

G. O. P. LEADERS MEET TO STUDY ELECTION PLANS

Candidates' Suggestions to Be Discussed Today at Parley Here.

The Republican state committee was to meet today for a luncheon at the Claypool to discuss fall election campaign plans.

The meeting, called by Chairman Ivan Morgan, Austin, was to discuss proposals of party candidates for campaigning in Indiana.

Mr. Morgan held a meeting here recently with G. O. P. nominees to discuss organization plans for the state campaign.

Party leaders report that the Hoosier G. O. P. is to stress precinct, ward and county organization work as one of the best methods of building a machine capable of coping with the Democrats in the November election.

Want Short Campaign. Organization work is to take up summer months, with actual campaigning by nominees beginning after Labor Day, according to Mr. Morgan.

State committee members said no "shake-up" or changes were planned for today's meeting.

"It'll be just a gabfest to organize the campaign," one member said. Managers of Gov. Alf M. Landon are expected to visit the state within the next few weeks to arrange for the Kansas race in Indiana against President Roosevelt.

JACKSON CALLS 2 DISTRICT MEETINGS

State Committee Vacancies to Be Filled.

Omer Stokes Jackson, Democratic state chairman, today called meetings in the Third and Eleventh Congressional Districts to fill vacancies on the state committee.

The Third District meeting, to be presided over by Mr. Jackson, is to be held July 9 in the Oliver Hotel, South Bend. At the reorganization meeting of the state committee in May deadlock resulted in a declaration of "No election" in the district.

A new rule, adopted by the state committee, does not permit a state chairman to break a tie vote except on the question of adjournment.

The Eleventh District meeting is to be held Tuesday at Democratic state headquarters. A district chairman is to be named to succeed the late Cary Forkner, Anderson.

EDITORS TO MEET AT LAKE WAWASEE

September G. O. P. Session Arranged by Association Officers.

The Indiana Republican Editorial Association is to hold its summer meeting at Lake Wawasee in September. Paul Maddock, Bloomfield president, announced today. Arrangements for the meeting were made yesterday by Mr. Maddock and Neil McCallum, Batesville, association secretary, when they visited the Spink-Wawasee Hotel.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS URGED TO REGISTER

Candidate Homer Elliott Predicts Local Victory for Party.

Prompt registration of Marion County Republican voters in preparation for the general election in November was urged yesterday by Homer Elliott, G. O. P. Twelfth District nominee for Congress, in an address before the Hoosier Republicans, Inc., in the Columbia Club.

Mr. Elliott forecast Republican victory in the county if a full registration of G. O. P. voters is secured.

ENCAMPMENT DATE SET FOR 4-H CLUBS

Members From Three Counties to Meet at McCormicks Creek.

Times Special. BRAZIL, Ind., July 1.—The annual tri-county 4-H Club encampment is to be held this year in McCormicks Creek Canyon State Park. County Agent R. D. McHargue announced today.

Opening of the encampment has been set tentatively for Aug. 21, but is subject to change at a meeting to be held here Friday.

About 325 Clay, Putnam and Sullivan County 4-H members are expected to attend the encampment.

WPA Artists Display Work In New Exhibit at Lyman's

"Bottles and Plant," Above, by Mrs. Maude G. Bennett, Shows Liking for Small, Simple Objects.

No other objects are so eagerly and frequently painted as flower pots and vases, "first attempts" by WPA art students indicate.

An exhibit of oils, pastels and water colors, painted last winter under the instruction of William F. Kaeser, WPA art teacher, opened yesterday at the Lyman Gallery, 31 Monument Circle.

"Bottles and Plant" (pictured above), painted by Mrs. Maude G. Bennett, was awarded honorable mention. It is considered typical of WPA work.

Mr. Kaeser explained that beginners were forced to remain indoors during the winter, and consequently the first book, vase or plant that came into view soon was painted on canvas.

Several of the 40 pictures exhibited are "still lifes." Predominant colors are blue and green.

There are five portraits, four pastoral scenes and one industrial landscape included in the display. Floyd Hopper and Cecil Head, prominent Indiana artists, made the selections for the exhibit. They awarded honorable mention to the outstanding creation in each of three divisions.

Honorable mention was given Miss Nellie McMath for her pastel, "Three in One;" Mrs. W. G. Martz for her water color, "Head," and

CAB COMPANY SUES TO GET 11 LICENSES

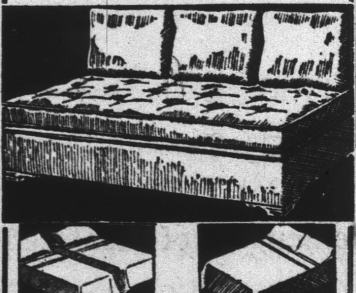

Complaint Alleges Boetcher Refused to Issue Permits.

Suit to mandate Walter Boetcher, city controller, to issue 11 taxicab licenses under the new city regulatory ordinance was on file today in Superior Court.

Filed by the Red Cab Co., the complaint contended that the controller refused to issue the licenses although the new ordinance went into effect today. Mr. Boetcher said the cab company said that it had 116 cabs insured as of Dec. 31, 1935, and that it is entitled to that number. However, the controller said, his records show only 105 cabs of the company insured and reported to him on that date.

UNION PARTY FILES FOR INCORPORATION

Indiana Organization Is to Join National Group.

Articles of incorporation for the Union Party of Indiana, Inc., were on file today in the office of Secretary of State.

Perry H. Easton, Marion County supervisor of the National Union for Social Justice, Clayton A. Sanders and Mrs. Wilma Hendrickson are incorporators.

Mr. Easton, Indiana resident agent, said the new organization is to affiliate with the Union Party of the United States, with Rep. William Lemke as the party's presidential nominee.

The new party is formed as a coalition of the National Union and the Farmer's Union.
