourteenth annual Kansas relays.

Morris piled up a total of 4135 points in the first five events of the arduous test. The defending champion, Clyde Coffman, Topeka, Kan., trailed Morris with 3908 points. Close behind Coffman was Jay Berwanger, University of Chicago star, with 3769.

Final competition between the 17 decathlon contestants will be held today. The relays proper will get under way this afternoon.

Four of the relay contests will decide Olympic contestants. Glenn Coffman, holder of the mile record, will run in the 1500-meter event. The other Olympic contests will be the 3000-meter steeplechase, the 400-meter hurdles and the hop, step and jump.

Morris, representing the Denver Athletic Club, finished first in the 400-meter run and the 100-meter dash, second in the shot put, tied for second in the high jump and was fourth in the broad jump to take the lead in the first day's decathlon competition.
