ministration, and to save the taxpayers' money.

I hold that it is the right of our people to have their greatest public service enterprise—their government—well administered.

These are some of the aims and proposals of a Republican Administration that would enter office under a pledge to conduct the public business with honesty, frugality, courage and common sense.

In common with all my countrymen, I look forward to the America that is to be.

It should be a nation in which the old wrong things are going out and the new right things are coming in.

It should be a country which produces more and more until there is plenty for all, with a fair chance for all to earn their share.

It should be a land in which equal opportunity shall prevail and special privilege shall have no place.

It should be an America that shall bring to bear the whole of her great spiritual force in a common effort to drive the curse of war from the earth; an America that, for the sake of all mankind as well as ourselves, shall never lose the faith that human freedom is a practical ideal.

It is in these aims and in these works that I vision the manifest destiny of America. Everything we need for their realization we can find, I firmly believe, within the principles under which this nation has grown to greatness. God grant us, one and all, the strength and the wisdom to do our part in bringing these things to pass.

First Challenge on Behalf of Thomas Ignored, Is Claim.

Roy Lancaster, executive secretary of the Socialist Party of Indiana, announced today he had repeated an invitation to Gov. McNutt to debate with Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for President. His previous letter went unanswered, Mr. Lancaster said.

"In case you do not consider the record of your party worth defending," Mr. Lancaster wrote, "I shall insist to find some other member of the Democratic Party to represent it."

Walter Smith, 35, and Mrs. Sarah Smith, 56, who also were in the house, told different stories about what had occurred, police said.

All were slated on vagrancy charges and an additional charge of drunkenness was filed against Mrs. Smith.
