

WAGNER BROADCAST SCHEDULED

WIRE to Air Program at Noon Sunday

10 Chautauqua Symphony Concerts to Be Heard Through NBC.

BY JAMES THRASHER
To thousands of rabid American Wagner enthusiasts who never made the pilgrimage to Bayreuth, tomorrow's broadcast of "Lohengrin" from the famed Wagnerian shrine should be something in the nature of a rite—even if the transatlantic reception does not happen to be good. Only a half hour will be attempted, beginning at noon, with WIRE carrying the NBC broadcast.

Two famous personalities will lend the occasion added significance: Conductor Wilhelm Furtwaengler on the podium and Chancellor Adolf Hitler in the audience. Mr. Furtwaengler, whose past associations with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Society apparently were not too happy, turned down an offer to conduct in New York next season. He is famed as one of the most distinguished Wagnerian conductors.

Chancellor Hitler, as you may have heard, is a profound admirer of Wagner's music dramas, and is an intimate friend of Frau Winifred Wagner, daughter-in-law of the great composer.

Those who heard the truly excellent broadcasts by the Chautauque Symphony Orchestra last summer will not be surprised to learn that sustained and nationwide requests for their continuance have reached NBC. Accordingly, 10 concerts have been booked, beginning tomorrow. There are to be five Sunday concerts, from July 19 to Aug. 16, and five Saturday children's concerts, July 25 to Aug. 22.

WIRE is to broadcast the first program for a half hour at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with Georges Barrere conductor, and George Miquelle, first cellist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, as soloist. Mr. Barrere replaces the late Albert Strossel as regular conductor, and will bring such eminent artists as Howard Hansen, composer-conductor; Ernest Hutchinson, pianist; Mischa Elmanoff, violinist; and Horatio Connell, baritone, as guest soloists during ensuing broadcasts.

Tomorrow's program includes the Overture to Wagner's "Tannhauser," a Bach Pastoral arranged by Vogel, Strossel's arrangement of the familiar Bach E Major Prelude for orchestra, two solos by Mr. Miquelle and two movements from Tchaikowsky's Sixth Symphony.

On June 23, 1918, Arnold Volpe conducted the first of the now famous Lewishon Stadium concerts in New York. Tonight the veteran musician is to appear again to lead the orchestra in two works by Tchaikowsky, long a favorite composer with Stadium audiences and, judging from a perusal of programs, with radio conductors as well. The concert is to be broadcast at 7:15 p. m. by WGN.

Mr. Volpe came to the United States from his native Russia in 1898, and rendered distinguished assistance during this country's musical adolescence. Many first chairmen of leading orchestras today received their early training under him.

Jose Turbi is to conduct the first half of the concert. A justly famous interpreter of the classics, he has chosen Weber's Overture to "Der Freischuetz" and the Haydn "Surprise" Symphony. Mr. Volpe will conduct the Fifth Symphony and the "Italian Caprice" of Tchaikowsky.

CBS boasts seven hours and 40 minutes devoted to "fine music of various moods" in its calendar for tomorrow. Included are to be an all-Ravel concert by the Kremer String Quartet at noon, the Mormon Choir from Salt Lake City at 10 a. m.; another "Songs of Russia" program by the Heifetz Singers at 2:30 p. m.; "Everybody's Music," with Howard Barlow's Symphony Orchestra at 1 p. m.; and the Philadelphia Robin Hood Dell concert for two hours beginning at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night. The latter three broadcasts may be heard over WFBM.
