

R. E. SHEPARD'S ILLNESS FATAL; SERVICE TODAY

Automotive Concern Aid to Be Buried at Corydon
After Rite Here.

R. EARL SHEPARD, for many years associated with the automobile industry in Indianapolis, died yesterday in St. Vincent's Hospital after an illness of six weeks. He was 45.

Funeral services are to be held in the home, Sixteenth and Michigan-nd, at 4 p. m. today. The Rev. S. B. Harry, pastor, Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church, is to officiate, assisted by the Rev. T. R. White, former pastor of the church. Burial is to be in the Cedar Hill Cemetery, Corydon, tomorrow.

Mr. Shepard, who was born in Connerville, was a resident of Indianapolis for 38 years. During his lifetime he was connected with the Marion Motor Car Co. and the Chevrolet Motor Co. At the time of his death he was connected with the Pavey Auto Top Co. in Indianapolis. He was a member of the Meridian Heights Church.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Margaret Jordan Shepard; a daughter, Dorothy Shepard; a brother, M. L. Shepard, Corpus Christi, Texas, and a sister, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Greensboro, N. C.

Honorary pallbearers are to be Sam Pavey, Abe Pavey, U. M. Warmouth, Dan F. Griffin, T. R. Booth, H. R. Easterday, J. B. Murray, P. S. Hildebrand and Robert Cummings. Active pallbearers are to be Lewis E. Andrew, Ralph J. Hudelson, D. M. Jordan, C. D. McIntyre, R. F. Jordan and Allen W. Jordan.

JAMES KERVAN, 3240 Rockleyst, former Marion County commissioner from the 6th District, died yesterday in G. V. Jensen Hospital. He is to be buried at the Holy Cross Cemetery following funeral services in the home of a son, Paul Kervan, 5152 North-dr. Continued services are to be held at 8 a. m. in Our Lady of the Lourdes Church. He was 76.

Born in Indianapolis April 5, 1860, Mr. Kervan was educated in Marion County schools and spent many years as a farmer.

He entered Democratic politics more than 30 years ago and served as county commissioner from 1910 to 1916.

He served as custodian of the Indianapolis Public Library and at one time was a member of the fire park department. He was a candidate for County Commissioner in the 1932 primary elections. He retired from active political life several months later.

He was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men and the St. Joan of Arc Catholic parish.

Survivors include three daughters, Miss Mary Kervan, Mrs. Margaret Carroll and Mrs. Neil Druschel; two sons, William J. and Paul Kervan, and six grandchildren, all of Indianapolis.

MRS. ALICE BOYER KRIEPEK, 62, E. 49th-st., who died Tuesday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph A. Kester of Shickshinny, Pa., was to be buried today in Woodlawn Cemetery following funeral services at 1 p. m. at the McNeely Mortuary, Shadyside.

Mrs. Kriepke was born in Pennsylvania and came to Indianapolis 25 years ago. She was a member of Broadway M. E. Church. She was visiting her daughter when she became ill Tuesday.

Survivors are the daughter; a son, Roy J. Kriepke of Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Schuman of Catavissa, Pa., and Miss Anna D. Boyer of New Harmony, and a brother, Charles Boyer of Evansville.

MRS. SARAH KINNICK, native of Pennsylvania, died yesterday in her home, 944 West-dr., Wodruff Place. She was 75.

Funeral services are to be held in the home at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Burial is to be in Greenwood, Ind.

Mrs. Kinnick came to Indiana when a girl and lived in Greenwood before moving to Indianapolis. Survivors are three children, William H. Kinnick, Benjamin F. Kinnick and Miss Mary Kinnick, all of Indianapolis.

JUDGE FRED A. WIECKING of the Indiana Appellate Court, who died here Tuesday, is to be buried in Bluffton tomorrow following fu-

Gas, Backaches
Gone, Stomach and
Kidneys Now Fine

Indianapolis Lady Says New
Konjola Restored Her Health.

Indianapolis—Mrs. Lockhart says it's great to be free from indigestion, constipation and the many pains due to weak stomach and kidneys. She writes:

"I suffered for years from indigestion. Food didn't agree with me. It caused gas, bloating and sick, sour stomach. My kidneys hurt me, too."

Mrs. Carrie Lockhart
My knees would swell and ache terribly. I developed rheumatic pains.

Finally, friends told me about Konjola and I tried it. It did help me. My food digested properly and the pains vanished. I gained a good appetite.

My kidneys stopped hurting me. Aches, pains and swellings were gone. Konjola did more for me than anything I ever tried. It has been years since I took Konjola and I am still enjoying good health."—Mrs. Carrie Lockhart, 4120 Center Drive, Indianapolis.

Others have had the same experience. They expected to have to take medicine all their lives for dyspepsia, constipation, general weakness, backache, rheumatism, rheumatic pains or other ills due to sluggish liver, kidneys or bowels. Then they tried Konjola. It relieved their ailments quickly. Years afterward they write: "The old remedies have returned. The good effects of Konjola have lasted."

Konjola's ingredients put new pep in the body. They are good for most pains and weaknesses—the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It improves the blood. Your ailments vanish. You get strong again too.

Get safe, pleasant new Konjola today at Hook's Drug Stores. Haag's and other good druggists. Be amazed at results from very first dose. You can start to get new health this very day.

Advertisement.

Deaths Among Indiana Residents

ANDERSON—Mrs. Anna May Little, 44, survivor: Widower, Charles; daughters, Mrs. Howard Hunter and Mrs. Helen Miller; son, Charles; brothers, Charles and Mary Barr; Mrs. Charles Hoard and Mrs. Capelle Dalton; brothers, Charles and Mrs. Dorothy Ellen Faulkner, 29. Survivors: Widower, Henry; son, William; wife, Vera Foster; brother, Everett Carroll.

ALBION—Henry Zitzman.

BOSWELL—Mrs. Mary E. Null, 75. Survivors: Daughters, Mrs. Jessie Abbott and Mrs. Mary; son, John; brother, John.

BRUCEVILLE—Anna Louise Blair, 27. Survivors: Sons, Lawrence and Lewis; daughter, Anna; brothers, John and G. L. Blair; son-in-law, W. A. Durkin.

CAMPBELLSTOWN—George Forney, 82. Survivors: Widow; son, John; wife, Vesta; daughter, Lucille Mackintosh and Mrs. Alice Blair.

CHILL—Oscar E. Griffith, 69. Survivors: Sisters, Mrs. Omer Zook and Mrs. Frank Appling; brother, Harrison Griffith.

CLAY—Otto Shantz, 58. Survivors: Widow, Hattie; children, Verna, Shirley and Gila; son-in-law, Oliver Crain.

COLMELINE—William C. Kunkel, 82. Survivors: Children, Henry, William, Charles and Mrs. Ann Abramson.

CONNERSVILLE—Ellen N. Moorehead.

survived services at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ernst Wielcking, at 3 p. m.

Pallbearers are to be Virgil Simon, state conservation commissioner; Kenneth M. Kunkel, assistant commissioner; Fort Wayne; Hoy Hartman, Bluffton; R. E. Peckham, Indianapolis; Harold C. Feighner, Indianapolis; and R. E. Snowberger, Indianapolis.

MRS. MARY BOSWELL BAUGHMAN, an Indianapolis resident for 30 years, is to be buried in Stilesville tomorrow. Funeral services are to be held in the Shirley Bros. Central Chapel at 10:30 a. m. She died Tuesday in her home, 2933 N. New Jersey-st.

Mrs. Baumgartner was born in Stilesville. She was the widow of Samuel Baumgartner, Civil War veteran, and was a member of the Women's Relief Corps. Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Edith B. Sayce of Indianapolis, and a brother, Buel O. Boswell of Gresham, Ore.

GEORGE M. WEAVER, 48, E. 56th-st., Smith Agricultural Chemical Co. vice president and secretary and Indianapolis branch manager for 25 years, died last night in a Columbus (O.) hospital three hours after being stricken by a heart attack. He was 53.

Funeral arrangements are being completed today.

Mr. Weaver arrived in Columbus Tuesday night. He was born in Steubenville, O., and was with the Smith company in Columbus three years before coming to Indianapolis. He also was a company director.

He was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men and the St. Joan of Arc Catholic parish.

Survivors include three daughters, Miss Mary Kervan, Mrs. Margaret Carroll and Mrs. Neil Druschel; two sons, William J. and Paul Kervan, and six grandchildren, all of Indianapolis.

MRS. ALICE BOYER KRIEPEK, 62, E. 49th-st., who died Tuesday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph A. Kester of Shickshinny, Pa., was to be buried today in Woodlawn Cemetery following funeral services at 1 p. m. at the McNeely Mortuary, Shadyside.

Mrs. Kriepke was born in Pennsylvania and came to Indianapolis 25 years ago. She was a member of Broadway M. E. Church. She was visiting her daughter when she became ill Tuesday.

Survivors are the daughter; a son, Roy J. Kriepke of Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Schuman of Catavissa, Pa., and Miss Anna D. Boyer of New Harmony, and a brother, Charles Boyer of Evansville.

MRS. SARAH KINNICK, native of Pennsylvania, died yesterday in her home, 944 West-dr., Wodruff Place. She was 75.

Funeral services are to be held in the home at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Burial is to be in Greenwood, Ind.

Mrs. Kinnick came to Indiana when a girl and lived in Greenwood before moving to Indianapolis. Survivors are three children, William H. Kinnick, Benjamin F. Kinnick and Miss Mary Kinnick, all of Indianapolis.

JUDGE FRED A. WIECKING of the Indiana Appellate Court, who died here Tuesday, is to be buried in Bluffton tomorrow following fu-

Gas, Backaches
Gone, Stomach and
Kidneys Now Fine

Indianapolis Lady Says New
Konjola Restored Her Health.

Indianapolis—Mrs. Lockhart says it's great to be free from indigestion, constipation and the many pains due to weak stomach and kidneys. She writes:

"I suffered for years from indigestion. Food didn't agree with me. It caused gas, bloating and sick, sour stomach. My kidneys hurt me, too."

Mrs. Carrie Lockhart
My knees would swell and ache terribly. I developed rheumatic pains.

Finally, friends told me about Konjola and I tried it. It did help me. My food digested properly and the pains vanished. I gained a good appetite.

My kidneys stopped hurting me. Aches, pains and swellings were gone. Konjola did more for me than anything I ever tried. It has been years since I took Konjola and I am still enjoying good health."—Mrs. Carrie Lockhart, 4120 Center Drive, Indianapolis.

Others have had the same experience. They expected to have to take medicine all their lives for dyspepsia, constipation, general weakness, backache, rheumatism, rheumatic pains or other ills due to sluggish liver, kidneys and bowels. Then they tried Konjola. It relieved their ailments quickly. Years afterward they write: "The old remedies have returned. The good effects of Konjola have lasted."

Konjola's ingredients put new pep in the body. They are good for most pains and weaknesses—the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It improves the blood. Your ailments vanish. You get strong again too.

Get safe, pleasant new Konjola today at Hook's Drug Stores. Haag's and other good druggists. Be amazed at results from very first dose. You can start to get new health this very day.

Advertisement.

THE INDIANAPOLIS TIMES

LABOR TRUCE AIDED BY WISCONSIN MOVE

Plea by State Federation May Defer Split.

By Scripps-Hornbeam Alliance
WASHINGTON, July 30.—A new and powerful effort to make the William Green vs. John L. Lewis row in the A. F. of L. and avoid next week's expected split in the Federation, was launched today by the Wisconsin Federation of Labor.

The move is deemed important because it is the official proposal of the Wisconsin Federation of Labor.

The move is to be held here yesterday, Aug. 14. The County Farm Bureau, Plainfield Lions Club and Danville and Plainfield merchants are sponsors.

J. S. Whitehead, Kansas City, Kas., Old Trails Association publicity director, was here yesterday conferring with Chamber of Commerce officials regarding support of proposed Federal legislation to designate the highway a military road.

The Chamber is to furnish the in steel, rubber, auto, radio and other mass industries, there is believed to be a fair chance that the council will defer action until the A. F. of L. convention at Tampa in November.

CIVIC LEADERS BACK HIGHWAY PROPOSAL

Designation of U. S. 40 as Military Road Asked.

Announces 4-H Club Show

PLAINFIELD, Ind., July 30.—Hendricks County's 4-H Club show is to be held here Aug. 14. The County Farm Bureau, Plainfield Lions Club and Danville and Plainfield merchants are sponsors.

Whitaker with data on the road in Indiana and this information is to be placed in a tourist guide.

Legislation to establish the highway as Military Road is to be before Congress. Mr. E. Noble, Indianapolis, and Fred E. Johnson, Terre Haute, are Hoosier directors of the National Old Trails Association.

Times Special

PLAINFIELD, Ind., July 30.—Hendricks County's 4-H Club show is to be held here Aug. 14. The County Farm Bureau, Plainfield Lions Club and Danville and Plainfield merchants are sponsors.

MAYTAG Used $29
Repair Parts for All Makes

IDEAL WASHER CO.
208 N. Delaware
Near Ohio Open Till 9 P.M.

By United Press

ASHVILLE, N. C., July 30.—Sheriff Laurence E. Brown said today he is determined to solve the mysterious murder two weeks ago of Helen Clevenger "no matter how long it takes."

The will be no let-up in the investigation of the ravishing and slaying of the 18-year-old New York University honor student despite lack of progress so far, the sheriff said.

"It may take a long time," Mr. Brown said, "but I'm going to stay on it no matter how long it takes."

Missionary to Speak

By Rev. H. G. Cassell of Los Angeles, Cal., to speak at 7:45 tonight in the West Twenty-Ninth Street Church of Christ. He has been a missionary in the Philippines Islands during the last seven years.

Shop here tomorrow and Saturday if you want to get bargains—every item drastically reduced in this Clean-up Sale for disposal!

Friday and Saturday Only!

We must clean out our stocks to make room for new merchandise coming in—so you benefit by these great values at real savings!

Clean-Up Sale

SUMMER MERCHANDISE

Friday and Saturday Only!

What Good Is Money
If Your FEET HURT?

You would be far happier with your feet in these famous shoes than you will be with the money they would cost in your pocket.

ORIGINAL

Dr. A. Reed
CUSHION SHOES

214 Merchants Bank Bldg.
Over HOOKS—Across from AYRES.

Streamline Zepher
Lace Panties

Reg. 29c Value

22c

Natural wood finish with bright striped awning covers.

All children's sand toys greatly reduced to wear.

Ladies' Beautiful
White Purses

Reg. 25c and 49c Values

19c and 37c

Large assortment of styles!

Ladies' White
Mesh Gloves

Up to 49c Values

19c PAIR

Plain colors and white in attractive patterns and design. A real value at this low price for Friday and Saturday only. Sizes, 14-20.