

LANDON FARM POLICY VAGUE, SPEAKER SAYS

His Plan Would Penalize Thrifty Farmer, Rep. Jones Charges.

Times Special
LEBANON, Ind., Sept. 30.—Farm policies of Gov. Alfred M. Landon, as indicated in his Des Moines speech, are "ambiguous, vague and looking in all directions at the same time," Rep. Marvin Jones (D-Texas), House Agriculture Committee chairman, declared in a speech here last night.

"For example," he told a Democratic gathering, "Gov. Landon promises to make payments to surplus-producing farmers until world conditions are normal. He names four groups of surplus producers—wheat, cotton, tobacco and hogs. How about other producers?"

"Gov. Landon says, 'where the farmer is unable to afford proper conservation practices, cash payments should be made for actual performance.' What does he mean by that? The answer is obvious that he would penalize the thrifty farmer, who would receive no financial aid from the government for adopting sound conservation measures."

Charges Republicans Planning Sales Tax

Times Special

LA PORTE, Ind., Sept. 30.—The Republican Party was charged with preparing to saddle a sales tax on consumers of Indiana by M. Clifford Townsend, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, in an address here last night.

"It will be bad news for home owners and workers of Indiana," said Mr. Townsend, "if the men and the support behind the Republican candidate ever have their way and pass a sales tax for Indiana. My opponent may even think he successfully can deny his inclinations toward a sales tax, but his party platform and his party's bosses speak louder than he does. They want and promised other taxes and there is no other tax they could invent."

Housecleaning in Government Urged

A "housecleaning in government" in November was urged today by Mrs. Florence K. Thacker, member of the executive committee of the Republican Building Fund and Professional Women of Marion County. "Women of the country know more about running the homes than the swivel chair theorists in Washington," she said. "We believe the place for professors is in the school and not in the legislative halls. Their job is to teach tried and proved American principles, and not alien facts and fancies."

Mrs. Thacker spoke yesterday before the Wayne Township Women's Republican Club at 2621 W. Washington-st.
