

CHURCH SEEKS APPROVAL FOR NEW BUILDING

Permit for Frame Structure
Is Studied by City
Plan Board.

The City Plan Commission today was studying a petition by Bethel Four Square Church representatives for permission to construct a frame building at Woodlawn and Wright-ave. Val B. McLeay, commission secretary, announced.

Former consideration of the request is to be made at the Commission's meeting Monday afternoon. Mr. McLeay said: "The building is to be used for church services."

Action on eight other petitions also is to be taken Monday. The petitioners and requests are:

Asks Funeral Home Permit
Charles H. Leap, 1739 W. Washington-st, operate a funeral home in the existing house; Carl Rost, 47th-st and Boulevard-pl, erect a double house; George O. Rafer, convert existing structures in the rear of 2329-33 N. Illinois-st into a one unit commercial garage; Ariana H. Bennett, erect a gasoline filling station at 11th and Delaware-sts; National Toddle House Corp., erect a restaurant building at 38th and Stuckie-sts; Mae Lannon, convert basement into beauty parlor at 1236 N. 30th; Eli Lilly & Co., install two alcohol tanks at 650 S. Delaware-st, and William A. and Lucy Elbrecht, use of structure at 1901 S. Talbot-st as a grocery.

'VOTE OF CONFIDENCE,' GOVERNOR DECLARES

Tuesday's balloting was a "vote of confidence," Gov. McNutt told state employees in an address yesterday at the formal opening of the State Office Building, 141 S. Meridian-st.

"It was proof of the fact that the people of Indiana appreciate honest, efficient and devoted service," the Governor said.

The new building houses departments of public welfare, unemployment relief and compensation, gross income tax, store licenses and used motor vehicle dealers' licenses.

BROTHER OF VICTIM HELD IN POISONING

ELKHART, Ind., Nov. 5.—Lester Bedford Slack, 34, was questioned by State Police in Elkhart in connection with the death of his brother, Elgy Slack, 26, a die-caster. Physicians said poison caused his death.

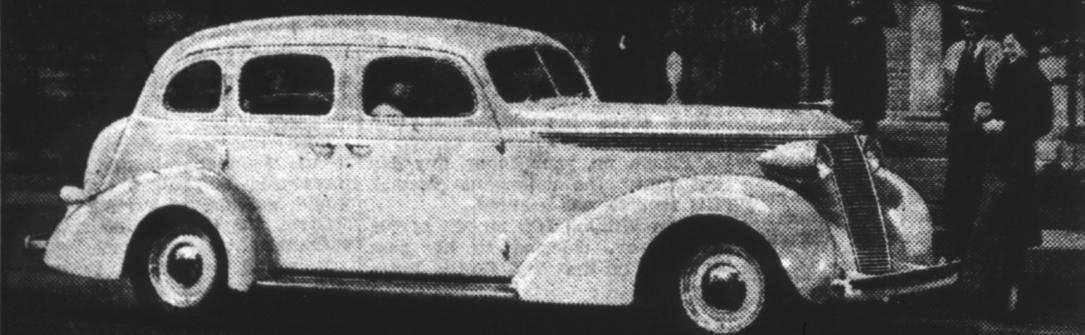

Police said the brother had admitted placing a foreign substance in a bottle of wine which Elgy drank.

HOME-COMING IS SET
The Castleton Methodist Church is to hold its annual home-coming Sunday with Sunday school and church services at 9:30 a. m. The Rev. R. A. Shumaker, pastor, is to speak. The Rev. Floyd Cook is guest speaker. A basket dinner follows the services.
