

FRANCES STEWART TO MARRY LIEUT. GODWIN TODAY

Fort Harrison Will Be Scene of Ceremony

Reception Is to Follow; Couple to Leave for Fort Sill, Okla.

The reception following the marriage of Miss Frances Stewart and Lieut. James E. Godwin, Fort Harrison, late today, is to have the aspects of a farewell. Lieut. Godwin is to assume duties at Fort Sill, Okla., following the couple's wedding trip.

Army officers, their sons and daughters and friends of the bride and groom are to witness the ceremony at the quarters of Major and Mrs. D. L. Stewart, the bride's parents.

The Rev. I. R. Godwin, Akron, Ind., is to officiate at the marriage of his son and Miss Stewart.

The fireplace in the living room is to be shielded by palms and ferns, and bouquets of roses are to be arranged in the setting.

Cousin to Be Attendant

Major Stewart is to give his daughter in marriage.

The bride is to wear a white chiffon redingote style gown over satin slip. The redingote is edged in knife pleating. The finger tip net veil is to fall from a halo, the bridal bouquet is to be of white roses.

Miss Margaret Baker, Columbus, O., the bride's cousin, is to be the bridesmaid. Her gown of equanarine chiffon is designed with a cape, and her bouquet is to be of yellow gladioli and lavender asters. Lieut. Francis Hall is to be best man.

Mrs. Stewart is to attend in a peach chiffon gown with a corsage of roses.

The bride is to travel in an imported blue and natural colored linen ensemble.

Lieut. Godwin has been stationed at the Fort since his graduation from West Point in 1932.

Couple Wed Here to Make Home in Casey, Ill., Soon

After a wedding trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Numanaker Jr., are to make their home in Casey, Ill.

Before her marriage here last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Stacy, 4134 Rookwood-av., Mrs. Numanaker was Miss Mildred Helen McFarling, daughter of Mrs. Ora McFarling, Hazelville, Ind. Mr. Numanaker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Numanaker.

The Rev. James Moore, Rushville Methodist Church district superintendent, officiated at the service. Miss Maude Searley, Casey, was maid of honor and Delbert Scherger, was best man. Pasquale Montani, harpist, and Fred Jones, violinist, provided music.

The bride wore white satin and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Searley wore white crepe and carried a bouquet of Briarcliff roses.

Miss Morrison Is Honored by Luncheon Here

A series of parties for Miss Peggy Morrison, bride-elect today with Miss Katharine Fulton's luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Guests are to play bridge in the afternoon. With them today are to be Miss Mary Eliza, Dorothy Young, Margaret Clippinger, Joan Auferheide, Jane Throckmold, Priscilla Lombard, Mrs. Ronald Woodward and Miss Elizabeth Hall, Shelbyville.

Miss Morrison's marriage to John C. Lasher, New York, is to take place, Aug. 22 in Tabernacle Presbyterian Church.

Miss Fulton, Miss Young and Miss Eliza are to be bridesmaids.

Sorority Fetes Rushees With Luncheon Here

Young women who are to enter Indiana colleges this fall were guests of the Indianapolis Alliance, Delta Delta Delta Sorority, at luncheon today at Meridian Hills Country Club.

The luncheon was followed by a program, including welcoming address by Mrs. Dana Jones, alliance president; songs by Mrs. John Bruhn, accompanist Mrs. Willard Bray; accordion selections by Miss Cathryn Daubespick, a style show and group singing by the sorority members.

Covers were laid for 100 persons. Table decorations included centerpieces of painted daisies and white tapers in crystal holders. Guests' places were marked with gifts wrapped in silver, gold and blue.

The party chairman, Mrs. Bernard F. Lacy, was assisted by Mesdames Robert Renick, Owen M. Calvert, Fred Hovestine, James Allen, Lee Searey and Mesdames Martha Carmichael and Virginia Schlosser.

REFUSE CANS ARE MORE ATTRACTIVE

Refuse cans have gone modern, in keeping with other dressed-up kitchen gadgets. Lacquered cans with ivory with stripes of any color to match the color scheme of the kitchen are available in local shops. One attractive pantry set comes in a light painted background with a decorative head of Lady Godiva outlined in black. It includes refuse can with galvanized inner receptacle, waste basket, cake and bread box, and matching sugar, salt and coffee containers.

Mrs. Walter O. Holmes and daughter, Miss Harriet Jane Holmes, have returned from a trip to New York. Miss Holmes has gone to Bedford to attend house party given by Miss Elizabeth Young. Miss Young and Miss Holmes are classmates at De Pauw University.

Married in Recent Ceremonies

Photo by Flowman-Platt. Mrs. David A. Rothrock Jr.

Before her recent marriage Mrs. David A. Rothrock Jr. was Miss Mary Estelle Sluss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis E. Sluss, 3002 Park-av.

Photo by Payton. Mrs. William P. Givens

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Givens are to be at home in Porter after Sept. 1. Mrs. Givens formerly was Miss Madelyn Rardon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rardon, Indianapolis.

Photo by Flowman-Platt. Mrs. Howard G. Campbell

The marriage of Miss Helen Virginia Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graham, 6268 Park-av, to Howard G. Campbell took place recently.

EVENTS

CARD PARTIES

Joy Lodge 5. Tonight. Woodmen Hall, 32 E. New York-st. Cards and dancing.
Ladies' Auxiliary, Southside Turners. 8:15 p. m. today. 306 Prospect-st. Beans.
St. Philip Neri Church. 8:30 p. m. Mon. Auditorium. Lotto. Mrs. Richard Decker, chairman.
St. Philip Neri Church. 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. Wed. Mrs. Harry McMahon, chairman.
St. Patrick's Social Club. 2 p. m. Tues. Wed. and Thurs. Cards and lawn social.

REUNIONS

Utterback reunion, Aug. 30. Garfield-pk. Basket lunch.
SORORITIES
Alpha Theta Chi. 8 p. m. Tues. Miss Constance Leeb, 1642 Park-av, hostess. First of series of rush parties. Guests, Mesdames Everett Hanks, Herbert Wolff, Maurice Hands and Ray Riddle. Misses Adna Bridges, Clara May Wolfe and Gergetta Grottenick.

Attendants Are Named for Wacker-Sharpe Rite Aug. 14

Miss Mary Phyllis Sharpe, whose engagement to Clarence August Wacker has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cole Sharpe, has named her attendants for the ceremony.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Crawfordsville, formerly of Indianapolis, is to be matron of honor. Miss Lucille Morrison and Miss Virginia Strong are to be bridesmaids.

Mr. Wacker has chosen John Utley for best man, and George House Jr. and Harry E. Smith for ushers.

The ceremony is to be read at 6:30 p. m., Aug. 14, at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, the Rev. Allen K. Trout officiating. Mr. Sharpe is to give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Morrison and Miss Frances Brumit entertained with a luncheon shower and a tea today at the home of the latter, 614 Carrollton-av, for the bride-to-be.

Guests included Miss Sharpe and Mesdames Walter Witt, Tracy Davis, Melvin E. Robbins and Mary Chessman, and Mesdames Winifred Holmes, Hazel Culp, Rebecca Blackley, Margaret Rohr, Wilma Aulenbacher.

Virginia Showalter. Helen and Rosemond Baker, Jean Gouding, Louise Troy, Helen Mattie, Catherine Vogel, Suzanne Merrill, Dolly Wilkening and Dorothy Dauner.

Jelly, Cupboard Is Inspiration for New Dishes

Cooking ideas, like plots for short stories, have to come from somewhere. Housewives thumb through cook books, magazines, newspapers—authors read books, dig in their gardens, or just chew the end of a pencil.

Next time you run short of cooking inspiration, take a look at the rows of varied jellies and jams in your cupboard and consider what dishes you can make with them. You'll be astonished and bewildered by the number of suggestions that greet you from labels marked "strawberry jelly," "peach jam," "orange marmalade."

Confining yourself to the glasses on the grape shelf, see what happens! Danish red cabbage is a grand dish using grape jelly. And so is tongue polonaise. There are bran buds using grape jelly, and, of course, many croquettes are excellent with grape spreads. Also, pancakes.

To be sure, you can't be inspired by an empty jam cupboard, so be sure to fill it up now while fresh fruits are on hand.

BUTLER FACULTY MEMBERS TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Monninger have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Suzanne K. Monninger, to Eugene Underwood.

The marriage is to take place Aug. 16 at the Monninger home. Both Miss Monninger and Mr. Underwood are Butler University graduates. Miss Monninger received her masters degree from the University of Wisconsin, and Mr. Underwood received a M. A. degree from Duke University. Both are Butler University faculty members.

HIGHLAND CLUB TO HAVE BARBECUE

An outdoor barbecue dinner is to precede dancing on the Highland Golf and Country Club terrace tonight. Members and their guests are to attend. The informal dinner is to be served at 7 p. m.

Moving About With Parents Good for Child

Change of Residence May Prove Beneficial, Writer Believes.

(Dr. Morris Flahbein discusses infant health. Page 10).

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Is it good for a child to move about? I mean when the family has to change residence often?

One family I know, on account of the nature of the father's work, moves frequently from one city to another. Each time it means readjustment for the children, new friends to make, new scenes to get used to, new schools and kindergartens. They take root one place and settle down to call it home and then before they know it, off they go to do it all over again, usually to take up what no old contracts can possibly be maintained.

The question is, do children benefit by such experiences or lose by them?

It Seemed Obvious

At first glance it seems obvious. "Poor little things," every one says. "Cheated out of everything a normal child should have. Just as soon as a place becomes dear to them, they have to give it up. Surely they must feel very insecure, and insecurity is the worst possible thing for any one."

The school angle comes in for its share of sympathy too. Most people agree that children lose out by change, not only in place, but in ability to learn; because the strange child can not concentrate at first with so many other matters to take up his attention.

While I agree with all these arguments, still I think I can see some advantage in this moving about. It is a rather broad experience for any child to make a new way for himself repeatedly. Besides, the true cosmopolitan is one who never tells to one pattern or to any community. He becomes many-sided and learns a certain tolerance for things that are different.

Home Town May Be But

Our point of view gets into a rut sometime, living and dying in the good old way in the home town. While such are the backbone of the nation, the steady, the settled and content, there is always the danger that, transplanted when circumstances force a change, they are completely lost and unhappy. Old things can become too dear for our own good, in other words. And in this day and age of movement, which is bound to increase with the years, we who love certain environments, people and scenes too dearly will in the long run be the most miserable. Those who can bear tugs at the heart strings will be the most content.

(Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

Roberta Bruce Honor Guest at Luncheon Party

A shower followed Miss Philena Argo's luncheon and bridge party today for Miss Roberta Olivia Bruce, bride-to-be.

Miss Bruce, daughter of C. L. Bruce, Marion, is to be married to Malcolm E. Stallard, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Stallard, Sparta, Ky., Aug. 16 at the home of her sister, Miss Margaret Bruce.

Miss Argo's guests with the bride-to-be and her sister were Miss Ruth Emigholz; Mrs. Walter Schulte, Milwaukee, who is visiting Mrs. Ray Lewander; Mrs. Lewander, Mesdames Lee Francis, Dave Burton, Robert Bruce, S. E. Rowe and Edward J. Hecker Jr.

Stokes-Larsen Marriage Date Set for Sept. 16

Miss Suzanne Stokes and Earl Larsen have set Sept. 16 as the date for their marriage. The ceremony is to be read at the home of Miss Stokes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Stokes, 3555 Washington-blvd, at 8 p. m.

The Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkle is to hear the exchange of vows in the presence of immediate families and a few intimate friends.

Miss Stokes has chosen Miss Mary Jane Carr as her maid of honor and Mr. Larsen is to have his brother, Neil Larsen, Amarillo, Tex., as his best man.

Miss Stokes is a Tudor Hall graduate. Mr. Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larsen, Warren, Ariz., was graduated from Carnegie Technical Institute.

Following the marriage the couple is to live in Indianapolis.

COUPLE TO LIVE IN BLOOMINGTON

BLOOMINGTON, Aug. 8.—The marriage of Miss Isabel Penrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Penrod, Bloomington, and Donald Shafer, Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shafer, 5515 N. Pennsylvania-st., was announced. The couple is to live here.

Mrs. Shafer attended Indiana University. Mr. Shafer attended Indiana University and is a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

Hoosier Glasses
All Styles Right
and Priced Right
The Hoosier
Optical Company
144 N. Illinois St.

Indiana FUR CO
29 E. OHIO ST.

Engagement Is Announced

Photo by W. Hurley Ashby, P. R. P. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Borinstein announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Elizabeth Borinstein, to Emanuel Meyer, Akron, O., son of Mrs. Leo Meyer, Akron. The wedding is to take place in the fall. Miss Borinstein is a graduate of Tudor Hall and Wellesley College. Mr. Meyer attended Akron University.

Remember Your Men Guests in Planning Tea Menu, Lola Says

BY LOLA WYMAN

Tea after tennis matches is an old and revered custom. If you're to be the hostess on such an occasion, think about your men guests when planning what you're to serve. Even if the guests prefer a mint julep or a Tom Collins to the milder tea, these sandwiches are just the right thing.

And after strenuous exercise you must serve something a little more substantial than popcorn, crackers and such tid-bits.

The Ham Sportsman

Slice fresh bread very thin. Spread with deviled ham, mixed with mustard. When wanted to serve, place in hot oven under broiler until lightly browned.

Anchovy Twist

Slice bread very thin and cut in oblongs. Place anchovies side by side until bread is covered. Roll and press edges together with a little butter which will hold it firmly. Place under a hot broiler and toast and turn until all sides are brown.

Deviled Lobster

Mash fresh or canned lobster meat with a fork and mix with lemon juice and sharp English mustard. Add minced parsley and put between slices of buttered rye bread.

Here are some other suggestions for fillings:

Minced corn beef combined with horseradish; finely chopped chicken and celery moistened with mayonnaise (an old favorite); chopped hard-cooked egg and shredded lettuce with mayonnaise; fillet of hering—made this way: cut thinly sliced bread into finger-sized pieces. Put hering through center and sprinkle with lemon and onion juice. Put under broiler and toast until brown.

Before you begin to make any kind of sandwich you must cream the butter. Let it stand in a warm place until softened but not the least bit runny. Then beat it well with a slotted spoon or a Dover beater until light and creamy. This butter spreads like cream and becomes firm again in the refrigerator during the chilling of the sandwich.

Mrs. Marshall to Be in City for Campaign

Former Vice President's Widow Here After Busy Summer.

BY BEATRICE BURGAN

WHEN banners begin waving and speeches ring through halls in the fall political campaign, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall will be in the line for the Democrats.

She knows the ways of these presidential elections, for she worked in another campaign to see her late husband win the vice presidency of the United States.

Right now she is resting at the Propylaeum Club, where she always stays when she is in Indianapolis. She has had a busy summer and is to visit her home town, Angola, before returning here for the fall meetings.

She attended the Democratic convention with Mrs. John Dougherty, whom she visited in Washington. At New York she was the guest of Mrs. A. A. Adams, Robert A. Adams' mother.

She enjoyed a stay at Hastings-on-the-Hudson with Mrs. E. G. Truheart, formerly of Terre Haute, and stopped at Boston before she came on here.

After Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell, New Albany, visited in the East with Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Beth Ann Williston, they stopped here to be with Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Williston.

Nathan M. Davis is to go to Williston, Conn., later this month to join his wife who is to be visiting her brother, George L. Watson. Mrs. Davis has been at the Smith College Club quarters in the new Weston in New York for several days.

Mrs. Sylvester Johnson, who is at Homestead Ranch, Pittsford, N.Y., with her daughter Mary and son Sylvester III, is expecting Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Perrin, and son John, Pasadena, Cal., to join them next week.

Slanting Board in Wardrobe Found Useful

A slanting board adjusted at the correct angle and attached to the back of a clothes closet affords a convenient resting place for shoes. A narrow wooden cleat is nailed on the board a few inches from the top and forms a heel rest preventing the shoes from slipping to the floor.

The use of this shoe rack keeps the shoes, with their inserted trees, in good order and off the closet floor always within sight and easy reach. The closet presents a far neater appearance with this arrangement which also saves valuable shelf space.

Rich and Reckless

The story of a beautiful girl who found her life of wealth and comfort much too boring. This new serial, written by Mary Raymond, sparkles with adventuresome romance, yet keeps as real as life itself.

Beginning NEXT WEDNESDAY in The Indianapolis Times