ARMY SERVICE REQUIRED

Compulsory Training in Austria Is Revived by Schuschnigg.

By United Press
VIENNA, May 26.—Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg's government today completed plans for the revival of compulsory military service in Austria.

The chancellor, newly self-proclaimed dictator, announced that 15,000 men would begin training Oct. 1.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD + By William Ferguson

WHEN MORTALLY WOUNDED, MACAWS FREQUENTLY HOOK THEIR BEAKS OVER A SMALL LIMB AND REMAIN HANGING IN MID-AIR AFTER DEATH.

FIRE WAS NOT UNDERSTOOD, RIGHTLY UNTIL ABOUT 150 YEARS AGO.

THE PERCHERON BREED OF HORSES IS NAMED FOR THE FRENCH DISTRICT OF "LA PERCHE," NATIVE HOME OF THE BREED.

FIRE puzzled men for ages. It seemed to be something apart from earth, air and water. One reason why fire remained a mystery so long is that people thought it was a substance. They believed that it was a hot material that poured out of things as they burned.

DEMOCRATS MOVING INTO PHILADELPHIA

Executive Offices Set Up for Opening of Convention.

By United Press
PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The Democratic vanguard moved into Philadelphia today, set up executive offices, began its task of preparing for the national convention beginning June 23.

Oliver A. Quales Jr., executive assistant to Secretary W. Forbes Morgan of the national committee, was in charge of the first delegation which opened headquarters at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Twelve rooms were set apart for executive committee offices.

"252 miles to the gallon is how I figure it with Red Crown"

...GROWS Lester Longbow

Mr. Lester Longbow, a prominent resident of Dozen Forks, R. R. 6, is known throughout the state for his untiring efforts in behalf of the Tall Stories Club.

Y A see, I was to be speaker o' the evening at the annual Grange dinner over to Dozen Forks. I got all tidied up, sorta late, and then found the dratted car was out o' gas—and Dozen Forks all o' four miles away.

"Well, my wife had an idea. 'Wait'll I get that little bottle o' gas I got from the Standard Dealer to kill the ants with,' says she.

"I loved as how it was foolish, but we'd try it. So she brought out a little 2-ounce bottle and we dumped the Standard Red Crown it held into the gas tank. I started off, figuring mebbe I'd make a hundred rod.

"But I got past the next farm—and the next—'n 'fore I knew it there I was in front 'o the Grange with the motor still runnin'.

"Figure it out for yourself... four miles worth o' distance on two ounces o' Red Crown. That's 252 miles to the gallon. That's mileage, mister!... Eh?... Sure, the whole Grange is using Red Crown now."

We think Standard Red Crown is good, too, but we refuse to be taken in by Lester's vivid report. It's not THAT good.

With "more live power per gallon," Standard Red Crown operates with less waste power per gallon. With it you can be sure of as long mileage per gallon as with any regular-priced gasoline you can buy—if not longer.

But rather than make claims, Standard prefers to make it easy for motorists to find out the real facts about gasoline mileage for themselves.
