

LOCAL PASTORS ARE TO SPEAK FOR INSTITUTE

Disciples of Christ Clergy
Attending Sessions at Chicago.

Times Special
CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—Two Indianapolis pastors are to speak here tomorrow at sessions of the annual pastors institute being held jointly by the University of Chicago divinity school, Chicago Theological Seminary and the Disciples Divinity House.

Dr. James A. Crain, secretary of the department of social education, United Christian Missionary Society, Indianapolis, is scheduled to be the discussion leader Friday afternoon.

Rev. William H. Shuenberger, pastor of the Central Christian Church, Indianapolis, is to be the discussion leader at the closing session Friday night.

In connection with the institute, leaders of the Disciples are holding the fortieth annual meeting of the Campbell Institute, a college graduates' organization of that denomination. Several hundred are to attend.

The pastors institute was opened with worship services in the University of Chicago chapel, at which Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, St. Louis, Mo., president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, spoke on "A New Strategy for Protestantism."

CAUTION LINES PUT ON ROADS

Yellow Stripes to Indicate
Points Where Passing
Is Dangerous.

Yellow lines parallel to the black center line are being painted on Indiana highways to indicate points where passing other vehicles is dangerous, James D. Adams, State Highway Commission chairman, said today.

All curves where there is a change of direction of three degrees or more and all grades where the motorist's vision is less than 1000 feet are to receive the caution-zone markings, Mr. Adams said.

Work has been in progress for several days in the Greenfield, and LaPorte districts.

"Motorists disregarding the caution marking by passing other vehicles going in the same direction will be guilty of reckless driving and subject to arrest," Mr. Adams said.

Stymied

Times Special
NOBLESVILLE, Ind., July 30.—A telephone call reporting a dead baby in an automobile on State Road 32 near here sent Deputy Sheriff George Baker hurrying to the scene.

The deputy saw something in the back seat carefully covered by a newspaper. What appeared to be two feet were sticking from under the covering.

He tried the doors. They were locked. Then he forced his way in. gingerly he lifted the covering.

Two golf clubs lay on the seat.

Later in the evening an Anderson motorist claimed both clubs and the automobile.
