

USE OF GRILL PLATE SAVES TIME, MONEY

Convenient Dishes Now May Be Bought in Variety of Patterns.

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

The "grill," "club" and "blue" plate is one of the most practical short cuts for the housekeeper and in many instances it makes for economy as well.

Originally these grill plates with partitions to keep foods separate were made exclusively in a blue patterned ware, which explains the name "blue plate." But now they may be bought in a variety of makes and patterns of china and glass.

Any type of meal can be served in a grill plate. Company luncheons, oven dinners, vegetable plates, top-of-the-stove and broiled meats all save steps and dish washing when put on a compartment plate.

As in planning all meals, the combination for grill plates should be carefully thought out and chosen with regard to color, shape and texture as well as flavor and food value.

If necessary, a first course of soup and a dessert can be added to the combinations suggested. However, the plates are well balanced and hearty as they are. Bread of some sort and a beverage will want.

The following plate would be suitable for a spring dinner.

Mixed Grill Dinner

Lamb chops, calves' liver, tomatoes, mushrooms, little sausages, new potatoes, watercress, toast, thinly sliced bacon, baked apple, milk, coffee.

For the mixed grill plate have lamb chops cut thick and tell the butcher to French them. Broil under the flame or over a bed of hot coals for 10 or 15 minutes. Season with salt and pepper and place on a triangle of hot toast.

Brush sliced calves' liver with melted butter and broil.

Cut tomatoes in halves, brush with melted butter and broil.

Pan-broil sausages, allowing two for each plate.

Pan-broil mushroom caps—one for each plate.

Boil potatoes, dip in melted butter and roll in minced parsley.

Arrange these materials on grill plates and garnish with a spray of watercress. Add two slices of crisp broiled bacon and serve at once.

CANTALOUPE ARE BEST WHEN SERVED ICE COLD

Half Melon May Be Filled With Bananas or Other Fruit.

Always serve cantaloupes ice cold. Serve a half melon with a scoop of ice cream. If you wish a change, try chocolate ice cream. Or fill the half melon with red raspberries, sliced bananas, or it may be filled with whipped cream and fresh fruit pulp. Cubed cantaloupes may be served in individual glasses after chilling.

BROILED PORK TENDERLOIN

Have a thick pork tenderloin split not quite through and flattened out. Spread with melted butter and season with salt, pepper, and a bit of celery salt.

Broil under a moderate flame for about 20 minutes. Serve with tart apple sauce.

CHOCOLATE WAFFLES

One cup and 2 tablespoons flour, 2 squares chocolate, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon soda, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter.

Mix and sift flour, salt, sugar and baking powder. Add milk, stirring to keep smooth. Add yolks of eggs well beaten, melted shortening and chocolate melted over hot water. Mix thoroughly and stir in soda dissolved in a little cold water. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff. Bake on a hot waffle iron.

You can make waffle batter several hours before you want to use it and store it, closely covered in the refrigerator. However, it only takes a few minutes to stir up, so if you want to make waffles on the spur of the minute, you always can.

ARREST OF ORGANIZER PROTESTED TO M'NUTT

Appeal in Terre Haute Case Made by Labor Leaders.

A protest against the arrest of a union organizer in Terre Haute was lodged today with Gov. McNutt by Adolph Fritz, Indiana State Federation of Labor secretary, and Alex Gordon, representative of the Railway Brotherhoods.

The labor leaders charged that Terre Haute police arrested R. H. Lowman, Duquoin, Ill., organizer for the Retail Clerks International Protective Association, on a vagrancy charge.

Gov. McNutt said he could step in only by declaring martial law, and Mr. Fritz and Mr. Gordon said they did not want that action. The Governor advised them to take habeas corpus action on Mr. Lowman's behalf.

ETHIOPIAN CHIEFTAIN SUBMITS TO ITALIANS

Ras Imru One of Last Leaders to Lay Down His Arms.

By United Press
ADDIS ABABA, May 22.—Ras Imru, one of the last chieftains of prominence to oppose the Italians, submitted to Italian rule when Debra Markos was occupied yesterday, it was announced today. Ras Imru commanded a small, picked Ethiopian force on the Ethiopian-Eritrea frontier near the Sudan, and little progress was made in his sector until the final phase of the war.

By United Press
ROME, May 22.—Premier Benito Mussolini is preparing for a long-range campaign of commercial reprisals against nations which joined in League penalties against Italy, it was indicated today.
