

GOLF IS BIGGEST 'GAMBLE' ON CALENDAR

Anything Can Happen When Stars Parade

Dopester Has to Be Lucky to Call Winner in National Open.

BY JOE WILLIAMS
Times Special Writer
BALTIMORE GOLF CLUB, N. J., June 4.—According to Mr. Williams, as your Uncle Samuel is sometimes called, lotteries in this country are against the law, but it will be noted with some surprise that no steps are ever taken to prohibit the National Open golf championship.

From the standpoint of sheer speculation, change and what-have-you the Open is the most flagrant lottery in sports. It is as unpredictable as a woman's mood, as unbelievable as a Munchausen tale and as unstable as an economic boom. As in a Billy Rose drama, anything can happen in it.

So many factors enter into the winning and losing of the Open that it is naturally becoming the biggest gamble in sports. In discussing the uncertainties of football, Bob Zuppke, veteran Illinois coach, said no one could ever be sure which way a football would bounce. And up to now no one has been able to tell for certain just where a golf ball will come to rest.

The twisting fairways, billowy greens and treacherous traps comprise a vast roulette wheel, the spinning of which brings good luck to some, bad to others. There are always from 20 to 30 players in the Open skilled enough as shotmakers to win. Thus on the basis of numbers alone the dopest has to be lucky to call the winner. And when you add to this the element of nerve control, mental attitude and temperament in general the assignment becomes hopeless.

They started play today in the fourth hole of Jersey, seventeen miles away from the sky line of Manhattan, and the three players who heard mentioned most often were Henry Picard, Gene Sarazen and Horton Smith. It may well develop that these are the three who must be beaten off, but only a wide-eyed romancer would care to invest any considerable sum in the proposition.

It also may develop that none of the three finishes in the first ten. It isn't necessary to go any further in golf history than last year to prove that nothing is impossible in the Open. Over Oakmont, the hardest scoring course in America, Sam Parks, an apprentice professional who has never won a championship of any importance, took all the honors. He was the only man in the huge field even to break 300.

If that can happen once it can happen again. As a matter of fact it has happened several times. The Open is not always won by the best golfer. Though it is frequently won by the golfer who happens to be the best shot at the moment. This is something else the dopest has no way of knowing in advance.

There has been a general belittlement of Parks' 1935 victory at Oakmont and no doubt some of it is justified because the young man hasn't done anything since; but it should be remembered in the final round when the pressure was greatest, he kept even step with par from the fourth to the sixteenth green, the most consistent scoring any of the leaders was able to produce when the chips were down.

In short, Parks was good when he had to be good. He was at the top of his game at a time when every shot counted. This blustery state may never come to him again—but it may come to some other player no better equipped to lead the Open, and then you will hear another song of the dark horse.

Jack Hiatt Is Awarded Fourth Manual Letter

During the Honor Day program at Manual Training High School today, Principal E. H. Kemper McComb distributed athletic awards as part of the exercises.

Block M and sweaters were presented to Jack Hiatt (pictured here), Robert Leachman, William Kramer and Norman Mueller for outstanding performances on the track squad and to Robert Crouch for his noteworthy record on the golf team. Crouch is captain of the golf squad and captured second place in the state high school tournament.

Other track awards went to Verlie Arnett, Emory Creekbaum, Alva Stoneburner, Harold Yeager, Leonard Campbell, Clifford Gribben and William Tavenor, block M letters; Thomas Nicholas, Vestal Smith and Joe Osman, E. M. T. H. S. monogram; Nathan Lockman, Kenneth Oyler, Robert Zimmer, William O'Neill and Marvin Wyatt, six-inch M. T. S. and Eugene Crane, Elmer Parks, William Fair, Richard Wending, Dewey Donovan, Marshall Snoddy and Glen Pevler, four-inch M. T. S.

Along with Crouch in the golf division, Ralph Brown and Jack Hiatt received block M. Upon receipt of his golf block M, Hiatt became the only four-letter high school athlete in Indianapolis, as he already has obtained letters in football, basketball and track. Herschell Hinkley, the other member of the golf foursome, received a E. M. T. H. S. monogram.

Morris Nahmias won the medal given to the most consistent winner in the Hoosier Freshman Track meet. Ribbon winners were Eugene Crane, Marshall Snoddy, Morris Nahmias, Glen Pevler, William Fair, Elmer Parks, William McCarty, Royce Stevens, Frederick Mueller and Jack Cohn.

Ex-Champ Agrees to Rematch With Nebraska Farmer

Sonnenberg and Fraley Are Paired in Mat Tussle.

A "rubber" match between Gus Sonnenberg, 210, former undisputed world heavyweight mat king, and Pat (Black Secret) Fraley, 220, powerful Nebraska farmer, is assured for next Tuesday night at Sports Arena, Matchmaker Lloyd Carter of the Hercules A. C. announced today.

Sonnenberg has accepted an attractive offer for a rematch, Carter reports. The tussle will bring the pair together for the third time. Fraley, wearing a mask and grappling as the "Black Secret," went undefeated in local mat warfare in nine tugs, tossing such well-known aces as Otto Kuss, Leo Numa and Sonnenberg. In a second clash with Gus on May 19, the Nebraskan was disqualified after each had annexed a fall. Pat's first triumph over Sonnenberg was the first loss the "Dynamiter" had ever suffered in a local ring.

Carter rates the Sonnenberg-Fraley encounter as a "natural" and believes it will attract a large turnout of local and state fans to the outdoor arena.

Gillispi had 13 strikeouts for the winners.

Baby Lincolns will play at Kempton Sunday and will travel to Lebanon the following week. For Sunday games in July write Earl Smith, 762 N. Sheffield-av., Indianapolis.

Michigan Finishes First in Big Ten

Wolverines Beat Iowa, 8-6, in Final Game.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 4.—The University of Michigan today holds its first Big Ten baseball title since 1929, after closing the season with an 8-to-6 triumph over Iowa here yesterday.

Capt. Berger Lawson limited the Hawkeyes to five scattered hits, but Wolverine errors enabled the visitors to take the lead with five unearned runs in the fifth inning.

Michigan broke a tie in the eighth inning to win the title.

Iowa, even with Michigan in the Conference standing when today's game started, dropped to third position. Illinois took second place. Score: Iowa, 6; Michigan, 8.

Cumberland Merchants will engage in a return game with the Indians at Mohawk Sunday. The Merchants triumphed, 10 to 2, on the home diamond in the first encounter between the teams when Chuck Waite limited the visitors to five hits.

No Fault of Relief Lads as Hens Win

Tribe's Starting Pitcher Is Thumped; Double Bill on Tomorrow.

George Payne, veteran minor league right-hand pitcher who resides in Indianapolis, was signed by the Indians today to serve in the relief role. He was called and pitched for the Springfield (Mo.) club last year, winning 15 games and losing seven. Payne had a brief trial with the Tribe in 1930.

The pesky Mud Hens are to close their series here tonight in a third skirmish with the Redskins and the home pastimers will be delighted to see the tallenders depart. Fred Haney's tossers from the banks of the Maumee apparently know what it takes to push the Tribesters in the face and they made it two straight by annexing last night's affair, 7 to 3.

Eddie Zwilling's Kansas City Blues are to invade Perry Stadium tomorrow and the action with the league-leaders is to open with a twilight-moonlight double-header. The first engagement will start at 5 o'clock and the second at 8:15. It will be "buttermilk" says day for the youngsters at the Tribe park.

Six Runs Off Bud Red Killefer's relief pitchers were innocent last night. Two were used and both hurled a fine brand of ball. The trouble was caused by the starting chucker, Bud Tinning, who was solved for seven hits, three walks and six runs in the first three innings. He was dethroned in the fourth and Jimmy Sharp relieved and halted the Toledo attack.

Sharp dropped out for a pinch hitter in the sixth and Tom Gailivan finished the contest on the floor mound and held off the enemy.

Faced by Chick Shiver with two singles and a double, the Tribesters outthrew the Hens, 10 to 8, but Charles Wesley Flowers, on the Toledo rubber, was effective when real danger threatened. The sixth was a sample of the Hoosiers' inability to stage a "big" inning.

Three Hitters Fall The Indians tallied one marker and then loaded the sacks with nobody out. Three right-handed hitters in a row faced the left-handed slants of Flowers and the ball never got out of the infield.

Riddle forced Shiver at the plate. Sherlock fouled to catcher Garbark and Jack Flowers popped to Winny Jasco back of second. The Indians were knocked back on their heels by the washout.

The Hens got the breaks in the first round and scored a cluster of three runs on an infield hit, Bluege's error, Carson's double, a long fly and Garbark's single. And in the third it was another massacre. Two doubles and two singles accounted for a second cluster of three markers and put the game beyond the reach of the Killeferites.

The Hens tallied one in the fifth off Sharp, aided by an error, and Indianapolis scored in the second, sixth and ninth.

Buck Fausselt was busy at third base and had more than one man's share of tough chances. The damp grass annoyed the Indians, but the hustling Hens refused to be bothered.

Two big league scouts were in the stands, Chick Fraser of Brooklyn and Clarence Rowland of the Chicago Cubs. Southpaw Flowers, the Czech of twirlers, is owned by the Tribe.

Jim Turner is slated to try his assortment against the Hens tonight. Sullivan is marked up to chuck for the visitors.

Nine bases on balls were issued by Tribe pitchers. Manager Killefer is doing everything possible to correct this fault, but his hurriers keep throwing 'em wide of the plate.

Davis Cup Players Sail for Wimbledon

NEW YORK, June 4.—The United States often-defeated Davis Cup tennis players sailed yesterday for England to compete in the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Donald Budge, Gene Mako, Wilmer Allison and Bryan Grant comprise the four-man team which will represent this country. Departing with them were John VanRyn, doubles ace, and Hal Sauter, promising Kansas City youth.

Millers and Saints Gain

Heat Is Added to A. A. Race as Blues and Brewers Lose.

THE American Association fight for leadership today appeared to be moving into another tangle. The No. 1 team, Kansas City, was blanked, and the No. 2 team, Milwaukee, was beaten in yesterday's games.

The first division clubs today stood: Kansas City first; Milwaukee, half a game behind; Minneapolis; one and a half under Milwaukee; St. Paul, one and a half from Milwaukee.

Ira Hutchinson, St. Paul Saints pitcher, accounted for the Blues' defeat. The score was 2 to 0. He gave Kansas City five hits—the same number his team flapped out—but remained steady. His mound opponent, Wyatt, let go a wild pitch and then gave a walk to provide the margin.

The Millers collected 14 hits against Milwaukee's nine in their game. Those 14 included three home runs. The final score was 11 to 0, and the loss chalked against Allan Johnson, Brewers' rookie, who allowed the home runs.

The Louisville Colonels went down for the third straight time before the Columbus Red Birds. The final score, 8 to 2, didn't go up until the last two innings, when the Colonels managed to escape a shut out by a run each inning.
