

CLASS REUNIONS SCHEDULED FOR 18 I. U. GROUPS

Commencement Program for 1000 Graduates Opens Saturday, June 13.

Times Special
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 22.—Graduates of 18 Indiana University classes are to hold reunions in connection with commencement activities here next month. Alumni Secretary George P. Heighway said today.

The commencement program is to open Saturday morning, June 13, continuing through Monday. Degrees are to be awarded approximately 1000 students in the stadium at twilight Monday.

Members of the classes of 1872, '73, '74 and '75 are to have a joint reunion. Mrs. Emma Jennings Clarke, Bloomington, is in charge of arrangements.

Other classes scheduled for reunions and the secretary of each are: 1886, Mrs. Kate Miller Rabb, Indianapolis; 1891, Mrs. Martha Orchard Malott, Bloomington; 1892, Dean C. J. Sembover, Bloomington; 1894, Mrs. Lella Ramsey Lemon, Oxford, O.

1910, Walter Greenough, Indianapolis; 1911, Mrs. Edna Hatfield Edmondson, Bloomington; 1912, Mrs. Floyd McGriff, Detroit, Mich.; 1913, Mrs. Mary Nash Hatfield, Indianapolis; 1929, Mrs. Miriam Combs Ruby, Terre Haute.

1930, Joseph A. Smith, New York; 1931, Mrs. Peggy Culmer Huncilman, Indianapolis; 1932, Mrs. Laura Jane Stout Ramsey, Indianapolis; and 1934, Lyman Smith, Versailles.

$800,000 TO BE SPENT ON CORONATION ROBES

Peers and Peersesses Will Wear Crimson Velvet.

By United Press
LONDON, May 22.—Peers and peersesses will spend $800,000 on their coronation robes, which they have ordered.

The cloth—crimson velvet of a deep ecclesiastical hue—takes six months to manufacture in the north of England. Nearly 1600 robes have to be made.

IRWIN AGREES TO ISSUE CALL FOR MEETING

Acts on Request of Gates Faction; Ignores Eighth District Poll.

Don B. Irwin, state chairman, indicated today that at the request of the Gates faction of the party he would call a meeting of the Republican State Committee.

Mr. Irwin said he would take this action although he did not recognize the Eighth District election yesterday of Gene Scamahorn, Rockport, and Mrs. Thomas Groves, Perry County, as chairman and vice chairman.

It is the contention of the Gates faction that the vote of the Eighth District chairman and vice chairman would result in the upsetting of Mr. Irwin. Mr. Irwin had taken the position that he was the only person authorized to call a district convention.

A state committee call which would bar the two Eighth District leaders from voting would not result in unseating Mr. Irwin, the Gates faction declared.

With the Eighth District delegates barred from the state committee meeting, Mr. Irwin broke a tie vote by casting the deciding ballot for himself. The Gates faction claims that if the Eighth District had been represented Mr. Gates would have been chosen.

Efforts to compromise and restore party harmony before the state convention may be sought by leaders of both sides. Some believe the compromise will result in Mr. Irwin retaining his chairmanship.

DUBUQUE, Ia., May 22.—Historic landmarks of Dubuque's old river front and a packet steamboat traveling up the Mississippi River will take form this summer in a mural to ornament the walls of Dubuque's new postoffice.

IOWA MURAL TO DEPICT HISTORIC LANDMARKS

The murals will be painted by Aert Adams and William Bunn, University of Iowa graduate students.

The muralists now are studying at the University of Iowa under the famed Midwestern artist, Grant Wood. They received the Federal commission for the murals on basis of sketches submitted in Washington.

GROGERS THREATEN TAX BLACKLISTING

Candidates Asked to Take Stand on Gross Levy.

Times Special
PORT WAYNE, Ind., May 22.—Blacklisting of candidates who favor retention of the Indiana gross income tax was threatened today by Charles J. Steiss, secretary of the Indiana Retail Grocers' and Meat Dealers' Association, as the association prepared to carry its fight against the 1933 law into the November elections.

"Indiana retailers will campaign actively against nominees who have not definitely established themselves as opponents of the tax measure," Mr. Steiss said. One of the weapons will be the blacklist, which will contain names of candidates favoring retention of the tax and which will be distributed widely throughout the state, he asserted.

"We are going right down the line and will use every means at our disposal to force repeal of this income tax," Mr. Steiss declared. He pointed out that the chief complaint of the retailers against the tax was that because they sell in small lots they are unable to pass the tax on to the consumer.
