

STATE FAIR HORSE SHOW ATTRACTS ELITE OF EXHIBITORS

Local Groups to Help With Arrangements

Saddle Association to Entertain City Visitors.

Society Editor

ONLY one thing rules the thoughts of the "horsey set"—the Indiana State Fair horse show, which has been drawing the elite of exhibitors since the Indiana Horse Association took a hand in bringing in the purses.

The association not only appoints a committee to seek donations for prizes. Its officers choose a group to look after details which leave a favorable impression with the exhibitors, after the show is over.

This committee will see that the exhibitors are taken care of, and that accommodations at the stable are to their liking. And in addition, for those who have time to see the town, the committee will be ready to guide them to points of interest.

Hoosier Hospitality Beckons
The association hopes that the out-of-town exhibitors will return year after year, and they believe that Hoosier hospitality is as sure to turn the trick as good stakes.

Mrs. M. H. Fuller is chairman of this exhibitors' committee. She and her committee will be stopping at the association's office at the stables during the week, sharing the host and hostess duties with her are to be Mrs. Alex Metzger, Mrs. William Low Rice, Mrs. Helen York, Tillman Bubenz, William Knapp, Glen C. Caldwell and Horace F. Hill III.

A new committee for this year is the 4-H Saddle Club group, with Maurice L. Mendenhall, chairman; Dr. C. P. Stout, Mrs. Frank B. Shields, Martinsville; Earl W. Kiger, Commander Ola Fred Hessler, Horace E. Abbott, Charles Gregg and Wallace O. Lee.

Committee Aids Named

Mr. Gregg, association president, is an ex-officio member of the general committee, chaired by Mr. Lee, assisted by Mrs. William H. Hill, Muncie; Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. York, Mr. Mendenhall, Mr. Metzger, Commander Hessler, Senator John Bright Webb and James L. Beatty, fair manager.

Mr. Lee and Mrs. Beatty are on the committee for purses. Mr. Metzger is chairman of the program committee, composed of Russell S. Williams, Adm. Gen. Elmer Straub, William H. Wenner and J. R. McNutt.

Mrs. A. C. Thompson, Elmhurst, Ill., undoubtedly holds the record of being the Indiana show's veteran exhibitor. She has shown her hackney and harness ponies here for more than 10 years, and her turnout always draws a hand. Her tandems and equipment always are gleaming, and she herself wears a different costume at each event. She chooses ensembles that create a striking effect.

Others from Distance
Miss Audrey Thomas, Providence, R. I., who has come several seasons to show her prize horses, is young, attractive and extremely feminine looking in spite of the severely tailored habits. Miss Thomas and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cassell, have made reservations to stay at the Marriott Hotel during fair week.

Miss Mary Fisher, who rides the Dixiana Farms' blue ribbon winners, is another figure popular at the last few fair shows. She is tall and blonde, and rides as one born in the saddle.

Miss Sally Jones, Granville, O., another expert woman rider, contrasts sharply in appearance with Miss Thomas and Miss Fisher. She wears rough tweeds, which hang loosely over her broad shoulders, and she walks with a masculine swing. She outclassed all the entries—men and women—in the jumping events at this year's Arlington show at R. H. Brown Stables.

The Highland Golf and Country Club dance committee is trusting that the "knock-knocks" haven't driven its members to distraction. On the envelopes of announcements for its dinner dance Saturday night, a hand is sketched with "Knock-Knock! Who's There? Rainsin! Rainsin! Who?"

Inside is a red, white and blue sketch of two figures holding a modernistic design of the clubhouse. Underneath: "Rainsin! a Crowd for Highland's Labor Day Dinner Dance, Sept. 5. They'll be rainsin' the roof."

Miss Helen Hick, Samuel Downing Set Nuptial Date
Mr. and Mrs. Clark B. Hick, 2949 Princeton-pl., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Maurine Hick, to Samuel Walker Downing, son of Mr. and William C. Downing.

The wedding is to take place Oct. 17 in the Capitol Methodist Church.

Miss Hick is a graduate of Butler University, where she was a member of Delta Gamma Sorority. Mr. Downing is a graduate of Yale University.

She spent the earlier part of the summer studying advanced education at Harvard University.
