

Irvin Cobb Scheduled to Be Fourth at Bridge on Caravan Hour at 7:30 P. M.; Specialty Bands Replace Wayne King

Rudy Vallee Soon May Say Farewell to Present Sponsors.

Irvin S. Cobb described his recent metamorphosis into a movie actor as "reaching the bottom of the final abyss," so perhaps he will regard his radio appearance tonight as a step toward a higher realm. Anyway, he's to drop in for a fourth at bridge on the Caravan Hour at 7:30 p. m. on WFBM, for a part in George S. Kaufman's skit, "If Men Played Bridge Like Women Do."

It will be quite a noted foursome around the bridge table: Mr. Kaufman making his debut as a radio actor in his own story; George Jessel, former radio and stage comedian, now a Hollywood script writer; Rupert Hughes, the program's master of ceremonies, and Mr. Cobb.

Mr. Kaufman is qualified to rib the great American indoor sport—or any other national institution—on the basis of past successes. He has lampooned the movies, politics, Tin Pan Alley and the Broadway stage as co-author of "Once in a Lifetime," "Of Thee I Sing," "June Moon" and "The Royal Family."

Mr. Hughes is to continue in his role of master of ceremonies on the broadcast, and Mr. Jessel is slated to "double in brass" with a monologue and song. The four gentlemen really promise to play out a hand in the best feminine style. Looks like we might have a grand slam in comedy entertainment.

Two "specialty" bands are to take over Wayne King's WIRE program spots for the next four weeks beginning at 6:30 tonight with Horace Heidt's company. At the same hour tomorrow night Hal Kemp's orchestra and singers will go to bat for the "waltz king" who has gone to Los Angeles for a vacation.

Last-minute bulletins from the radio front inform us that Rudy Vallee soon may say farewell to his present sponsors, after seven years of harmonious dealings. Rudy is scheduled to move up a night to the spot now occupied by Frank Pay. Meanwhile, according to White Way operatives, the Vallee sponsors will retain their present hour for a "super-colossal" newscasting program, expanding the idea now being tested on the Vallee broadcast.

Our informer also tells us that New Jersey's Gov. Harold Hoffman apparently means to press the slander suit against the energetic commentator, Boake Carter. It seems that the Governor has reached out to serve papers on Mr. Carter through a Camden (N. J.) bank, affiliated with the city's bank's Philadelphia station.

There are plenty of vicarious adventures for its listeners on the "Three-Minute Thrill" portion of WLW's cigarette-sponsored program at 6 o'clock tonight. Charles Martin's guest this evening is to be J. E. "Uncle Sam" Williams, up from Florida, where he is experimenting on a new diving bell.

He is to tell of a hand-to-hand battle with a shark which bit his air hose during one of his trips "down under." Also present will be the regular company of Leo Reisman and his band, Phil Dwyer, baritone; Loreta Clemens and Johnnie the Call Boy.

Good Music

Five times each week a stentorian voice informs radio listeners that "Time marches on."

In the world of music, too, the inexorable parade continues, leaving in its wake innumerable esteemed compositions which are forgotten by a new generation.

Very often, however, a single aria, chorus or instrumental number survives a bygone opera or symphony. So we have the so-called Largo from Handel's opera "Xerxes," the Toccata from a forgotten sonata of Paradisi, overtures and arias from the operas of Weber and Rossini, and the "Pavane Angelica" from Franck's Mass in A.

This latter mass is to be heard in its entirety from St. Paul's Chapel, Columbia University, over WFBM at 2:45 p. m. tomorrow. The Columbia Summer Session Choir will perform the seldom-heard work, under the direction of Henry Doernsam. Assisting will be Joseph Emonds, "cellist of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Society"; Casper Reardon, harpist; and Paul Zuydhoek, organist. The chorus is composed of teachers from all parts of the country attending the university's summer school.

The youthful and gifted pianist, Miss Muriel Kerr, is to be soloist on the Columbia Concert Hall half-hour at 2 p. m. tomorrow afternoon over WFBM. Miss Kerr's most recent broadcast was with Howard Barlow and the CBS Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Grieg's A Minor Piano Concerto and the Dohnanyi "Variations on a Nursery Tune."

Her program tomorrow is announced as two Bach-Busoni Choral Preludes; a "Song Without Words" by Mendelssohn; the Scherzo from the same composer's "Midsummer Night's Dream" music; in Ernest Hutcheson's arrangement; two of the Schumann "Fantasy Pieces" and the Chopin F Minor Ballade.

Benny Reports on Movies and People

Here is a letter from Jack Benny, vacationing from the air waves by making a picture in Hollywood. We suspect, as Gracie Allen might put it, that he "tells that to all the radio editors," but even if it's a circular letter, we pass it on to you. Says Jack:

"The news for today is not that I am making a picture, not that I have rented the Countess di Frasso's home in Beverly Hills, and not that Leopold Stokowski has refused to listen to my fiddled version of 'Love in Bloom.'"

"The real, hot five-star-fact is that I'm playing six different

COMEDIAN ON AIR TONIGHT

"This is different, Graham!"—Of all silly pictures Ed Wynn ever saw of himself, he likes best the caricature shown at the left, which hangs in his office. Ed will be on the air at 7:30 o'clock tonight over WLW.

Smiling at the microphone is Comedian Joe Cook (right), the pride of Evansville. A recent guest on Smith-Ballew's program, he has been invited back next Saturday and again Aug. 22.
