

4 HIGH SCHOOLS ARE TO AWARD 2199 DIPLOMAS

Technical, Crispus Attucks Graduations Set for Tonight.

Shortridge High School is to graduate 674 seniors at commencement exercises tomorrow night in Cadie Tabernacle. Washington High School is to conclude this year's graduation ceremonies Thursday night in Butler Fieldhouse when 265 seniors are to receive diplomas.

Tonight, 1050 Technical High School seniors are to receive diplomas in Butler Fieldhouse, while 210 Crispus Attucks pupils are to be graduated at Cadie Tabernacle. Roy McCormick and K. Alice Gettner, both members of the senior class, are to be principal speakers on the Shortridge program. Barton R. Pogue, Indiana University English instructor, is to address the Washington seniors, and Paul C. Stetson, superintendent of schools, is to present the diplomas.

Manual Awards Diplomas
Two hundred and seventy-nine Manual Training High School seniors received graduation diplomas from Mrs. Clayton Ridge, school board member, at commencement exercises in Cadie Tabernacle last night.

The invocation was given by Rev. E. A. Piepenbrock, St. John's Evangelical Church pastor. Dr. W. Henry McLean, Huntington (Ind.) First Methodist Church pastor and former professor at De Pauw University, made the commencement address.

Music was provided by the school band under the direction of Lon L. Perkins, the orchestra under the direction of Harold E. Winslow, the Girls' Glee Club and Carl Rick, xylophonist.

Scholarships Are Awarded
John H. Holliday Jr. scholarships were awarded to Angelo Angelopoulos, Ellen Caplin, Geraldine Gillatt, Robert Hall, Robert Matthews, Clarice Reimer and Robert Specker and the Riley Medal, given each year to a senior of high scholastic ability, was presented to De Loris Rahm.

The January honor roll of pupils with an average of 90 or above for the entire high school course listed Ellen Caplin, Herbert Newman, Robert Hall, Robert Specker, Ida Mai Wilson, Ruth Albertson and Roscoe Miller.

Seniors in the June honor roll division were Iva Mae Studebaker, Geraldine Gillatt, Robert Matthews, De Loris Rahm, Angelo Angelopoulos, Jessie Winkler, Clarice Reimer, Hope Brown, Margaret Branstetter, Margaret Postma, Herschel Kopp, Caroline Patrick, George Volda, Rosemary Johnston, Alma De Baum, Charles Johnston, Ruth Reimer, Rosemary Carney, Rose Ellen Berndt, Helen Davis, Marie Montes, Albert Nehmias, Ole Confield, Lena Yosafat, Ralph Brown and Esther Katz.

Parents Are Lauded
Appreciation due parents for their sacrifice and counsel was stressed last night by Dr. William G. Spencer, president of Franklin College, in an address to the 59 members of the graduating class of Broad Ripple High School. Alan W. Boyd, member of the Board of School Commissioners, presented diplomas.
