

OARP DUES NOW FORWARDED TO CHICAGO OFFICE

Group Returns to Former Policy, Leader in State Says.

The Townsend Old-Age Revolving Pension group of Indiana today had returned to its former policy of having club dues sent to regional offices and national headquarters in Chicago, according to O. K. Karns, a national committeeman whose official title is "citizen maximus."

During the congressional investigation of the old-age pension group recently, dues of members were sent directly to Dr. Townsend. This was done because of fear that the organization's funds might be tied up by congressional investigating committees, Mr. Karns explained.

Some Townsend clubs kept dues, owing to the national organization, in club treasuries.

Not Interested in Third Party

Mr. Karns said that the OARP in Indiana was not interested in a third party move at the present time. Any action on such a coalition must await action by the national Townsend Club convention in Cleveland July 18 to 19, he said.

Mr. Karns and C. F. McCampbell, OARP state area manager, expect 1200 Indiana members to attend the national convention. Special bus and railroad rates will be in effect. Reorganization of OARP and outlining of plans are expected during the national convention.

LEGION MEMBERSHIP IS OVER 1935 TOTAL

Last Year's Enrollment Exceeded By 1230, Official States.

With the receipt of 2135 membership cards, enrollment in the National American Legion today reached 844,085. This surpasses by 1230 the 1935 enrollment of 842,855, officials at national headquarters here said.

The 1936 mark represents a gain of 50,179 members over the same date last year. It was reached before bonus funds became available, Assistant National Adjutant H. L. Plummer, in charge of membership, pointed out.

With a 1936 quota of 385,008, members the American Legion Auxiliary today reported 400,039 members and 8807 units. The latter is an all-time high, Mr. Plummer said.

NAB POSTAL CLERK ON THEFT CHARGE

Local Man Bound Over to Federal Grand Jury.

Glenn W. Sharkey, 36, 1323 N. Olney-st., a clerk at the postoffice, was arrested yesterday by postal inspectors on a charge of embezzlement.

Sharkey, who had been a postal employee for 15 years and who, inspectors say, took letters that appeared to contain money, was arrested while on duty in the main mailing room.

Sharkey waived examination at a hearing before Howard S. Young, U. S. commissioner, and was bound over to the Federal Grand Jury. He is being held in the Marion County Jail under $2000 bond.

Frank K. Hoeler Elected Head of State Association.

Frank K. Hoeler of Hammond today had assumed his duties as president of the Indiana Probation Association. Mr. Hoeler, chief probation officer of Lake County, succeeded J. Earl Cunningham of Fort Wayne.

Other new officers, as announced by Dr. Francis D. McCabe, state probation department director, are Mrs. Estella I. Joyce, Evansville, first vice president; Mrs. Daisy B. Bates, chief probation officer of the Marion County Juvenile Court, second vice president, and Mrs. Faye Smith, Knapp, Decatur, secretary-treasurer.

CATHOLIC CONVERT TO CONTINUE TALKS

Tyranny of Socialism Worse Than Depression, Speaker Says.

David Goldstein, Boston, lecturer and convert to the Catholic faith, is continuing his series of outdoor addresses under the auspices of Little Flower Catholic Church. The first lecture was Sunday.

"The church is opposed to socialism because the church has at heart the best interest of the toiling masses," he said last night. "Socialism, when applied is bolshevism. The church knows that the tyranny of socialism is worse than the unfortunate depression we have now."

CCC APPLICATIONS DUE

Veterans Should Apply Before July 1, Official Says.

Applications from war veterans to fill the July quota for Civilian Conservation Camps should be made before July 1, John H. Ale, Veterans Administration Facility manager, announced today.

Veterans who are receiving public relief should have their applications certified by the senior visitor of the Governor's Unemployment Relief Commission. Forms may be obtained from the Facility, W. Riverside-dr and 26th-st.
