

STALKS PARLEY OF OARP GROUP

His Aid, the Rev. Smith, Seen as New Leader of Movement.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES
Times Special Writer

CLEVELAND, July 18. — Huey Long still lives!

The transmigration is through the broad-shouldered, stocky person of the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, the wavy-haired evangelist politico, rabble-rouser extraordinary, who learned his tricks at Huey's feet and who is rising so rapidly to the top of the Townsend Plan heap that he ought to be its leader before this convention is over.

Already the gaunt Dr. Francis E. Townsend gives the appearance of being the preacher's shadow. The Rev. Smith seems to be pulling most of the wires, while the doctor goes through the motions. He is constantly at the doctor's side. He looks to be the successor to Robert Clements, co-founder with Dr. Townsend.

Dr. Townsend began to clear away the obstacles to Mr. Smith's succession when he announced his intention to oust Gomer Smith of Oklahoma, vice president, who did two things in a convention speech which aroused him and the minister. He ridiculed the Rev. Smith and scoffed at his claims of 6,000,000 "Share-the-Wealth" Club members and, second, he announced his support of President Roosevelt.

So, with the preacher at his side, Dr. Townsend said he intended to throw Gomer Smith out of the order. The board of directors was expected to meet today.

Crusade Against F. D. R.

Accordingly, the lines seem to be laid to transform the $200-a-month pension plan into a crusading vigilante group against Franklin Roosevelt, a scheme that eventually may split the Townsend Plan wide open, for many Townsends, especially in the South and on the Pacific Coast, have a soft spot in their hearts for the man in the White House.

If the fight over Mr. Roosevelt doesn't split the movement, then it may break on the rocks of too many prima donnas. It is full of them and they are rather rugged individuals.

Whatever happens in the way of a third party here—and an open declaration does not seem likely for the Lemke-O'Brien ticket—a tacit alliance already has been worked out between the Townsend movement, the Lemke third party, Father Charles E. Coughlin's National Union for Social Justice and the remnants of the "share-the-wealth" organization, under the Rev. Smith.

Four to Tour Nation

As a result, the next few weeks will see a barnstorming of the country, with four very effective speakers evangelizing — Dr. Townsend, Lemke, Dr. Townsend, Father Coughlin and the Rev. Smith. They are going trouping together, it was announced.

Consequently, whether there are rifts in the order ranks or not, these four may be able to do a lot of damage to President Roosevelt for they are united in their opposition to the chief executive. Each has a group to which he can appeal and with which he has influence.

The observer gets the impression that the effect of the Townsend Plan and the allied movements are stronger than many have thought. Not the least contributory factor is the growing Fascist color evident as the convention progresses.

Iron Handed Discipline

This is apparent in two ways. First is the autocratic discipline from the top exemplified in the prompt and brusque move against Gomer Smith, denoting a strict censorship despite protestations of free speech and continued emphasis that the Townsend Plan is not concerned with candidates for President but with increasing its strength in Congress.

Second, is the blind faith, the docility of the followers who are imbued with a sort of fanaticism which accepts every word as gospel. Not to be oversteered by the influence of the Townsend Plan and allied groups is the religious element. From the church have come Father Coughlin, the Rev. Smith and Dr. Clinton Wunder of New York, the last-named a potent factor in the Townsend Plan organization, keynoter of last year's convention.

Many Pastors Present

Scores of preachers are scattered through the convention, as was demonstrated when a show of ministerial hands was requested. They are of the fighting evangelist type, able to sway crowds.

The Rev. Smith is typical, always with his hip-pocket Bible handy. A man who knows just the proper time to shuck his coat and collar, who works up into a sweat compellingly, a thorough master of mob psychology knowing exactly how to bring the crowd to its feet.

Gomer Smith satirized him to the amusement of the convention by announcing as he started his speech that he was not going to remove his coat, collar or tie during his whole address, "nor shall I take out of my pocket a Bible to prostitute the word of God."

Coughlin Sways Crowd

Father Coughlin has but few equals in tuning up a crowd. He literally swept the convention into hysteria. He, too, pitched aside his coat and his clerical collar and went after his audience with all the vigor of an Irish bricklayer.

As a phrase-maker he excels, also, giving the convention the cue with his snarling "Franklin Double-Crossing Roosevelt."

"No, Huey Long still lives!" And works-through a Protestant minister and a Catholic priest.

THIS WAS A SPARKLING LAKE BEFORE THE DROUGHT

Where waters of a lake rippled in other years, only this parched, cracked bed remains, dotted here and there with stagnant alkaline pools, grim evidence of the toll taken by the blazing heat and drought that have ravaged northwest and middle-west. It is near Bismarck, N. D.

BOND PETITION GETS APPROVAL

Retirement of Debt Reason for 14-Million-Dollar Utility Issue.

Issuance of $13,827,000 worth of 3 1/2 per cent first mortgage bonds by the Indianapolis Water Co. was approved yesterday by the Public Service Commission. The bonds, due in 1966, are to be sold at not less than 98 per cent of their face value, the commission ruled.

Proceeds of the issue are to be used to retire the outstanding funded debt of the company. The company's original petition called for selling the bonds at not less than 98 1/2 per cent. The commission raised the minimum to 98 to insure sufficient funds to cover the outstanding debt.

The water company is to pay the Indiana state treasurer $34,567.50 intangibles tax on the issue.

RULES CONTROLLER MAY HOLD 2 JOBS

Attorney General Answers Michigan City Query.

By United Press

The Sanitary Board of Michigan City may employ the city controller as its treasurer in the operation of the sewage disposal plant, Atty. Gen. Philip Lutz Jr. held today.

In an opinion directed to William P. Cosgrove, chief examiner of the board of accounts, Mr. Lutz said, "The sanitary board is free to employ such assistance as may be reasonable and necessary."

He declared that the sewage disposal plant was not a public utility, as defined in the Indiana Public Service Commission Act of 1913 and amendment of 1933, and that its administrative officials, as result, were not subject to terms of the city classification act of 1933.

The city classification act prescribed conditions under which city officials might receive additional salaries for administration of "public utilities."

PENALTY IS LIGHTENED

Commands Artillery

Maj. Emil W. McCoy, Indianapolis, has been named to command the 32nd Field Artillery, Second Battalion, reporting today for two-week training with the Citizens Military Training Camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Bucket Brigade

This is a preliminary report on what's been going on at Fire Station 13 these hot nights!

Two firemen will be seated comfortably in their chairs under a tree at Kentucky and Maryland-sts. From the top of the fire station there will come a drenching two buckets full of water.

Then the water war is on. Every one grabs a bucket and soaks every one else. Pretty soon every one's pretty wet and nobody cares how much water he gets.

Then the game is to get the other fellow to soak you, and thus get relief from the heat. Firemen say it's lots of fun, going around putting out personal fires for each other.
