

JOHN BURNETT DIES IN TEXAS; RITES IN WEST

Former Resident's Funeral to Be Conducted in Kansas City.

John T. Burnett, brother of Mrs. Hugh J. McGowan, whose husband for 30 years was associated with the Indianapolis Street Railways and its predecessors, died at El Paso, Tex., yesterday.

Mr. Burnett, after leaving Indianapolis a year ago, had been in Jacksonville, Fla., and El Paso. He had been ill for some time.

Born in 1878 in Kansas City, Mo., Mr. Burnett came to Indianapolis when he was 28 years old. He was educated in St. Mary's College in Kansas City.

Mrs. Mary Jane Rickoff

Mrs. Mary Jane Rickoff is dead at the home of her nephew, Fred Minter, 1825 N. Delaware-st. She was 83. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but friends may call at the Wilson Funeral Home. Burial is to be in Clear Creek.

Mrs. Rickoff was born in Monroe County. She was married to the Rev. M. P. Rickoff, pastor of the Sixth Christian Church, who also held pastorates in Fort Wayne and Tipton. Mr. Rickoff died in 1910.

Mrs. Rickoff was a member of the Central Christian Church, the women's missionary group of the church and Mrs. Samuel Ashby's Bible class. Surviving her are a son, Clarence Rickoff, Chicago, and several nieces and nephews.

Henry E. Thoms

Funeral services are to be conducted at 2 tomorrow afternoon for Henry E. Thoms of 2755 Central-av. found dead late yesterday afternoon in a dwelling he owned at 1839 Brookside-av. Burial is to be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Relatives said he had gone to the house to clean wall paper for new tenants. Coroner William Arbuckle, who investigated, said death was due to heart disease.

Born in Indianapolis, Mr. Thoms had been a lifelong resident. He had been an employee of the Keyless Lock Co. for a number of years, but retired 17 years ago to manage several rental properties. He was a member of the Memorial Presbyterian Church and the Odd Fellows and Red Men.

Survivors are the widow, two brothers, Frederick Thoms of Shelbyville and George Thoms of Indianapolis, and a sister, Mrs. Will Greer of Chicago.

Robert H. May

Funeral services are to be held at 2:30 tomorrow for Robert H. May, Civil War veteran and retired business man. He died yesterday at the home of daughter, Mrs. Zola M. Dowd, 5100 Carvel-av. He was 38.

Born on a farm near Bloomington, Mr. May came to Indianapolis 45 years ago. He served in Company I, Tenth Indiana Cavalry, during the Civil War and was one of five brothers who served with the Union forces. He was a member of Joseph R. Gordon post, G. A. R. and a charter member of the Fifty-first Street M. E. Church.

Surviving Mr. May are three daughters, Mrs. Dowd, Mrs. Gertrude Muller and Mrs. Blanche M. Huse, all of Indianapolis; three grandsons, H. Clair Kimber, Indianapolis; Lieut. Morris M. Dowd, Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., and Robert H. Huse, Indianapolis, and a granddaughter, Martha Kimber, Indianapolis.

Services are to be held in the McNeely mortuary, with burial in Crown Hill.

SAPP INDORSES LANDON

State G. O. P. Leader Urges Backing for Kansas Governor.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 8.—Indiana Republicans were urged to back Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas for the Republican presidential nomination by Arthur H. Sapp, party leader, in an address last night.

Mr. Sapp praised Gov. Landon's record of economy and said he is "the strongest candidate the Republicans can nominate."

Indiana Representatives Delighted Over Election

All Are Happy Over Renomination and Confident They Will Be Re-Elected in November Poll.

By DANIEL M. KIDNEY
Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The Hoosier delegation in the House consists of a dozen delighted congressmen today.

All have returned to their seats happy over their renomination and confident of victory next fall. For most of them, wrinkles caused by rumors of strength of Townsendites and Coughlinites have disappeared.

Several boast that they will meet Republican opponents whom they have defeated before. This list includes Reps. J. I. Farley, Sam B. Pettengill, Arthur Greenwood, John W. Boehne Jr. and Eugene B. Crowe. Mrs. Virginia E. Jenckes has a former congressman as her Republican foe, as does Reps. Farley and Pettengill.

Schulte Is Confident

Rep. William T. Schulte of the First District hasn't heard who the G. O. P. nominated, but declared: "I can beat any one running in that district except President Roosevelt."

Rep. Charles A. Halleck, the lone Republican member, feels confident that he will be returned over the Democratic nominee, Hugh Barnhart, Rochester, son of a former Democratic congressman.

"The Second District looks very much Republican," Mr. Halleck commented. It was cut out with that idea in mind under the late Republican leader—Rep. Will Wood.

Lawyer Opposes Pettengill

Mr. Pettengill's opponent in the Third District is Andrew Hickey, La Porte lawyer, who has been the G. O. P. nominee for the last 22 years. The South Bend Representative has defeated him twice and he was defeated before that by the late Rep. Henry A. Barnhart, whose son is in the Second District race.

Mr. Hickey was a member of Congress for 12 years, however. Rep. Farley, who was most thrilled with his renomination victory over stiff opposition from Judge Vincent McNabb of Fort Wayne, faces David Hogg as his opponent in the Fourth District this fall. Mr. Hogg is a former congressman whom Mr. Farley has defeated twice.

Recount May Be Made

Rep. Glenn Griswold of the Fifth District may be opposed by Benjamin Brown, Kokomo, Townsend Club member. A recount may be made, for Richard T. James, Portland, was defeated by two votes on the basis of unofficial tabulation of official returns.

Mrs. Jenckes is opposed to former Congressman Noble Johnson in the Sixth District. She has a record of defeating two congressmen in the past. She ousted Rep. Courtland Gillard from the Democratic re-

BACKS STEIWER FOR PRESIDENT

Veterans' Newspaper Urges
G. O. P. Keynoter as Party Candidate.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance

WASHINGTON, May 8.—A presidential boomlet for Senator Frederick Steiwer (R., Ore.), one of the sponsors of the bonus act, was inflated today by the National Tribune, a veterans' newspaper which recently started a movement for all incapacitated veterans.

The Tribune in a front-page editorial asserts that the "soldier vote" probably can carry the balance in a national election, and urges Senator Steiwer as one who "has done everything possible to aid the men who wore the uniform in time of war and their dependents."

Mr. Steiwer is the keynoter for the Republican national convention. He has been active in nearly all veterans' legislation brought up since his election to the Senate 10 years ago. He is generally regarded as half-way between progressive and conservative camps in the Senate.

FIREMEN FIGHT TO SAVE SICK INFANT

Child, 7 Weeks Old, Has Been in Flood, Fires.

By United Press

CLEVELAND, May 8.—Fifteen firemen fought in relays today to save baby William Dudy Jr., whose seven short weeks of life have been fraught with flood, fire and disaster.

Critically ill with pneumonia, the baby has been given 900 gallons of oxygen since Monday night. William was born at Dubois, Pa., in the Pennsylvania flood district. His family was cut off from water and food and doctors said it was "lucky" he lived even a week.

Shortly after the flood receded, the Dudy home caught fire. With the baby in her arms Mrs. Dudy leaped to safety from a porch roof. The family moved to Cleveland two weeks ago. Saturday William fell ill and by Monday had developed pneumonia.

Senate to Get Naval Treaty

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 8.—President Roosevelt indicated today that he would send the recently negotiated London Naval Treaty to the Senate for ratification next week.

COME DOWN 'N' SEE US, SAY QUADS TO QUINS

Famous Texas Sisters to Extend Centennial Bid to Dionnes.

By United Press
WACO, Tex., May 8.—The Keys sisters, only living girl quadruplets in the world, were to leave for Callander, Ont., to invite the Dionne quintuplets to visit the Texas Centennial.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and former Texas Governor, will accompany the sisters—Mary, Roberta, Mona and Leota Keys, now students in Baylor. Stops are to be made in St. Louis and Washington, to visit St. Louis University and George Washington University. The party will arrive in Toronto Monday, going by way of Chicago.
