

RAILROADMEN'S TO MODERNIZE 28 PROPERTIES

Loan Association Applies for Building Permits
Totalling $7100.

Modernization and repair of 28 rental properties here is to be started soon by the Railroadmen's Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Application for building permits totalling $7100, was made today at the City Engineer's office. C. C. Grove of the Railroadmen's real estate division said the repairs were in line with the company's policy of modernizing their dwellings. The properties are scattered throughout the city, he said.

Sixty-eight building permits, involving $36,078, have been issued in the last 24 hours at the Engineer's office, making one of the heaviest days' business in recent years.

Building activity in Indianapolis has increased approximately 10 per cent over last year, according to licenses paid to City Controller Walter C. Boettcher.

Building licenses total 4528 compared with 4067 for 1935 on this date.

During the last week, 197 licenses to build have been issued. During the same period in 1935, only 141 were signed.

One of the largest fees paid in recent years was received yesterday from the H. P. Wasson Co. for permits to build their new eight-story addition and remodel their store. On the $221,000 for new work, the company paid $240.60 while the fee for $10,000 remodeling cost $20. Among other license totals this year are sign inspections, 2017; dog licenses, 1804; dances, 399; second-hand auto dealers, 125.

TRUCKS PAY HEAVY HOOSIER ROAD TAXES

Speaker Says Carriers Contribute
28 Per Cent of Total.

Trucks pay over 28 per cent of all Indiana highway taxes, but represent only 16 per cent of vehicles registered, D. F. Mitzner, Indiana Motor Traffic Association secretary, told Universal Club members yesterday.

Mr. Mitzner said that contrary to statements circulated by railroad interests that they are responsible for building and maintaining roads on which trucks run, figures compiled by the United States Bureau of Public Roads disclosed that railroads paid less than 1 per cent of all state highway costs last year. Indiana received no part of this percentage, he said.

Ralph Bayles, Indiana Manufacturers of Dairy Products secretary, was in charge of the meeting in the Columbia Club.
