FIVE TO SPEAK AT MARDI GRAS IN NEXT 4 DAYS

25,000 Attend First Night of
Affair Sponsored by Civic League.

Speakers for the four final nights of the Sherman-Emerson Mardi Gras were named today by Claude A. Rochford, program committee chairman. Approximately 25,000 persons attended the gala opening last night, officials estimate, and a record attendance of more than 100,000 is expected before the tenth annual carnival closes.

Rep. William H. Larrabee, Democrat, and Don F. Roberts, Republican, Eleventh District congressional candidates, are to speak to-night. Walter Greenough, state personal relations department, is to speak tomorrow night, and Paul Wetters, representing the Indianapolis Federation of Civic Clubs, is to speak on Friday night's program. Mayor Kern is to close the event Saturday night.

The Sherman-Emerson Civic League is sponsoring the Mardi Gras, said to be the largest in history.

Thirty-three amateur entertainers registered for the amateur contest. Raymond S. Springer, Republican nominee for Governor, and M. Clifford Townsend, Democratic nominee, spoke.

The attractions were closed when Lee Voght, Huntington County farm boy, dived into a net from a 100-foot tower.

Other featured attractions included a parachute jump, balloon ascension, a dance and side shows.

PFEIFER KIDNAPING DEFENSE STARTED

Former Police Chief is Scheduled to Testify.

By United Press
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 22.—The defense opened its case in the John J. Pfeifer kidnaping trial today, planning to call among its first witnesses Thomas Brown, former police chief, accused in government testimony of having been delegated a share of the $100,000 ransom paid by William Hamm Jr.

Brown has refused to discuss the charge made by Byron Bolton. He was suspended pending investigation. The state rested its case yesterday after Mrs. George Marsh, Louisville, Ky., widow of Chicago gunman Gus Winkler, testified that Pfeifer boasted of police protection.

HEARING CONDUCTED ON FRAUD CHARGES

Steps Are Taken to Set Trial Date for William H. Lemons.

Steps to set a trial date in Federal Court for William H. Lemons, operator of an allegedly fraudulent insurance scheme, were made after he was given a hearing yesterday before Judge Robert C. Baltzell.

Judge Baltzell ordered Lemons brought into court after records showed that no attorney had filed an appearance for him since withdrawal of his original counsel when he jumped bail May 18 and failed to appear for trial on mail fraud charges.

Lemons said that he employed Ernest E. Owens, attorney, on Monday, because he had not "heard from the court" since being arrested in Dallas, Tex., May 28. Judge Baltzell instructed Lemons to have Owens file an appearance. Lemons has been held in the Marion County jail in default of $25,000 bond.

Roosevelt to Fish for Tuna in Fundy

Hopes for Weather Break to Make Fast Run to Yarmouth.

By United Press
ABOARD SCHOONER LIBERTY, July 22.—President Roosevelt, beset by dense fogs that have hovered over the bleak Nova Scotian coast for two days, planned a fishing excursion in the Bay of Fundy today in search of tuna.

The sea-going chief executive hoped for a weather break which would permit him to make a fast run under sail to the vicinity of Yarmouth N. S. in the trim schooner-yacht Seawace.

Yesterday he was able to make only 28 miles and that under auxiliary power.

LIBRARY BOOK CIRCULATION IS THIRD HIGHEST

Local Institution Reports
Reader Interest Gain
Since 1927.

Among 38 cities of more than 200,000 population, Indianapolis ranks third in per capita circulation of public library books, Luther Dickerson, city librarian, said today.

"Indianapolis averages nine books a person taken from the library for home use each year," Mr. Dickerson said. "Only Cleveland, with an average of 10.95 books, and Los Angeles, with 9.5 books, are ahead of Indianapolis," he stated.

Mr.
