INDIANS GET OVER THE HUMP

ROOKIE TROUT TO HURL TODAY

It took 11 innings to do it and when it was accomplished the Redskins held a war dance in the clubhouse. . . . After losing four games and tying two, the pastimers of Red Killefer broke the ice yesterday at the expense of the Saints and finished out in front for the first time during the new campaign. . . . It was a sweet one to win, 3-2.

It makes ball players feel they're out of the woods once they get over what they describe as the hump. . . . And with the No. 1 win tucked away the Indians plan to send Rookie Paul Trout to the rubber in the series finale with the Apostles this afternoon. . . . His nickname is Dizzy and he hails from Otter Creek High School in North Terre Haute.

Trout graduated from high school last spring and joined the Terre Haute Tots of the Three-I loop, winning 13 games and losing eight. . . . He is a righthander wearing the earmarks of a corner. . . . Manager Street of the visitors announced Glenn Spencer as his mound selection for today, which is ladies' day at the stadium.

The champion Millers were bowled over by the Colonels in Louisville yesterday and will be tough to get along with when they invade Indianapolis. . . . Ownie Bush's 1936 machine is billed here for a single tilt tomorrow, a double-header Sunday and a single attraction Monday.

The Minneapolis series will wind up the Indians' current home stand and they will be out on the road until May 19, when the night opener is to be held. The Red Birds of Columbus will help the Hoosiers turn on the lights.

KILLEFER'S Tribesters are booked for eight in a row with the Millers, four here and the same number in Minneapolis beginning May 1. It will be the champions' home opening and reports from the Flour City say the park is sure to be packed.

IT was see-saw all afternoon as the Indians and Saints waged that struggle yesterday. The visitors tallied one marker in the first frame after two down when Stainbacker doubled and Boken singled. In the fifth the locals knotted the count on a single by Sherlock, an out, and Bluege's one base blow. Jim Turner for the Tribe and Southpaw Weiner for the Apostles fought out a fancy hurling duel.

Bill Norman walloped the horsehide over the left field wall in the eighth after two down and it looked like it was the pay-off punch. However, with one down in the Tribe half Kiddle singled, advanced on a hit by Berger after Heath failed, and scored on Bouza's safety.

TURNER proved more durable than Weiner and in the eleventh the Apostle lefthander caved in. . . . Berger opened with a single and Bouza sacrificed. . . . Sherlock was passed on purpose to get to Turner, and on the Tribe's pitcher's tap to First Baseman Todd, Weiner failed to touch the bag as he received the throw. . . . This blunder filled the sacks and Weiner lost control and walked Bluege, forcing in Berger with the game-winning run.

Otto Bluege has accepted 44 chances at short for the Tribe in seven games and has escaped the bubble column. . . . He also is leading the Indian regulars at bat. . . . Last year the agile Otto was last in hitting.

Cotelle lost a hit in the eighth when Umpire Dunn called him out at first on a close play. . . . The ball was hit to deep short, and from the stands Camo looked safe enough.

IN the sixth, with Heath on first, Berger picked one, but Rozotte at short made a daring backhanded catch and threw to Todd in time to double Heath. The Saints executed one double play and the Indians two.

Kansas City topped the Association today by virtue of a 10-inning 7-to-4 victory over Toledo yesterday that came while the Millers were losing to Louisville, 4-3.

A HOME run by McCulloch in the ninth with two men on and two out set the stage for the Blues' victory. The Hens held a 4-to-1 lead going into the ninth. Singles by Scarritt and Alexander, a double by Boeck and a single by Susec gave Kansas City three runs in the tenth.

Bob Klingner won his second game of the season for Columbus, the only two the Red Birds have won, by holding Milwaukee to seven scattered hits. The score was 3 to 0.

Bluecoats to Drill for Baseball Opener With Tom Devine's Flashes

The Bounding Bluecoats of the city police department are to start tuneup drills for their 1936 baseball schedule Sunday morning at 9:30. Loyal followers of last season are expected to form an early cheering section when the Cops start working on Riverside diamond No. 2.

Another drill is scheduled for the following Sunday, May 3, on the same diamond. The Law Enforcers have scheduled as their opening-day foe a team placed in the field by Tom Devine of Indiana Roof Ballroom fame. The name is Devine Flashes.

High School Paddle Meet to Be Staged

The city high school table tennis tournament is to be staged tomorrow at the Paddle Club in the Test Building.

PETERSEN TURNS BACK M'AVOY IN TITLE BOUT

LONDON, April 24.—Jock McAvoy, British empire middleweight and light-heavyweight champion, was unable to add the heavyweight crown to his laurels in a 15-round title fight with Jack Petersen here last night.

It was a dull fight most of the way. Petersen, who weighed 190 to McAvoy's 178, spilled his weaving rival for a count of eight in the final round, but Jock stayed off the champion's final rush.

Mitt Ducats Going Fast, Jacobs Says

Sale Indicates Fight Will Set New Record.

By United Press
NEW YORK, April 24.—Advance sale for tickets to the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling heavyweight fight on June 18 is so heavy that the bout may set a new record for a non-championship match.

Promoter Mike Jacobs of the Twentieth Century Club announced today that orders for 7500 ringside seats already have been received and that the total advance sale is more than $300,000.

Jacobs said a capacity crowd of 80,000 would result in a gross gate of $1,600,000 compared to the $1,083,530 record set by Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey in 1927.

Jacobs said that there will be only 11,000 ringside pews for the fight. He already has received orders for 2500 other seats.

Sears Opposes Cunningham; Lash and Caldemeyer Face Powerful Drake Opposition

Butler Ace Keyed for 1000-Yard Race; Indiana Team Prospective Record-Breaker; 3000 Athletes Eager to Qualify for Berths on Olympic Track Squad.

BY LEONARD CASTLE
United Press Staff Correspondent

DES MOINES, Ia., April 24.—Track and field aces seeking berths on the 1936 Olympic team met in flag-decked Drake Stadium today for a general assault on Drake relay records.

The twenty-seventh annual running of the relays served as regional Olympic tryouts for nearly 3000 university, college and high school athletes. They hope to show enough ability to win a place on the team going to Berlin this summer, and their efforts endangered at least seven long-standing carnival marks.

Today's program was confined principally to high school competition, although preliminaries to Saturday's finals were scheduled in some collegiate and university events.

Two special events enlivened the regular program. They are a 1000-yard race featuring Glenn Cunningham of Kansas, and a 440-yard dash, which has brought together some of the finest quarter-milers in collegiate circles.

Cunningham faced plenty of opposition from Jack Fleming of Northwestern, Harry Williamson of North Carolina, Ray Sears of Butler and Harold Manning of Wichita, Kas.

Most of the seven Drake records believed in danger have been bettered by men participating in the Drake meet.

The pole vault, high jump, javelin throw, four-mile relay, 480-yard shuttle hurdle relay, two-mile run and distance medley relay were particularly in danger of falling.

Heading the list of prospective record-breakers were Cornelius Warmerdam of Fresno State in the pole vault; Linn Philson of Drake and John Cronin of Fresno State in the high jump; Mark Panther of Iowa and Clarence Rowland of Fresno State in the javelin throw; Jess Petty of Rice and Milan Zori of North Carolina State in the discus throw, and Don Lash of Indiana, Chuck Fenske of Wisconsin and Bill Wheelock of Kansas in the two-mile run.

Outstanding relay teams included Indiana and Wisconsin in the four-mile distance medley, Illinois and Iowa in the 480-yard shuttle hurdle, Pittsburgh (Kas.) Teachers in the one-mile; Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa in the half-mile.

More than 170 schools entered teams. More than 18,000 persons are expected to watch finals tomorrow.

An early event on the opening program is the 120-yard hurdles, in which Dan Caldemeyer of Indiana ranks among the favorites. He is Hoosier indoor champion.

Penn Relays Open

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—With the Olympic games the goal of a select few and the mere glory of winning a medal the aim of most, 3000 athletes from 480 colleges and schools opened competition today in the 42d Pennsylvania Relays.

Trimmed down from 82 to 67 events, the program will be the most compact in many years. Many of the events formerly devoted to high schools, parochial school and junior high events have been eliminated. Entries have been restricted (Turn to Page Thirty-Three)

Crack School Athletes Vie in City Meet

Prep Lads Compete Today in Third Track and Field Tourney.

The third annual city high school track and field meet was to be held today starting at 2 with Tech's squad of cinder performers coveting in the role of host and defending champion.

The meet promised to develop into a three-way battle between Shortridge, Washington and Tech with several outstanding performers from Manual and Broad Ripple cutting into the point distribution.

108 Athletes Entered
The five schools entered 108 athletes with Washington's undefeated team filling 29 contenders. Tech and Shortridge were to depend on 27 each, Manual, 15, and Broad Ripple 10.

Some close finishes loomed on the East Side track. The Continentals placed much hope in three distant runners, Weddle, Sartor and Johnson with much competition coming from Poulos of Tech, Cline and Crockett of Shortridge and others.

Included among the outstanding sprinters to see action in the relays and dashes were Simmons, Shortridge, Kramer and Arnett, Manuel, Williams, Tech, and Stewart, Washington.

Jack Brown, Blue Devils' defending broad jump champion; Stoneburner, Manual pole vaulter, and Stochich, Tech shot putter, stood a little above the field in this year's comparisons.

Other events were considered toss-ups with strong representatives from all schools.
