BROWDER HELD IN TERRE HAUTE JAIL TO PREVENT SPEECH

Communist Candidate for President Is Held 'for Investigation.'

FOUR OTHERS ARRESTED
'We Do Not Want Radicals Stopping Here,' Says Police Chief.

BY ALLEN DIBBLE
United Press Staff Correspondent
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 30.—Police held Earl Browder, Communist Party candidate for President, and four companions in jail today and announced no Communist would be allowed to make a campaign speech in this industrial center.

Mayor Samuel O. Beecher asserted: "We are not going to allow communism to be established in Terre Haute. Both of our presidential candidates—Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Landon—recognize communism as a menace to this nation."

"Therefore communistic speakers are not welcome in Terre Haute," Mr. Browder, Seymour Waldman and Waldo Frank, all of New York City, were taken into custody as they stepped off a Chicago & Eastern Illinois train at the depot.

Held 'for Investigation'
Charles Stadfeld, Indianapolis state secretary of the Communist Party, and Andrew Ryan, also of Indianapolis, remained on the train for almost three hours while police waited. They were arrested when they left the railroad car.

Police Chief James C. Yates said all were held on vagrancy charges and "for investigation."

Chief Yates said he would keep the Communist presidential candidate in jail until tomorrow night. Mr. Browder was scheduled to make an address here tonight.

Action of the Mayor and police chief was endorsed by L. H. Quinn, secretary of the Terre Haute Merchants Association, who led a fight against "radical elements" during the Terre Haute general strike in July last year.

"The Association will not tolerate the presence of agitators. We will do all in our power to prevent Browder from speaking here," Quinn said.

"I told Browder I wanted him to stay out of Terre Haute and he defied my orders," the police chief said.

"We do not want radicals stopping here. We've already had our share of labor troubles from such agitators," he added.

Threaten Court Action
Communist Party officials yesterday threatened to institute court proceedings when President Ralph N. Tiley of Indiana State Teachers College refused them use of the school's auditorium, after the board of trustees had granted a temporary permit.

Dr. Tiley explained retraction of the invitation by saying that a school function had been scheduled for tonight.

Mr. Browder termed his detention a "complete suspension of civil rights," but was confident it would increase his ballot strength in the November election.

"It is a plain, simple case," he said in a statement issued from his jail cell. "The police arrested a party when it arrived in town, just because the chief of police didn't like that party."

"Our arrest is a complete suspension of civil rights in any ordinary time, but it is much worse coming during a political campaign, arresting a candidate for President."

"It is one of the many signs of the beginning of Hitlerism in America. I think that the action of the chief of police will make hundreds realize the importance of what I have been saying. In staying in jail I believe it will do more good than if I had made a speech."

Governor Without Authority to Act, He Says When Informed of Case.

WRONG, TOWNSEND VIEW
Detention Is Termed 'Silly' by Senator Minton in Washington.

While Gov. McNutt today said that he had "no authority" to order the release of Earl Browder, Communist presidential candidate arrested in Terre Haute, Lieut. Gov. M. Clifford Townsend, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, said that "if Browder was arrested to prevent his speaking, it's wrong."

Senator Sherman Minton, in Washington, termed the Terre Haute action "silly."

Raymond Springer, Republican gubernatorial nominee, could not be reached early today for comment, and the Republican Central Committee declined to issue a statement.

Gov. McNutt said: "If Browder and his companions were arrested for a crime, there's nothing I can do."

When told that the men apparently had not been arrested for any crime, but on a charge of "investigation," he said: "They will have to appeal to the courts."

Asked what he thought of the arrest if it had been merely to prevent their speaking tonight he said: "Until I know the facts of the case I can not comment."

The Governor received a telegram from Mr. Browder and Charles Stadfeld, Communist Party state chairman, asking him to intervene. The telegram said: "Our rights are threatened in Terre Haute. Such (Turn to Page Three)

COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE OPENS NOV. 6

The Indianapolis Community Fund is to open its seventeenth annual campaign Nov. 6, and it will continue through Nov. 18, Harold B. West, general chairman, announced today. The 1936 goal has not been set, he said.

The annual welfare campaign usually starts late in October, but leaders decided to wait this year, as they did in 1932, until after the presidential election.

Pre-campaign meetings are under way in some of the soliciting divisions and volunteers are enlisting each day. The women's speakers bureau, directed by Mrs. Brandt C. Downey, and the men's speakers bureau, headed by T. M. Overley, have begun work. Seventy-five speakers have enlisted in the men's bureau and more than 100 are working through the women's bureau.

The goal last year was $724,360, and $693,000 was raised, an increase of $19,000 over 1934.

GOVERNMENT LOSES ROUND IN TAX SUIT

The Federal government today lost the first round of a legal fight in which Kingan & Co., Indianapolis packing firm, sought to avoid payment of more than $900,000 in "windfall taxes."

At a hearing in Federal Court this morning, Judge Robert C. Baltzell denied a motion by Treasury Department attorneys to dismiss a suit filed by the packing firm to enjoin payment of the tax, and announced that a hearing on the injunction suit would be held late in October.

Attacks Foes for Raising Communism Question in Opening Drive.

TEXT OF SPEECH, PAGE 4; EDITORIAL, PAGE 14

By United Press
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt was on the political firing line today, ready to follow up his campaign opening speech before the Democratic state convention here last night, with another major address in Pittsburgh tomorrow night.

In the roaring atmosphere of a political convention, and in a twisted, bare-knuckled style, the President began his personal campaign for re-election with an attack on those of his enemies who call him a Communist or insist that he willingly receives the support of Communists.

Those who cry Communist at him are dragging a red herring across the trail and are promoting a false issue, he said.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt can not avoid Communist support as long as he continues his present policies, William Hard, radio commentator for the Republican National Committee, said last night.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—John G. Winant, who resigned Monday as chairman of the Social Security Board, joined Administration forces today in a vigorous campaign defending the Social Security Act.

Mr. Winant last night assailed Gov. Alfred M. Landon's attack on the act as a "call to retreat."

PAPAL SECRETARY TO VISIT IN U. S.

By United Press
VATICAN CITY, Sept. 30.—Cardinal Pacelli, Papal secretary of state, will sail for the United States in the liner Conte di Savoia tomorrow, it was understood today.

The Cardinal held a long conference with Pope Pius at Castel Gandolfo yesterday.

It was said that the Cardinal would examine "unofficially" the situation of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

News of his visit caused speculation as to whether he would investigate the political activities of the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Michigan's radio priest.

His visit will be the first of a Papal Secretary of State to the United States.

THREE BANDITS GRAB $35,000 JEWELS HERE

Gunmen Abduct Truckman Near Union Station and Seize Gems, He Says.

TRIO MENACES VICTIM
Warn Him Not to Summon Police After Looting Trunk of Stones.

Jewelry valued at $35,000 was taken by three bandits who held up and commandeered a baggage truck driver at Union Station and took a salesman's case containing the gems, city police were told today.

County and state authorities joined in the hunt for the reported bandit trio, said by the driver to have abducted him.

The jewels, consigned to Jack Teichlauf, New York City, representative for S. Nathan & Co., jewelry dealers, included diamonds, pearls, sapphires and other precious and semi-precious stones, according to Mr. Teichlauf. The shipment is covered by insurance, he said.

Truck Commandeer
Kenneth Grant, 2910 Martindale, driver for the Frank Bird Transfer Co., told police that as he drove away from the Union Station at 1 a. m., a black sedan containing three men pulled up in front of his truck. Two men, carrying revolvers, climbed on his truck cab, Grant said. The third stayed in the sedan.

Grant said he was forced to sit between the two men while one of them drove the truck. The third man followed in the sedan. At Thompson-st and S. Belmont-av, the bandits stopped the truck and singled out the trunk owned by Mr. Teichlauf from three others loaded on the truck, Grant said. They broke it open and removed the sample case containing the jewels, he said. None of Teichlauf's personal belongings were touched, the salesman said.

After telling Grant to "be sure to take a long time to get back to town or we'll come back and kill you," the bandits threw away the truck's ignition key and drove south on Belmont-av toward State Road 37 in the sedan, the driver told police.

The truck driver said he walked more than a mile before finding a telephone to call the sheriff's office. He said he thought the bandits' car bore New Jersey license plates.

GOLD BILLS PASSED BY FRENCH SENATE

By United Press
PARIS, Sept. 30.—The Senate approved the government's project for devaluation of the franc today, 137 to 127.

The measure already has been passed by the Chamber of Deputies. The Senate, however, altered social aspects of the bill, such as those affecting the status of workers, and the measure must be returned to the Chamber for its acceptance before the government can issue its decree revaluing the franc.

Boxer Louis Forgets His F. D. R. Talk

By United Press
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 30.—A big crowd so embarrassed pugilist Joe Louis that he forgot to endorse President Roosevelt last night, although he had come by airplane from Detroit for that purpose.

Joe became so flustered during his first attempt at a political speech that he even forgot where he was.

"Although I have trained in New Jersey," he said, "this is the first time I have ever been in Newark—I mean Paterson."

Joe forgot to mention the President and he said nothing about the Democratic Party. There had been a report that Jesse Owens, the Negro sprinter, would be present, too, but he sent word he was a Republican and was for Gov. Landon.

CENTER'S RATE FIXED AT $3.01

Township's Levy Increased 23 Cents Despite Cuts in Requests.

The 1937 tax rate for Indianapolis residents living in Center Township was fixed at $3.01 by the Marion County Tax Adjustment Board today.

Despite a reduction of more than 20 cents in levies asked by the various taxing units, the 1937 rate is 23 cents higher than the present levy of $2.78.

The 1937 rates are:
Marion County ... $0.44
Civil City ... 1.14
School City ... 1.10
Center Township18
State15
Total ... $3.01

Chamber of Commerce officials expressed disappointment in failure of the board to make additional cuts in the rates and indicated they would carry their fight to the State Tax Board.

Their statement said: "The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce will (Turn to Page Three)

URGES REPEAL OF EXCESS PROFIT TAX

The repeal of the undistributed profits tax because it is "short-sighted and destructive of the very things that make for industrial and commercial development" was advocated before National Tax Association members today by Godfrey N. Nelson, New York Times.

"The surtax upon undistributed profits is a repudiation of a policy which has been employed unintermittently throughout the entire commercial history of the country: The privilege of investing corporate earnings for current needs and expansion," Mr. Nelson said.

The twenty-ninth annual convention of the National Tax Association in the Claypool Hotel is to close tomorrow.

Mr. Nelson said the corporate surplus tax "deters business progress and discourages provision for the lean years."

In advocating its repeal, Mr. Nelson suggested broadening the base of the income tax in case it became necessary to enact a new tax measure for revenue.

Arthur H. Kent, Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue, attacked holding companies as "being prejudicial to efficient revenue administration."

WOMAN SEEKS TO JOIN RACE AROUND GLOBE

Dorothy Kilgallen Tries to Book Air Passage at Last Minute.

DASH STARTS TONIGHT
Ekins and Kieran Ready to Depart From Lakehurst Aboard Hindenburg.

(Photo, Page 3.)

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The race of two newspaper men by airplane around the world, starting tonight, may become a three-way contest with a woman reporter as the third entry.

The New York Evening Journal was attempting today to arrange for Dorothy Kilgallen to vie with H. R. Ekins of The Indianapolis Times and other Scripps-Howard newspaper men and Leo Kieran of the North American Newspaper Alliance in their efforts to set a new mark for a round-the-world trip, using only established modes of travel.

The Journal said it expected to know late today whether it would be able to arrange for Miss Kilgallen's passage.

Ekins and Kieran have arranged their schedules so that their 20,000-mile trips will end with a flight across the Pacific in the Pan-American Airways "China Clipper," leaving Manila for San Francisco Oct. 16. They expect to be back in New York 20 days after their departure.

Broadcast Tonight
Ekins and Kieran will broadcast today over an NBC red network from 5:55 to 6:35 p. m. (Indianapolis time). Last night they broadcast over the Columbia network and answered questions about their proposed flights.

Miss Kilgallen did not enter the race until last night, so she will start off around the world on only 24 hours today. Arrangements can be made for her to start the try tonight.

Ekins will fly to the Far East, using regular commercial airlines; Kieran, according to the announcement of his plans, will use train, steamship and plane in his journey toward Manila. Details of Miss Kilgallen's try have not been announced.

Ekins, a former war correspondent for the United Press, was quietly confident today as he completed preparations for his flying dash of almost 20,000 miles. Tall, lean, blue-eyed, alert, he had smiled delightedly when he learned that Kieran and probably Miss Kilgallen would seek records.

Welcomes Rivals
"That's fine," he said. "It should be very pleasant."

Ekins will be checked out of the New York World-Telegram building at 125 Barclay-st this evening by William R. Enyart, chairman of the Contest Board of the National Aeronautical Association. Mr. Enyart, with his official observers, will accompany The Indianapolis Times correspondent to Lakehurst in order to check his departure from the airport. Arrangements have been made by which N. A. A. officials will record Ekins' official time at various points along his route over Europe, Asia, and homeward across the United States to Lakehurst and the World-Telegram building.

The Hindenburg is set to sail at 9:30 p. m. (Indianapolis time). Well before that hour Mr. Ekins will board one of the new 21-place Douglas "flagships" of the American Airlines for the short run to Lakehurst.

GAME BEGINS ON DAMP DIAMOND; RAIN PROBABLE

Carl Hubbell and Red Ruffing Pitchers in Contest; McCarthy Crew Goes Down in Order in First.

Yankees 0 0
Giants 0 0

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The battle for the world's baseball championship opened today between New York's two champions—the thundering Yankees and the amazing Giants—with a disappointing crowd of 45,000 spectators banded in the big oval on the banks of the Harlem River.

Weather conditions conspired to spoil the opening skirmish. It was a chilly, gray day, with a threat of rain in the air. The field was hardly the proper setting for the struggle—Carl Hubbell's attempt to silence baseball's Big Berthas with his lean, limber left arm.

Opposing Hubbell, winner of 16 straight and 26 triumphs during the season, was Charlie (Red) Ruffing, 210-pound right-hander who won 20 games for the Yanks.

The weather scared away several thousand and only half of the 20,000 unreserved seats in left and right field were sold as Hubbell and Ruffing started warming up.

The umpires gathered behind the home plate with Manager Joe McCarthy and Coach Earl Combs of the Yankees and Manager Bill Terry and Capt. Travis Jackson of the Giants to discuss ground rules.

The lineup follows:
YANKS: Crosetti, ss; Ruffing, p; Di Maggio, cf; Gehrig, 1b; Puckett, c; Selkirk, rf; Powell, lf; Lazzeri, 3b; Hubbell, p.
GIANTS: Moore, cf; Bartell, ss; Terry, 1b; Ott, rf; Egan, c; Manassa, c; Whitehead, 3b; Jackson, 2b; Hubbell, p.

Umpires—Firman (National), plate; Geisel (American), first; Magerkurth (National), second; Summers (American), third.

The play by play description:
First Inning
YANKS—Jackson threw out Crosetti. Ruffing grounded out to Terry. It was a weak grounder which bounded down the first base line. Di Maggio hit the first pitch and bounced an easy grounder to Bartell, who threw him out. NO RUNS. NO HITS. NO ERRORS.

Despite the fact that Hubbell allowed Crosetti to work the count to three and two he showed good control. He pitched only eleven balls.

GIANTS—Moore flied to Powell, who barely had to move out of his tracks to make the catch. Bartell lined to Powell in left, who made an easy catch of a hard hit ball. Terry singled past Crosetti, who made a diving attempt to get the ball. Ott walked. Rippe popped to Crosetti. NO RUNS. ONE HIT. NO ERRORS.

After getting the first two men out easily, Ruffing momentarily lost control and got himself into a tight spot, but extricated himself by forcing Rippe to end the inning with a weak pop fly.

Second Inning
YANKS—Gehrig grounded out, Terry to Hubbell, who covered first. Dickey rolled out, Whitehead to Terry. A slight drizzle started as Powell came to bat. Powell singled sharply over Bartell's head. Lazzeri was called out on strikes. NO RUNS. ONE HIT. NO ERRORS.

A fine mist started during this half inning. Hubbell whipped over his famous screwball to get Lazzeri. Tony looked at it, cocked his head and walked to his position without even registering a kick.
