

MARATHON VICTOR FINISHES RUN WITH BURST OF SPEED

Crowd Cheers as Japanese 'Iron Man' Sprints on Final 100 Yards of 26-Mile Test

Zabala, Favorite, Drops Out; American Is 18th; Morris, Outdoing Great Jim Thorpe, Leads U. S. Trio to Brilliant Sweep in Decathlon Event.

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—On the track speed is everything, even in the physically punishing marathon. Kijel, Son, the Japanese student, proved this yesterday when he climaxed a long run of 25 miles 345 yards with a spectacular sprint in the last hundred yards of 13.3 seconds. This was loosely indicative of the speed maintained from the start and the manner in which he paced himself. He re-entered the stadium which was rocking with cheers in 2 hours 29 minutes and 19 seconds after having set what was called a new world's record. There are no real records in the marathon due to the difference in the contours and so forth. They are like comparative golf records. A 75 at Oakmont is relatively as expert as a 70 at Say, Baltusand. Still, Son was undoubtedly the fastest runner in the field, finishing 2 minutes ahead of Ernest Harper, the English coal miner who was second, and three minutes ahead of Shoruy, another Japanese student, who was third.

This marked Japan's first victory in the Olympic marathon. The Japanese runners have been close up in every marathon race since 1928 and are generally accepted on the whole as the best marathoners today.

Juan Zabala, the Argentine defending champion, who has been training here since October, lead for about 18 miles when a combination of rushing pursuers and tight shoes produced a collapse. Jim Kelley of Boston was the only American to finish. He came in in eighteenth place. Mr. Kelley had a very simple explanation for his showing: "The distance was too far and my legs were too short," he said.

The marathon was free from incidents such as marked the 1908 event when the British officials carried Dorando, the Italian, over the line and victory was finally given to Johnny Hayes, an American ribbon clerk who finished second under his own power.

All the thrills of the marathon are strictly negative. The customers see them only at the start and the finish. They must keep reminding themselves of the drudgery the runners are subjected to through streets and up and down hills for 26 miles.

The first dozen runners who came home finished in good shape. Others were in varying degrees of disintegration. Several collapsed completely. It was reminiscent of the finish of the cash-and-carry Pines Bunton Derby in Madison Square Garden years ago. Zabala, in blue shorts and a white skull cap led the field out of the stadium to the cheers of his countrymen. An impious American in a field box yelled, "You can't miss kid. There's only 26 miles to go." The 36 starters circled the track, strung out like bright fluttering ribbons. This was the last the crowd saw of the human wagons for more than two hours. At intervals of two kilometers a voice through an amplifier kept the crowd informed of the progress of the plodders.

Budge Shines in Net Play

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 10.—The sparkling play of Don Budge, lanky Pacific Coast red-head, was the talk of the Eastern grass court tennis championships today.

Showing the benefits of his long rest from tournament competition, Budge swept into the third round yesterday with a 6-0, 6-1 victory over Robert Underwood of Los Angeles.

Others to reach the round of 16 were Betsy Grant of Atlanta, who eliminated Leonard Hartman of New York, 6-4, 8-6; and Gene Mako of California, Budge's doubles partner, who defeated the veteran Manuel Alonso, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Frankie Parker of Spring Lake, Mich., winner of last week's Meadow Brook tournament, Robert Riggs of Los Angeles and Johnny McDiarmid of Chicago, were among favorites to win first-round encounters.

All favorites on women's play advanced. Alice Marble of San Francisco, who is seeded first, defeated Olga Kallos of New York, 6-1, 6-2. Other winners were Mrs. John Van Ryn of Philadelphia, Gracy Wheeler of California, winner of last week's Madison Club tournament, and Mrs. Mary Greer Harris of Kansas City, Mo.

Kautsky's Conquer Sterling Team, 2-1

RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 10.—A double by Whitey Wattier with Ussett on base climaxed a two-inning rally in the ninth to give the Kautsky A. C. nine a 2-to-1 triumph over Sterling Beer of Indianapolis in an Indiana-Ohio league tilt that dedicated the new Richmond municipal ball park here yesterday.

Dressed, singled and Weathers doubled for two of the four hits of Pitcher Jacobs for the Sterling tally in the seventh inning. Kautsky tied the score on singles by Martin and Morrison and a sacrifice in the eighth inning. Score: Sterling Beers..... 000 000 100—4 1 0 Kautsky..... 000 000 011—3 1 0 Kettie and Fornell; Jacobs and Huntington.

Tribe Invades Stronghold of Loop Leaders

Indians Have Five Games in Milwaukee; Defeat Fette Again.

Times Special

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10.—Geared to continue a drive on the first division, the Indians landed in Milwaukee today to begin a four-day stand at Borchert Field, home of the league-leading Brewers. Five games are to be played.

The Hoosiers, fresh from the Twin Cities, where they won six out of nine tilts in battles with the Millers and Saints, are even at the .500 mark as a result of annexing 18 games in their last 26 starts.

Aim at Play-offs
The Tribesmen, in fifth place, have climbed within three games of Minneapolis and Kansas City, who are deadlocked above them. The goal of the Redskins is to finish in the first division in order to gain a place in the post-season play-offs.

Milwaukee appears a dead clinch to the Hoosiers, fresh from the Twin Cities, where they won six out of nine tilts in battles with the Millers and Saints, are even at the .500 mark as a result of annexing 18 games in their last 26 starts.

The Brewers are leading St. Paul by three and one-half games and topping all other clubs by a wide margin. For example, the Milwaukee budge over Indianapolis in the race is 12½ games, and in 17 games between the rivals this year the Brewers have topped the Hoosiers 11 times.

St. Paul Series Won
The Apostles were glad to see the Indians leave St. Paul last night. In the three games over the week-end and the Tribe finished out in front twice and captured the series three games to two.

On Saturday Jake Flowers combated a home run in the ninth with two mates on base and Indianapolis edged the Apostles, 8-7. Both sides used a flock of pitchers as the Hoosiers rallied in the eighth and ninth to tally six runs after trailing 7-2.

In the first half of yesterday's double-header Art Herring shut out Indianapolis, 4-0, by holding the invaders to five scattered hits. Stewart Bolen had another tough assignment and lost on seven hits. The Tribe's veteran outpunch, but he was up against a problem—his mates were unable to solve Herring.

Home in Tenth
The second conflict yesterday was the thriller. Vance Page hooked up with the St. Paul ace, Lou Fette, and the decision went to 10 innings before Oscar Eckhardt of the Redskins broke it up by blasting a home run over the left field fence in the extra round, giving his team the victory, 5-4.

Slade connected for the circuit with one out in the fifth and Evans sent the pellet soaring over the fence with one on in the seventh. This blow put the Tribesmen back in the game and they tied it up at 4-4 in the eighth when Danny Taylor tripled and scored on Siebert's single.

Indianapolis collected 13 hits off Fette and Page held the Apostles to six. It was an unusual contest, however, in the extra-base hit department. Three homers and five triples were made.

Shaw's Market turned in a major upset by defeating Third Ward Democrats, 4 to 1, yesterday. The favorites collected only three hits off Mahoney while Calbert, Manney and Bardash poled home runs for the winners.

Crown Products beat Electronic Laboratories, 10 to 6, with bases on balls contributing to the margin. Big Four advanced in the tourney with a 7-to-3 triumph over Howard-at-Merchants. Carl Martin struck out 12 losing batters, while home runs were hit by Carver and Williams for the Big Four.

Buckner singled and Cook doubled for the winning run as American Can triumphed over Real Silk, 7 to 6.

Ramblers are scheduled for two games at the R. C. A. diamond Wednesday and will travel to Franklin to play the Flyers Sunday. The team won over Franklin Cubs, 6 to 5.

Defending Doubles Net Champs Beaten
NEWCASTLE, Ind., Aug. 10.—Floyd Poole and Kenneth Snyder of Anderson captured the doubles championship in the eastern Indiana tennis tournament by defeating Wilmer Johnson of Newcastle and Orville Johnson of Richmond, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3. The Johnson brothers were the defending champions.
