

INDEPENDENT SLATE FILED IN M'KINNEY'S HOME WARD; ELLIOTT OPENS FIRE ON WPA

Delegation Hopes to Go to State Convention
Uninstructed.

A Twentieth Ward slate, filed in the home ward of E. Kirk McKinney against his own delegates, and two other delegate groups in other wards were on record today in the Marion County election bureau.

The slates were filed under a new Indiana law which requires groups to file within five days before the primary election.

The Twentieth Ward slate, composed of delegates desiring to go to the convention uninstructed, is composed of Walter Myers, L. Ert Slack, Charles Remster, Charles A. Greathouse, Hulda Worsham, Robley George, Albert Stump and Frank F. Woolfing.

A Fourth Ward slate supporting Mr. McKinney is composed of Joseph S. Dienhart, the Rev. Morris Feuerlicht, Norman W. Gordon, Florence Marion, Val B. McLeay, J. Porter Seidensticker and George D. Yeazel.

An Irvington Democratic League slate, pledged to Pleas Greenlee, was filed in the Eighteenth Ward. This slate includes Albert G. Giesler, Marjorie Rapkey, William D. Vogel, Bert R. Johnson, Leo M. Pfeiffer and W. B. Gates.

Peters Asks Harmony

R. Earl Peters, former state Democratic chairman, today urged party unity and the presentation of "unbroken lines free of discord or quarrels over intra-party leadership."

"This is no time for bickering among ourselves," the administrator of the Federal Housing Administration in Indiana said.

Mr. Peters in an address last night in the Claypool before the Cosmopolitan Democratic Club recited the record of the HOLC and FHA in Indiana and the nation.

He told how in Indiana loans had been insured by the Federal government up to $4,500,000 on homes and property and declared that not a loan had been defaulted.

Pleas Greenlee Speaks

Mr. Peters was followed by Pleas Greenlee. Mr. Greenlee praised the administration of Federal housing in Indiana under Mr. Peters.

State Senators Jacob Weiss and E. Curtis White were among the candidates for re-election who spoke.

Senator Weiss said he and Senator White were pledged to attempting to secure the passage of a drivers' license law which would provide for mental and physical examinations of motor car drivers.

Dr. Will Smith, club president, presided.

RAY NOT OPPOSED TO ORGANIZATION, HE SAYS

Sheriff Charges That County Group Is Against Him.

Sheriff Ray today wanted it understood distinctly that he was not "anti-organization" in his plea for re-election on the Democratic ticket at the May 5 primary.

"The Democratic county organization is against me, but I'm not against the organization," he said.

Sheriff Ray said he was interested in but one candidacy in the primary race—his own.

The sheriff is opposed by Claude E. Shover, former city street commissioner, and Virgil H. Fox. Mr. Mr. Shover's name was filed at the behest of the Democratic organization, it is understood.

WOMEN GO TO PRISON

Trafalgar Fair Sentenced for Taking Hosiery, Cosmetics.

Charged with stealing a jar of cosmetics and three pairs of hosiery from a downtown store, Gusta Walter, 26, and Goldie Applegate, 22, both of Trafalgar, Ind., today were sentenced to 180 days in the Indiana Woman's Prison and fined $35 each by Municipal Judge Charles J. Karabell.

BURGLAR GETS BIRD; HE SHOULDN'T HAVE IT

The missing canary bureau of the Indianapolis Police Department today joined the burglary squad in an effort to locate Billy, pet canary of Mrs. Lillian Marshall, above, and the burglar who yesterday stole the bird from his cage at the Marshall home, 134 Good-av.

While Mrs. Marshall, who is 23, was at work yesterday in the rear of the house, the burglar ransacked front rooms and stole $1 and the bird.

Clark Marshall, her husband, said he is willing to offer a $5 reward for the bird's return.

STATE ARTISTS CAST VOTES TO PICK EXHIBITORS

Governor Names Committee to Select Objects for New York Show.

Indiana artists today are balloting on the 12 painters and two sculptors who are to represent the state in the National Exhibition of American Art in Rockefeller Center, New York City, May 18.

Gov. McNutt has appointed a committee to make the final selection of the Indiana items which are to go to the exhibition. They are Wilbur D. Peat, John Herron Art Museum director; Prof. Robert E. Burke, department of fine arts, Indiana University; and Miss Birdie May Smith, Aurora, art chairman of the Indiana Federation of Clubs.

This committee is to select the painters and sculptors from the tabulation of votes tomorrow or Thursday. The winners are to be invited to submit several pieces of their work to the committee. From this number, 12 paintings and two pieces of sculpture are to be sent to the exhibition.

Lasts Six Weeks

Open for six weeks, the exhibition is to provide an opportunity for some of the outstanding artists of each state to exhibit their works to advantage and to give the public opportunity to see a representative and comprehensive showing of contemporary American art.

The mezzanine floor of the International Building in Rockefeller Center is being divided into specially designed and well-lighted galleries to accommodate groups of states.

The program includes a week of dance programs by important professional dance groups, marking the
