Two Nominated for District Post; 500 Delegates Hear Speakers.

By United Press
LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 13.—C. Seymour Bullock, South Bend, and Maurice E. Louth, Kokomo, were nominees for district governor to be elected today at the twenty-third annual conference of the twentieth district of the Rotary International.

The choice of the 500 delegates is to be subject to the approval of the international convention.

W. W. Emerson, Winnipeg, Canada, director of Rotary International, and Dr. Edward E. Elliott, Purdue University president, were to speak at today's sessions.

Warnings against dictatorship and Fascism were made to the delegates by Dr. Henry H. Crane, Scranton, Pa.

"You get a dictatorship when men become hopeless and listen to demagogues," he warned. "When we lose faith in ourselves, we are doomed."

"Remember that a dictatorship reduces you to the lowest animal level. They do away with education and substitute propaganda. Your creative impulses are frustrated. And don't forget that freedom of speech and freedom of thought are touchstones of democracy," he declared.
