

TRANSIENT AID TO BE STUDIED BY COMMISSION

Interstate Group to Meet in Chicago Next Fall for Discussion.

Social security legislation is to step into the field of the transient worker—the man who goes from state to state in search of employment—this fall when the Interstate Commission on Social Security Legislation meets in Chicago, it was reported today by Fred E. Barrett, Indianapolis attorney and a commission member.

The commission is to frame model legislation for 44 states of the union as well as co-operate in Federal legislation for social security, Mr. Barrett said.

Then on Jan. 20, 1937, the commission is to meet with the Council of State Governments to present model bills and social security reforms.

Items to Be Considered

Mr. Barrett said the commission at the fall meeting is to consider recommendations for uniformity of social security laws, the qualifications of workers under the security laws, enlightenment data on the unemployment compensation laws and uniform laws for interstate transfer of dependents.

Returning from the first commission meeting held in Atlantic City, June 26 and 27, Mr. Barrett said representatives from 20 states attended. Interstate aspects of the Federal social security laws were studied.

Members of the commission in addition to Mr. Barrett were: Charles H. Q. Quisenberry, director of legislative reference service; Conrad Vanhynning, Florida, commissioner of social welfare; R. L. Tolson, Nebraska, director of state assistance; Gordon P. Eager, New Hampshire, administrator of the unemployment compensation division; William J. Ellis, New Jersey, commissioner of institutions and agencies; John A. Byrnes, member of the New York Assembly; T. A. Wilson, member of the North Carolina Industrial Commission; Orra Chapman, Ohio, director of industrial relations; M. Hansford Mims, of the South Carolina House of Representatives.

DECATUR MAY DELAY PROJECT DEDICATION

Ceremony Set for Aug. 2-8, but Mrs. Roosevelt Has Conflict.

By United Press
DECATUR, July 1.—Officials of the Decatur Homesteads Project today considered postponement of dedication ceremonies, scheduled during the city's centennial celebration, Aug. 2 to 8, after Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt wrote she would be unable to attend because of a conflict in her schedule.

It was reported today that final purchase contracts may be given 48 families occupying the government-built homes within a month. Homesteads are to pay about $20 a month for 40 years.

PLEADS FOR DEATH

Declaring that he wanted the state to hang him, so he could be free of the ghastly complex that made him hate all women, Albert Walter, 28, New Yorker, is shown above in San Francisco jail, after confessing he strangled Blanche Cousins, 24, business student. The court refused his guilty plea. He admitted killing the girl during a San Francisco date, after they had met on a long bus trip.

GIVEN 50,000 PENNIES

350 Pounds of Coins Donated Church at Anderson

Times Special
ANDERSON, Ind., July 1.—Fifty thousand pennies—weight, 350 pounds—were collected by Noble Street Methodist Church in a million-pennies campaign conducted to raise funds.

An additional $700 in currency and checks also was received. The money is to be used for reducing indebtedness.

SHORTER HOURS TAKE EFFECT IN NEW WPA YEAR

Adjustment Made to Pay Prevailing Wage Scale, Coy Explains.

Indiana's new $9,820,125 WPA allotment, awarded yesterday by Works Progress Deputy, Administrator Aubrey Williams, is a routine grant that will last the state about eight weeks, according to Wayne Coy, WPA director for Indiana.

"No new projects are to be started with the money," Mr. Coy said, "and the same number of WPA workers, about 69,000, are to remain on the same projects."

Indiana's WPA budget for the period from June 22-July 31 is $4,200,000, Mr. Coy said. The Indiana WPA spends about $1,250,000 a week, he explained.

Yesterday's allotment is Indiana's first share of the $1,425,000,000 work-relief fund for the 1936-37 fiscal year, which started last night at midnight.
