

M'CARTHY, HILL TO AIR FIGHT

Movie Star to Appear With Vallee

Margaret Sullavan Will Be Heard in Dramatic Skit Tonight.

When Joe Louis and Max Schmeling square off for the most important heavyweight bout of the summer at approximately 8 tomorrow in Yankee Stadium, New York, Clem McCarthy and Edwin C. Hill will be at the "mikes" for NBC. The fight originally was scheduled for tonight, but was forced to postponement. Both networks are to carry the broadcast, with WIRE bringing it to local listeners.

The two sportscasters have been chosen because of their work at the Baer-Louis fight last year. McCarthy is to give the blow-by-blow description, with Hill taking over the microphone between rounds. In addition, broadcasters are to be at the ringside to describe the fight in other languages for foreign listeners.

Margaret Sullavan of the movies is to be heard in a dramatic skit at 6 tonight over WLV, as guest of Rudy Vallee, M. A. The master of arts degree, an honorary one, was given Rudy last week by the Suffolk Law School in Boston. The famous orchestra leader was in New York at the time for rehearsals and a broadcast.

The now famous Miss Sullavan made her radio debut on the same program nearly four years ago when she was beginning her climb to success.

A New York station this week began a series of evening broadcasts on this new game, "Handies," "Imitations," "Wotsit," whatever you want to call the finger version of charades that every one is playing. One man does the poses and another describes them for listeners, who do the guessing.

But WFBM has a new idea, with the performer as guesser. It's a program by Prof. Stickus, "the menial marvel," and the first broadcast is to be at 7:30 tonight. You send in the title of a song, and if the professor can not play it, you win two tickets to a downtown movie theater. There is one condition: the selection must have been popular at one time.

Kensington, WFBM announcer, will be on hand to assist the maestro. Ken, who is quite a virtuoso on toy instruments, plans to refresh the professor's memory by playing strains of forgotten melodies. Suggested opening theme for the broadcast—"What's the Name of That Song?"

A tabloid version of "Three Men on a Horse" popular comedy which played Indianapolis last winter, is to be the Show Boat presentation at 7 tonight over WIRE. Lanny Ross will have the role of Ernest, picker of the winning bang-tails.

The condensed drama was scheduled for last week's broadcast, but the Republican convention interfered. It was done in the studio, and, rather than disappoint the 1500 spectators who had received study tickets before the schedule change.

"Dear H. W. Toledo, O."

"Dear Stuart Churchill—Please disconnect your radio program from my house because we ain't using it no more since the collector took away our radio. Yours truly,

"C. T. Middletown, N. Y."

"Dear Johnny Johnson—Me and my wife would like to name our new baby after you if there ain't no charge for this service. The baby's a boy. Sincerely,

"C. L. Butte, Mont."

"Dear Hal Kemp—I am getting married next week and I like your music. If you bring down your band to play, you can be all my guests and if you play good, you can kiss the bride. But only you can kiss the bride, not the whole band. By the way, don't bring down no more than 11 musicians with us as we only got enough extra food for that many. Yours truly,

"HOWARD, M.,
