

GEISKING TELLS PART IN CRIME, POLICE REPORT

Alleged Brady Henchman Returned From Kentucky on Murder Count.

Charles Geisking, West Side police character indicted for murder in connection with the slaying last April of Police Sergeant Richard Rivers, today gave police, they claimed, a detailed statement of his connection with the so-called Brady gang and crimes attributed to it.

Detectives claimed a statement from Geisking, who was arrested at Henderson, Ky., Saturday, outlining his activities since the alleged shooting of Sgt. Rivers and also admitting participation in a jewel robbery in Lima, O., and three recent holdups in Richmond, Ind.

Sgt. Rivers was shot in April during a gun battle at the home of Dr. E. E. Rose, 2153 Barth-av. Geisking was not present at the office of Dr. Rose when the policeman was shot, officers said, but nevertheless is charged with murder.

The gang had gone to Dr. Rose to obtain medical treatment for Geisking, who was wounded in the leg during a gun battle following a $65,000 jewelry store robbery in Lima, several months ago, local officials claimed. Dr. Rose administered treatment and then notified police, who waited at the physician's office for the gunmen to return, they said.

Brady, James Dolhovey and Clarence Lee Shaffer Jr., other alleged members of the gang, returned later in the evening, police charged, in an effort to persuade Dr. Rose to accompany them to Geisking's hideout to administer further treatment. The gun battle followed and the gunmen escaped.

Brady and Dolhovey were captured in Chicago and Shaffer was arrested at his home west of Indianapolis.

Geisking is said to have told police that he hid in Indianapolis, in vacant houses and barns for three weeks after the Rivers shooting.

Detectives said Geisking described the removal of the bullet which had pierced his leg during the Lima robbery and for treatment of which he had gone to Dr. Rose. Using a quart of whisky as an anesthetic, the crude operation was performed with a razor blade and a pair of pliers, Geisking is said to have told police.

In the event he is not convicted in Marion County, Geisking probably will be turned over to Ohio police for trial in connection with the Lima robbery and possibly the murder of a grocery clerk in Greenville, O., whom Brady is alleged to have admitted shooting during a holdup, authorities here said.

$589,774 PAID TEACHERS WHO HAVE RETIRED

Disability Benefits Total $72,461 for Last Year, Board Reports.

A total of $589,774.54 was paid Indiana teachers in retirement annuities and $72,461.74 in disability benefits for the year ending June 30, the State Teachers' Retirement Fund announced today.

O. W. Nicely, president of the fund board, reported cash in securities and real estate amounted to $17,099,928.50 and an active membership of 20,387 teachers.

The pension list was increased 250 over last year, and 1263 teachers withdrew from the fund due to leaving the profession. Eighty-five members died.

The annual report, which is to be sent to the printer soon, shows that $3,395,791.82 tied up in the defaulted bond issues on April 26, 1934, was reduced to $401,976.52 by June 30.

When the present administrators of the fund came into office in 1934 the fund had $120,000 tied up in

7 PARTIES TO GET PLACES ON BALLOTS

Space for seven state and seven national party tickets will be provided on the Indiana ballots for the November elections, Parke Beadle, clerk of the State Board of Election Commissioners, said today.

Three sets of 2,250,000 ballots will be necessary for the November voting, Mr. Beadle estimated. One set is for the presidential ballot, another for the state tickets and the third for the constitutional amendment. The amendment provides that any "able bodied male person" over a specified age is eligible for enlistment in the state militia. The present law provides that only white males may be guardsmen.

The number of absentee voter ballots needed must be certified to the Election Commission not less than 20 days before Nov. 3.
