

BANK NIGHT GUARANTEE HELD TO BE INSURANCE

Lutz Rules on Movie Certificates to Protect Patrons' Awards. Theater bank night guarantee certificates which purport to reimburse holders should they be absent from a theater on the date of the certificate and thus fail to receive an award made by theater constitute insurance, Atty. Gen. Philip Lutz ruled today. In an opinion given to Harry E. McClain, state insurance commissioner, Mr. Lutz said such certificates constitute insurance within the meaning of the Indiana insurance law. Mr. McClain, in requesting the opinion, cited the case of a Michigan City theater which issued "absentee bank night guarantees," which were advertised to protect individuals against failure to collect awards due to absence from the theater on the date their certificates were called. Student Riots Quelled By United Press SAN JUAN, P. R., May 14.—Prepared for any surprise move and with National Guardsmen stationed at strategic positions throughout the city, officials today quelled student riots and reopened public schools.

STANLEY MYERS NAMED SCOTTISH RITE OFFICER

Assumes Post of Sovereign Prince of Saralah Council. Stanley G. Myers, 1409 N. Pennsylvania-st., Indianapolis Power and Light Co. chief clerk, today assumed his duties as sovereign prince of Saralah Council, Princes of Jerusalem, a Scottish Rite group.

The annual election was held at the Cathedral last night. Eugene D. Wilcox, auditor of the Thornton-Levey Co., was named master of entrances. Officers in this body serve two years in each station, although named annually. Other officers chosen were Crawford H. Barker, high priest; John E. Kendall, senior warden; William W. Suckow, Franklin, junior warden; Edward D. Moore, treasurer; Fred I. Willis, secretary; Martin T. Ohr, hospitaler; W. Pierre Lobdell, master of ceremonies, and Frank Borras, Tyler. BUDGET LEAK LINKED TO BRITISH OFFICIAL Charge Threatens to Force Minister Out of Cabinet. By United Press LONDON, May 14.—Sensational testimony threatening to force withdrawal of J. H. Thomas, Minister of Colonies, from the cabinet, today featured a special tribunal's investigation to uncover the source of a leak in budget provisions which sent insurance rates against a rise in the income tax soaring.
