

DESPAIR GRIPS CLUBS

Giants Break Wrigley Field Spell; Win 3-0

Schumacher Whips Bruins as Curt Davis Falters; Cards Hold Lead.

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 4.—Phil K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, is the picture of despair today because no matter how much he loosens the o'purs strings, it seems he can not bolster his faltering team. Hal Schumacher of the New York Giants blanked the Bruins yesterday, 3 to 0, allowing only three hits. His most recent expenditure of $50,000—plus Chuck Klein—for Pitcher Curt Davis appears to have been a squandered in about the same fashion as the $65,000 and three players he parted with in exchange for Klein three years ago, the club was again wiped out. Davis to the club moundsmen was supposed to have been the best balanced hurling staff in the National League, but it hasn't.

Although Davis had won only two games up to the time he was obtained by Chicago, it was believed that poor support in the field and at bat was the cause of not turning in more victories. In the two weeks he has been with the Cubs, Davis has started three times, lost twice and won once. Chicago was in the second division with a percentage of .483 when Wrigley announced acquisition of Davis, and the club was only one game out of the lower bracket with a total of .483 today.

Davis lost his second game as a Cub yesterday, thereby allowing the Giants to break a jinx that the Cubs had held more than a year. Not since May, 1935, when Carl Hubbell turned back Chicago, 3 to 2, had New York won a game at Wrigley Field.

Cubs Get Three Hits.

The Cubs made it nine straight over the Giants on the home grounds when New York made its first western invasion last month. Hits by Whitehead, Leiber and Man-suco, and a walk to Manager Bill Terry gave New York all its runs in the first inning yesterday.

The league-leading St. Louis Cardinals kept their three-game margin intact with a 7-to-3 decision, their second straight over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Hits by Haslin, Reis and Urbanski, and a walk to Lopez pushed over two runs in the 11th, enabling the Boston Bees to win, 4 to 3, and even the series at one-all with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The American League New York Yankees got back in stride with an 11-to-1 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. Charley Ruffing pitched five-hit ball.

The second-place Boston Red Sox made it two straight over the Cleveland Indians, winning by a 6-to-2 margin. It was Wesley Ferrell's seventh triumph over the Tigers, failed to gain ground, succumbing, 11 to 7, before a 14-hit Philadelphia batting spree.

Buck Newsom doled out seven hits as the Washington Senators fanned the St. Louis Browns two straight, 7 to 4.

22 Ring Teams Invade Detroit

Industrial Boxers Mix in Bouts Today.

Times Special
DETROIT, June 4.—Twenty-two teams of industrial boxers, finalists in the General Motors boxing tournament, reached Detroit last night. The teams represent plant champions of G. M. divisions in Detroit, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Flint, Pontiac, Munster, Eastland, Lansing, Bay City, Norwood, O., and several other centers.

Bouts will begin this afternoon in the Coliseum on the Michigan state fairground. The Coliseum has been remodeled for the occasion. A second series of bouts will be held in the same building tomorrow, after which the boxers and their followers will pack their bags and journey to Flint for the final set of bouts on Saturday. Jack Dempsey will officiate at these bouts.

Twenty-two plant managers from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana will attend.

BRUBAKER SIGNS FOR FIGHT WITH SHARKEY

Times Special
BOSTON, Mass., June 4.—Young Bill Brubaker, Pacific coast heavyweight challenger, has signed to meet ex-Champion Jack Sharkey here June 25.

Brubaker is the most dangerous rival Sharkey has encountered in several years. The youngster's knockout victory over King Levinsky followed a string of 12 kayoes in 14 fights.

Young America's Champ

Joe Louis may be unofficial heavyweight champion to experts, but to young America, James J. Braddock still is the greatest gladiator in the ring. Proof of this was given at a Carmelite Church smoker in New York, when hundreds of youngsters crowded around the titleholder seeking his autograph.

EYES EASTWARD, Indianapolis. Today your state open champion and lone Hoosier entry in the national open on the spruce and fir-nutted Baltusrol course in Short Hills, N. J., makes a bid with the nation's premier shot makers.

Youthful Bill Heinlein, Coffin course professional, took off at 1:35 today in quest of this country's top links crown which an unknown, Sam Parks of Pittsburgh, snatched from the greats last year. Lanky Bill is paired with Peter O'Hara, professional at the Westmoreland Club in Verona, Pa. They will play their second round tomorrow at 10:05.

Olympic Team Bids to Open at Milwaukee

BY STEVE SNIDER
United Press Staff Correspondent

MILWAUKEE, June 4.—Plans were completed today for another of Milwaukee's famous track shows with Jesse Owens of Ohio State and Don Lash, Indiana's distance runner, co-starred in a brilliant cast.

Although Notre Dame, Indiana and Ohio State have entered complete winners in Marquette University's central intercollegiate championships tomorrow night, experts predicted the bitter team fight would be submerged by the Olympic-inspired drive of crack athletes from 33 Midwestern schools.

Owens, in the midst of his carefully mapped training schedule leading to the Olympic trials, should have little difficulty winning three events, or even four if he chooses to enter the 220-yard low hurdles.

But the rest of the field—and this includes Lash, who set Big Ten records in the mile and two-mile at Columbus last month—will be caught up in a dog fight for points as endangered, with the 12 defending champions offering most serious threats.

Owens seeks records in his attempt last year to follow the 220-yard dash marks set in 1933 by Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette, but the Buckeye phenom should crack at least one this year. He has concentrated this spring on the three events similar to those in which he hopes to qualify for the Olympics—100 and 220-yard sprints and the broad jump.

Charley Beetham, Ohio State's Big Ten record holder for the half-mile, and Abie Rosenkrantz, Michigan Normal, both appear strong enough to exceed Chuck Hornbostel's lead of 1:33.3. Lash may lower both the mile and two-mile marks and both hurdle records are likely to fall.

Al Tolmich, Wayne University veteran; Bobby Grievie, Illinois, and Clem Janicki, Wisconsin, lead the field of sprinters gunning for Owens. Art Thomas, Pittsburgh star, is regarded as a threat in the half-mile, while Chuck Fenske, Wisconsin; Ray Mahannah, Drake, and Leo McFarlane, Notre Dame, were considered likely challengers for the title.

Notre Dame and Indiana are favored to supplant Ohio State as team champion.

SEVEN-YEAR ITCH ENDED

The itch (scabies) is highly contagious. If not treated, it will continue for life. It is not a blood disease, but is caused by the itch-mite, which burrows and forms tortuous galleries within the skin.

The itch-mite spreads rapidly and is immune to ordinary treatment. The people who have perfected a simple treatment called EXSORA that kills the itch-mite almost instantly, and rid you of your trouble in three days.
