

SCHOOLS PLAN OBSERVANCE OF SPECIAL WEEK

Parents Are Invited to Be Guests of Children Nov. 9 to 15.

Plans for observance of American Education Week, Nov. 9 to 15, by Indianapolis public schools, in keeping with the nation-wide program sponsored jointly by the National Education Association, the American Legion and the United States Office of Education, were announced today by school officials.

Fathers and mothers throughout the city are to be invited to be guests of their children and teachers during the week. Exhibits of pupils' work are to be on display, and pupils are to stage pageants interpreting the work done in classrooms.

"American Education Week is a time set aside for the thoughtful study of the needs, achievements and aims of our public schools," Carl Wilde, School Board president, said today. "Parents and patrons are welcome to the school at all times, but the pupils, teachers and school commissioners invite them especially to visit the schools during American Education Week." Mr. Wilde said.

To Have Open House

Each city school is to have an "open house" evening program. Ministers and pastors are to call attention to the significance of the observance; many of them are to deliver sermons on some aspect of the school, home and church relationship, school officials said.

One of the week's highlights is to be the dedication of the new James E. Roberts School for Handicapped Children, 10th and Oriental, Thursday night, Nov. 12. Open house is to be held at the new building the preceding Monday, the Tuesday and Wednesday nights from 7 until 9.

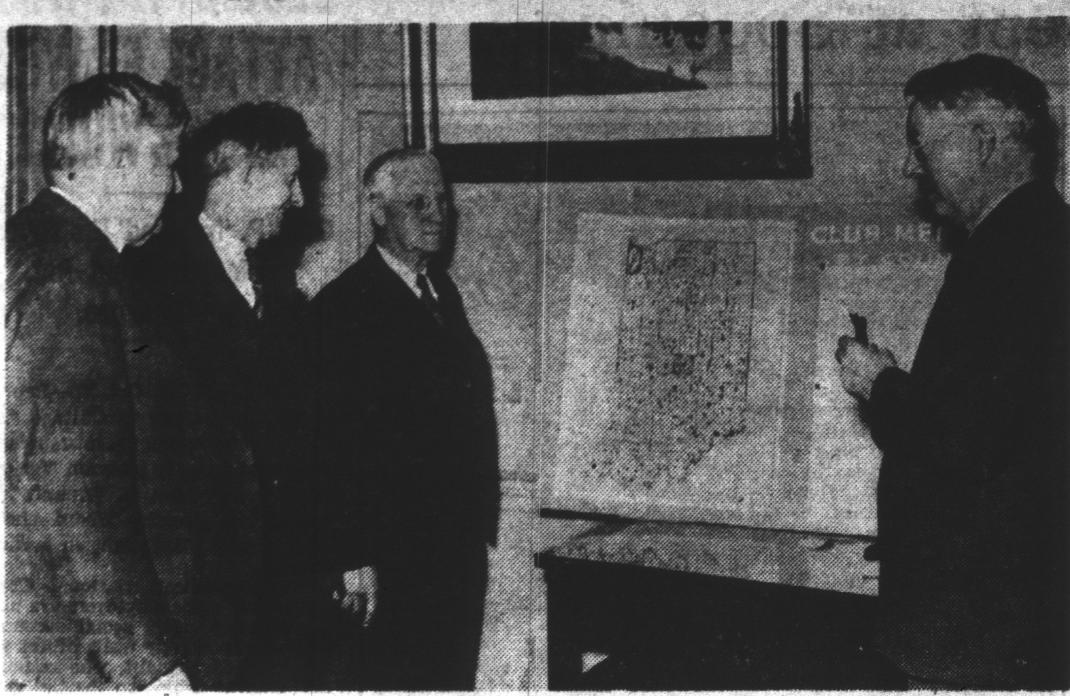

Co-operating with the schools in the local program are the Council of Parents and Teachers, the American Legion, the Indianapolis Ministerial Association, Indianapolis Federation of Public School Teachers, the Retail Merchants' Association, the Free Kindergarten Society and the Children's Museum.

K. V. Ammerman, Broad Ripple High School principal, is chairman of the Indianapolis White River Committee of the Federation of Indianapolis Public School Teachers. Members of the committee are Miss June Fiel, School 54; Miss Ruth Esther Amos, School 12; Mrs. Vivian Rankin, principal, School 82; Charles Youngman, School 8, and Herman M. Riley, assistant principal, School 64. Wilbur S. Barnhart, Federation president, is an ex-officio member.

PLEDGES SUPPORT TO STRIP FORESTS

The Marion County Fish and Game Association had pledged support today to the Isaac Walton League Move to establish strip forests along White River and offered 20 speakers to describe the plan to civic organizations.

The pledge was made last night at a joint meeting of the groups in the Hoosier Athletic Club.

G. O. P. LEGAL ADVISORY GROUP MEETS

Getting ready for next Tuesday's election, the Republican legal advisory committee today set up headquarters in the Claypool Hotel. Four G. O. P. leaders who attended were (left to right)—Louis E. Eubank, Supreme Court Judge; Albert Ward, former United States District Attorney and committee chairman; Supreme Court Judge Julian C. Travis, and Homer Elliott, former United States district attorney and Twelfth District congressional candidate. The committee is to be in headquarters all day election day to answer questions about voting legality from members of Indiana Landon-Knox clubs, who are to form vigilante groups to serve at the polls, and others.

VOTERS CHECK TO BE REPORTED

Democratic Precinct Workers to Present Findings to Spencer.

Democratic precinct workers, who are checking county voters' registration books for alleged irregularities, are to make a complete report of their findings to Prosecutor Herbert M. Spencer tonight.

Mr. Spencer made this announcement yesterday after it was revealed that both Democrats and Republicans were attempting to find the cause of a reported discrepancy between their poll book figures, which list approximately 250,000 voters and the registration total of 287,242 persons. The registration figure was announced by County Clerk Glenn B. Ralston.

Walter C. Boettcher and Frederick E. Schortemeyer, Democratic and Marion county chairmen, both said they feel the registration total is too high.

Allowances, however, were made by both chairmen for duplications of registration and those who have died or moved away.

Mr. Boettcher said he had received information that "many persons are registered from vacant lots and business establishments."

Mr. Schortemeyer said the Republican county committee desired to know the reason for the "wide difference" between the poll and registration books.

County Clerk Ralston said the registration books had not been checked because of lack of time. He said there was a possibility of clerical errors in registration and duplication of registrations.

BENEFIT PARTY ANNOUNCED

A bingo party is to be given in Knights of Columbus Hall at 8:15 p. m. today for the benefit of St. Bridget's Church.

American Navy Opens Doors to Visitors Today

(Editorial, Page 12)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. — The American Navy today opened its doors and lowered its gangplanks in all ports where naval ships are stationed or wherever naval establishments are maintained to show the American people something of what they get for the $500,000,000 spent annually on the Navy.

This is "Navy Day," the anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, who is popularly considered the "Father" of the modern American Navy. For the fifteenth consecutive year the Navy held "open house" for American citizens.

Observance of Navy Day this year was given special significance because of unsettled conditions in other parts of the world; of the imminent lapse of the Washington and London naval treaties and the resumption of capital ship building by all the major naval powers of the world. The United States expects to lay the keels of two new battleships early next year, and it is anticipated that Great Britain and Japan will do likewise.

Allowances, however, were made by both chairmen for duplications of registration and those who have died or moved away.

NOMINEE FAVERS LOW UTILITY RATES, CLAIM

M. Clifford Townsend, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, favors low utility rates and "public ownership of utilities also where communities want this," he declared in a letter to the Indianapolis Municipal League, Inc.

In making public the Townsend letter today, the league said it had received no statement from Raymond S. Springer in reply to its requests to the two gubernatorial candidates to state their positions on these questions.

Mr. Townsend's reply was given, in part, as follows:

"I shall pursue the course that has been followed by this Administration in calling on public utilities to show cause why rates should not be lowered. I am very much in favor of public ownership of public utilities where communities want this."
