Tomorrow! We Present Important Versions of the New Fall Fashion Picture!

Inexpensive Dresses

In An Impressive Array of Styles and Prices

Correct fashions for fall 1936 are definitely established—and Ayres' Downstairs Store has a representative assortment of each! Come in tomorrow and see the three new general silhouette types—one of them is sure to be "just made for you." There is the princess silhouette with new fitted lines—the Tunic silhouette, Persian in effect—and the Directoire, slim, trim and lovely.

RIGHT—Swishing taffeta in classic black—and the tunic is emblazoned with gold. A junior masterpiece! Only $6.98.

BELOW—A green sheer crepe shot with cellophane threads—and trimmed with touches of white. A junior dress, ready for action. $3.98.

RIGHT—Green crepe dress featuring the Persian tunic silhouette; follows the fashion for lots of braid trimming. Misses' sizes. $6.98.

ABOVE — Rust is the color—in a fine soft crepe that lends itself perfectly to the exquisite Persian tunic silhouette; trimmed with black astrachan cloth; junior sizes. $10.75.
