Noted Political Expert Had Been Ill a Year; Burial on Thursday.

Funeral services for Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, political scientist and director of government research in Washington and a former resident of Indiana, who died yesterday at his home in Washington, are to be held in Franklin, the city of his birth, Thursday afternoon, according to word received here. Burial also is to be in Franklin.

Dr. Hall, 54, had been ill more than a year. He was a member of the Baptist Church, the Masons, American Political Science Association, American Social Society, American Institute of Criminology, American Judicature Society, Phi Delta Theta, Delta Sigma Rho, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Mu and the Order of Coif. He was graduated from Franklin College in 1904 and was graduated cum laude from the University of Chicago in 1907. He was the author of several books on political science.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Grace Stafford Carney Hall; a daughter, Miss Grace Elizabeth Hall, Evanston, Ill.; four sisters, Mrs. Letitia Hall Carter, Indianapolis; Mrs. Florence Hall Harvey, West Lafayette, and Mrs. Mary Hall Selby, San Diego, and two brothers, Warren S. Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., and Nelson C. Hall, Milwaukee.

Mrs. Rhoda P. Campbell

Services for Mrs. Rhoda P. Campbell, who died yesterday, are to be held at 10 tomorrow in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Neva Merritt in Brownsburg.

Mrs. Campbell, who was 86, is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Iva James, Sherwood, Mich.; Mrs. Emma Dewey, Martinsville, and Mrs. Della Dunbar and Mrs. Minnie Jones of Indianapolis, and two sons Elmer and David Campbell, Indianapolis.

Giles Ferris Olwin

Last rites for Giles Ferris Olwin, investment attorney and former secretary-manager of the Indianapolis Better Business Bureau, who died yesterday in his home, 5102 N. Pennsylvania-st., are to be held at 7:30 tonight in the Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary. Services also will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Methodist Church in Winchester, his former home. Burial is to be in Winchester. He was 60.

Mr. Olwin was associated with the Better Business Bureau from 1918 to 1926 and served one term as president of the board of governors of the National Better Business Commission. He practiced law in Winchester, serving as a junior member of a firm, one of whose members was Judge Enos L. Watson, father of James E. Watson, former United States Senator.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Mary M. Olwin; a daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hunt Davis, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Hoyne, both of Indianapolis, and a sister, Mrs. Davis E. Crues, Dekalb, Ill.
