

G. O. P. DECIDES ON 12 DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS

State Committee Also Designates Finance Group to Handle Funds.

Republican campaign headquarters are to be established by the Indiana state committee in each of the 12 congressional districts within a few weeks.

Decision to decentralize the G. O. P. organization into districts for the fall campaign was made yesterday at a meeting here of the state committee.

In setting up the district headquarters, Marion County is to be regarded as one district.

As much campaign activity as possible is to be transferred from state headquarters to district offices, declared Ivan Morgan, state chairman.

A special finance committee was named to supervise the state committee's receipts and expenditures. Members are J. T. Moorman, Irving Lemaux and Felix M. McWhirter.

Committee Is Compromise

This committee was a result of an agreement between the so-called Ralph Gates group of the party and the faction led by Don B. Irwin, former state chairman. The Gates group had insisted on retirement of Burrell Wright as treasurer.

A finance committee for the campaign, to be composed of 15 or more members, also is to be named. Each appointee is to be approved by his district chairman and vice chairman after selection is made by Chairman Morgan and Treasurer Wright.

The state committee also is to co-operate with the Republican Victory League of Indiana in raising funds for the fall campaign.

Candidates Also Meet

Candidates on the state G. O. P. ticket met in separate session while the state committee was in session. The candidates named James A. Slane, Lafayette, nominee for Secretary of State, as vice chairman of their organization, and Norman J. Lasher, Seymour, nominee for superintendent of public instruction, was named secretary. Joseph B. Kyle, nominee for Lieutenant Governor, is chairman of the group.

George A. Ball, Muncie, national committeeman, reported to the state committee and candidates a visit with Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican nominee for President, at his home in Topeka.

"The Landon is our kind of people. They are folks. He is not a flashy man. . . . He is modest. . . . But he has thorough knowledge of national affairs," Mr. Ball said.

HONOR SAMUEL DUNGAN

Polk Milk Co. Head Marks Forty-third Anniversary.

Tribute to Samuel O. Dungan, Polk Sanitary Milk Co. president, was paid yesterday on the forty-third anniversary of his entrance into the dairy business in Indianapolis.

Mr. Dungan recalled that he was the company's first milkman and that his first customer was Benjamin Harrison, one-time President of the United States.
