

By Eddie Ash

RED BIRDS TO CONDUCT SCHOOL

FOREIGN SCRIBES TO SEE FIGHT

THE Columbus Red Birds are going to conduct a baseball school for youths between the ages of 17 and 22, starting June 22 and continuing one week. . . . Manager Burt Shotton of the Birds and Scouts Barrett, Schultz and Mathes of the St. Louis Cardinals will be on hand to direct the lads and look over the talent.

Kansas City attendance is far ahead of the same period last year. . . . Twenty-one home games drew 75,000. . . . Total attendance for the season in 1935 was 138,000.

It costs a player $10 for using profane language in the A. A. if Prexy George Trautman hears about it. . . . Dutch Ulrich, Toledo pitcher, is thinking about buying an auto trailer for his summer home. . . . He has been with three clubs this year.

WHEN Joe Louis cocks that pole ax tomorrow night Max Schmeling will wish he had taken some horizontal exercises. . . . Two Australian papers—one in Melbourne, the other in Sydney—sent representatives to the heavyweight joust in New York. . . . Working press requests also were received from Switzerland, Sweden, Japan, Hungary, France, England and Germany. . . . Rain postponed the go until tomorrow.

A dozen German writers will be there. . . . Japanese writers will be compelled to make it snappy. . . . It costs 36 cents a word to cable stories home.

Jack Kelleher, St. Mary's College star, hit six homers in six days playing with Akron and then fractured a heel during a mixup at second base. . . . He is owned by the Yankees.

BABE RUTH is not going to the Olympic games in Berlin. . . . The baseball project in which he was interested has dwindled to a mere exhibition. . . . Babe is going fishing in Nova Scotia. . . . Pretty soft getting away from the heat.

Joe Vosmik and Buddy Myer, who raced neck and neck for the American League batting championship last year, are disappointed this season. . . . Baseball is that way. . . . Last year Cleveland believed that merely changing managers would solve its problems, but Steve O'Neill has learned that the plague of Walker Johnson are the plagues of Steve O'Neill.

IT is believed that Joe McCarthy, instead of Mickey Cochrane, will manage the American League All-Stars in the tussle with the National League in Boston July 7. . . . Cochrane still is taking treatment in a Detroit hospital. . . . In some quarters it is believed Mickey is through forever as a player.

Granville, a horse with the camera complex, will not have his picture taken in the Dwyer Stakes, mile and a furlong feature at Aqueduct Saturday. . . . Trainer Fitzsimmons says the colt has had no chance to train properly. . . . Granny likes to be all spruced up for the photo finish.

JIM BRADDOCK'S brother Joe is an "ossifer" on the New Bergen (N. J.) police force. . . . He was the first in his family to take up boxing seriously, at one time being New Jersey state middleweight champion.

A JOKER sent a copy of Babe Ruth's Baseball Advice to Boys to Truck Hannah, pinch-hitter for Jack Leivelt, manager of the Los Angeles Club. . . . Underlined was: "Every team has a manager to direct it. He has to guess in advance as to what play is the best one to try. He can not always guess correctly, but neither could you."

FROM the press boxes on the grandstand roof it's difficult to judge a close play on the bases in night games at Perry Stadium. However, it appeared that Third Baseman Holland of the Millers failed to tag Vincent Sherlock during the scramble at the hot corner last night that sent the Millers into hysterics and brought about the banishment of Managers Bush and Catcher George. Sherlock went all the way from first to third when Page glanced an infield hit off Shortstop Pfleger's glove.

Base Umpire Swanson did not call the play. Plate Umpire Kober was in the better position and ruled Sherlock safe. Swanson's view was cut off when the bases collided. Bush used rowdy tactics on Swanson and drew a long boo from the crowd when he took a walk off the field under orders to scam. It is said Swanson expressed the opinion that from his position he thought Sherlock was safe. The Millers, therefore, wanted the field ump, instead of Kober, to rule on the play.

STRANGER PINS BROWN

By United Press

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, California's former world wrestling champion, added another victory in his comeback attempt by tossing Orville Brown of Kansas here last night in the feature attraction of the mat show.

Additional Sports on Pages 23, 24 and 25

Attention FISHERMEN

SPECIAL

Galvanized floating type double minnow bucket. . . . $1.18

STEEL FISHING ROD

Double cork handle, large serrated guide, adjustable finger. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Serrated ferrules; patented screw type reel seat; tungsten guides; nickel silver. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Serrated ferrules; patented screw type reel seat; tungsten guides; nickel silver. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Serrated ferrules; patented screw type reel seat; tungsten guides; nickel silver. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Serrated ferrules; patented screw type reel seat; tungsten guides; nickel silver. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Serrated ferrules; patented screw type reel seat; tungsten guides; nickel silver. . . . $1.20

SHRIMP SELECTOR

Indianapolis Times Sports

PAGE 22

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1936

70,000 TO TURN OUT FOR HEAVY BATTLE

Max Appears Unafraid of Powerful Foe

Rain Forces Postponement of Big Fight; Boycott by Jews Hurts.

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—Rain today forced the postponement until tomorrow night of the heavyweight prize fight between Joe Louis of Detroit and Max Schmeling of Germany. The boxers had weighed in and prepared for a last rest before entering the ring tonight when Promoter Jacobs announced the postponement.

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—The miracle of fistiana comes off again in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night when Joe Louis displays that paralyzing punch on Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion. Approximately 70,000 persons are expected to pay $500,000 to see the probable third straight "execution" of a former heavyweight champion by the 22-year-old Negro, regarded as the "world's greatest fighter."

Tale of Tape

LOUIS	SCHMELING
22	Age
202	Weight
6 ft. 1 1/2	Height
76 in.	Reach
41 in.	Normal Chest
44 in.	Expanded Chest
16 1/2 in.	Neck
14 in.	Biceps
12 1/2 in.	Forearm
8 in.	Wrist
24 in.	Waist
31 in.	Thigh
15 in.	Calf
10 in.	Ankle

use support from the ringside bettors—not to win but to stay longer than Carnera and Baer, the other ex-champions among Louis' victims, did. Carnera was stopped in the sixth round, Baer, the fourth.

The "million-dollar gate" Promoter Jacobs predicted when the match was made was k. o. d. by a Jewish boycott, according to the promoter himself. In retaliation for Hitler's persecution of Jews in Germany, New York Jews have circulated chain letters against the fight. One of the letters said: "Why let a German take home our money? Listen to Louis knock out Schmeling on the radio."

Although Promoter Jacobs refused to reveal official figures, the advance sale this morning was said to have reached nearly $500,000. Most of the 11,000 ringside seats, priced at $40, have been sold. It is the cheaper seats which have failed to move as expected.

May Not Go After Title

Despite the boycott in New York and the "sure thing" result, approximately 20,000 fight fans from the West and South are here to see Louis in his twenty-eighth professional fight in less than two years. Most of the out-of-town crowd are from Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia, Boston and the West Coast. Four former champions—Dempsey, Tunney, Sharkey and Jack Johnson—and five Governors will be at the ringside tomorrow.

If Louis wins, he will have hurdled his last obstacle in a dazzling march to a heavyweight title bout with Champion James J. Braddock, who will be one of tomorrow's spectators. But Louis may not elect to challenge for the title this year. Promoter Jacobs, who has him under contract until 1940, has other plans. There is an almost total absence of Schmeling money. One of the few persons who thinks Schmeling has a chance, is the stubborn, stolid, steel-nerved German himself. In sharp contrast to the faint-hearted Baer, befuddled Carnera, the terror-stricken Levin, pitiful Paulino Uscudun, the German is unafraid and unshaken. If Schmeling can retain his composure, and not "die in the dressing room," as they say on cauliflower row, he may gain some last-minute support from the ringside bettors—not to win but to stay longer than Carnera and Baer, the other ex-champions among Louis' victims, did. Carnera was stopped in the sixth round, Baer, the fourth.

The "million-dollar gate" Promoter Jacobs predicted when the match was made was k. o. d. by a Jewish boycott, according to the promoter himself. In retaliation for Hitler's persecution of Jews in Germany, New York Jews have circulated chain letters against the fight. One of the letters said: "Why let a German take home our money? Listen to Louis knock out Schmeling on the radio."

Although Promoter Jacobs refused to reveal official figures, the advance sale this morning was said to have reached nearly $500,000. Most of the 11,000 ringside seats, priced at $40, have been sold. It is the cheaper seats which have failed to move as expected.

May Not Go After Title

Despite the boycott in New York and the "sure thing" result, approximately 20,000 fight fans from the West and South are here to see Louis in his twenty-eighth professional fight in less than two years. Most of the out-of-town crowd are from Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia, Boston and the West Coast. Four former champions—Dempsey, Tunney, Sharkey and Jack Johnson—and five Governors will be at the ringside tomorrow.

If Louis wins, he will have hurdled his last obstacle in a dazzling march to a heavyweight title bout with Champion James J. Braddock, who will be one of tomorrow's spectators. But Louis may not elect to challenge for the title this year. Promoter Jacobs, who has him under contract until 1940, has other plans. There is an almost total absence of Schmeling money. One of the few persons who thinks Schmeling has a chance, is the stubborn, stolid, steel-nerved German himself. In sharp contrast to the faint-hearted Baer, befuddled Carnera, the terror-stricken Levin, pitiful Paulino Uscudun, the German is unafraid and unshaken. If Schmeling can retain his composure, and not "die in the dressing room," as they say on cauliflower row, he may gain some last-min-

Ring Rivals' Wives Tense

Mrs. Louis to Cheer Joe at Ringside; Mrs. Schmeling in Germany.

By United Press
NEW YORK, June 18.—Mrs. Joe Louis will sit in a ringside seat at her husband's fight with Max Schmeling tomorrow night.

"This will be the sixth time I've watched Joe fight," the former Marva Trotter said, "and I never have been afraid that he will be hurt."

"The worst thing about this fighting business is waiting for Joe to come home after the bout. That's worse than the suspense before the fight."

Mrs. Louis has talked to Joe over the telephone every night since she left his training camp at Lakewood, N. J., two weeks ago, and she will see him for the first time this afternoon.

"But only for a minute," she explained, "just long enough to give him a good kiss and wish him luck. No, we are not going out celebrating afterwards. We don't have a good time in crowds. We will go home or maybe spend a few hours with some friends."

Max' Wife at Radio

By United Press
BERLIN, June 18.—Mrs. Max Schmeling, blond and vivacious, will have her ear glued to the radio here tomorrow night when her husband steps into the ring with Joe Louis in New York. She is not the only one in Germany who will be listening to the blow-by-blow description. Max has the support of millions of Germans who believe the former champion will whip Louis, and are ready to back their belief with money. Berlin sportsmen are offering even money on "der Max."

Interest in the fight is as high in Germany as in the United States. Newspapers have devoted pages to training camp activities cabled back by special correspondents.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

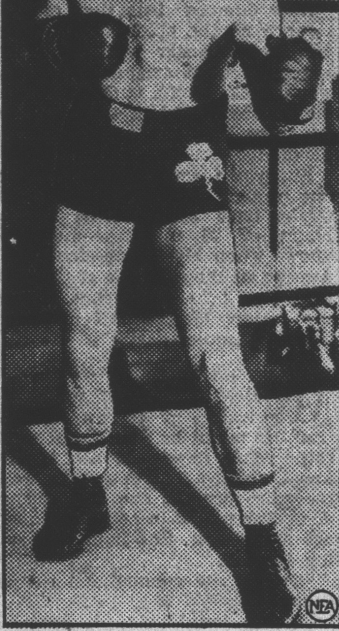

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Mrs. Schmeling, who has been living in the Schmeling country estate in Baad Saarow—an hour's drive from Berlin—will come in to her town home in the suburb of Schmargendorf.

Champ to See Rivals Clash

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

At the ringside when Joe Louis battles Max Schmeling will be the popular James J. Braddock (above), heavyweight champion. He has agreed to meet the winner in September in defense of his crown. Schmeling has accepted in the event of an upset victory over the Brown Bomber. However, Louis' managers have declined to sign for a Braddock fight this year and are expected to hold out for the engagement until 1937.

Plays Short for Dad
Playing shortstop for the Johnstown (Pa.) club of the Middle Atlantic League is Bill Good. And he has to be good. His father, Wilbur Good, former outfielder, is manager of the team.

Look! He's Picking Max

Henry Intends to Outlast Louis if It Takes 15 Years.

By Henry McLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, June 18.—It is my belief that Maximilian Siegfried Adolph Schmeling, who was born Sept. 28, 1905, in Germany, will defeat the seventh child to bless the union of Munn and Lily Barrow, when they meet in Yankee Stadium tomorrow night.

This seventh child of Munn and Lily, who was born in a crowded, ramshackle, cabin-in-the-cotton at Lafayette, Ala., shortly before the Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated to start the war that ended in bonus checks, is better known to you as Joe Louis, or perhaps you know him better as the "Brown Bomber," the "Sepia Assassin," the "Chocolate Cannoneer," the "Dusky Dynamiter," the "Ebony Embalm-er," or the "Dark Angel of Death." I have never picked Joe Louis to

Turn to Page 23

Redskins Take Eight of Last Nine Battles

Tribe Trounces Millers in Twin Bill and Moves to Columbus.

With eight victories in their last nine starts to keep them in good cheer, Red Killefer's galloping Indians invaded Columbus today to tackle the high-flying Red Birds tonight.

The Birds, like the Hoosiers, have been coming fast and the four-game series in the Ohio capital is expected to be a close one.

Turn to Page 23

Blue Star Kills The Itch Gums

To get rid of itch, rash, tetter, foot itch, ringworm or eczema, cover with soothing Blue Star Ointment which contains tested medicines that kill the itching. Money back on first jar, if it fails to relieve.

Advertisement.

STANDARD OIL SERVICE

AS SEEN BY CHAS. KUHN

Copyright 1936 Standard Oil Co.
Above, Charles Kuhn, Indianapolis News cartoonist, gives his impression of Standard Service. Our impression of his impression is that it may have resulted from an optical illusion. . . . Standard Service is rendered with such practiced ease and swiftness that one man is quite likely to look like a chauffeur. For the Standard Dealer knows how to

WE WILL PAY CASH. . . We'd like to have your impression of Standard Service, either in writing or in a drawing, or both. This is not a contest—we are simply making this offer: For any original drawing or letter about STANDARD OIL SERVICE which we find acceptable for use in our advertising, we will pay ten dollars. Your nearest Standard Dealer has a card which will tell you how to make a drawing. Drive in and get the card today.

ART ROSE SAYS:
FRIDAY—SATURDAY
'TAG' DAYS
AT THE ROSE TIRE CO.
All "tagged" merchandise is our regular high quality stock priced to save you money.
PAY AS YOU RIDE
Set Your Own Easy Terms on TIRES—BATTERIES—RADIOS
YOUR CREDIT IS OK
LOW AS QUICK CREDIT PER DAY

UNUSUAL TIRE BARGAINS
Seldom can you buy such high quality tires at these low prices. We're just lucky that we can offer you such values. And you are lucky too if you place your order while our stock lasts. Look at these low cash prices on Miller Medallists.
MILLER TIRES
4.40-51 $4.95
5.00-59 $5.45
5.60-67 $6.15
6.20-75 $6.85
6.80-83 $7.55
7.40-91 $8.25
8.00-99 $8.95
8.60-107 $9.65
9.20-115 $10.35
9.80-123 $11.05
10.40-131 $11.75
11.00-139 $12.45
11.60-147 $13.15
12.20-155 $13.85
12.80-163 $14.55
13.40-171 $15.25
14.00-179 $15.95
14.60-187 $16.65
15.20-195 $17.35
15.80-203 $18.05
16.40-211 $18.75
17.00-219 $19.45
17.60-227 $20.15
18.20-235 $20.85
18.80-243 $21.55
19.40-251 $22.25
20.00-259 $22.95
20.60-267 $23.65
21.20-275 $24.35
21.80-283 $25.05
22.40-291 $25.75
23.00-299 $26.45
23.60-307 $27.15
24.20-315 $27.85
24.80-323 $28.55
25.40-331 $29.25
26.00-339 $29.95
26.60-347 $30.65
27.20-355 $31.35
27.80-363 $32.05
28.40-371 $32.75
29.00-379 $33.45
29.60-387 $34.15
30.20-395 $34.85
30.80-403 $35.55
31.40-411 $36.25
32.00-419 $36.95
32.60-427 $37.65
33.20-435 $38.35
33.80-443 $39.05
34.40-451 $39.75
35.00-459 $40.45
35.60-467 $41.15
36.20-