

123 CITIZENSHIP AWARDS ISSUED HERE THIS YEAR

German Immigrants Lead List of New Americans, Bureau Reports.

A total of 123 persons were granted American citizenship in 1936 through the United States Immigration and Naturalization bureau here, a report showed today.

Two examinations were conducted in Indianapolis by W. A. Kiefer, Cincinnati, assistant director of immigration and naturalization.

Immigrants from Germany led the list with a total of 44 persons receiving their final papers during 1936. Four persons were denied citizenship.

Occupationally, house wives were most numerous with 38. The most noticeable diversification of employment was found among the German immigrants. Occupations ranged from bartenders to photo-engineers. Six former Italians gave their occupations as terrace floor workers. A physiotherapy student and a rabbi also received citizenship.

Other nationalities shown in the report included British, Slovakian,

Party Cost Only Mere $50,000

Fifty thousand dollars was what friends said Mrs. Evalyn McLean, colorful Washington social leader, paid for the New Year's ball in her palatial Washington residence, Friendship, to which she invited 500 guests. Mrs. McLean, owner of the $2,000,000 ill-omened Hope Diamond, said the affair was "just an early birthday party" for her eldest son, John, who'll be 21 at the end of January. Mrs. McLean is pictured, right, with her son, John, and daughter, Evalyn, 16, as they visited a New York night club recently. Mrs. McLean left society aghast when she appeared wearing the famous diamond.

PUBLIC DUTIES TO BE ASSUMED AT CEREMONIES

Officials of County and State Are to Begin Terms Today.

Public duties will be assumed and continued today when elected and appointed officials take oaths of office. Most state, county and city offices are closed for the week-end.

Onor S. Jackson, Democratic State Committee chairman, is to be sworn in as attorney general by John B. Hinchman, his former law partner. Mr. Hinchman is to become Hancock Circuit Court judge tomorrow.

Justices Walter E. Treanor and Curtis W. Roll of the Indiana Supreme Court are to give the oaths of office to each other. Miss Emma May, Supreme and Appellate Courts' reporter, also is to be sworn in.

Judge to Officiate

Criminal Court Judge Frank P. Baker, Circuit Judge Earl Cox and Superior Judge L. Ert Slack are to officiate at swearing in ceremonies of county officials.

Officials elected Nov. 3 whose terms begin today are Prosecutor Herbert M. Spencer, Sheriff Otto Ray, County Commissioner Dow Vorhies, County Surveyor Herbert Blomaker and Coroner E. R. Wilson.

Oscar Hegemier, chief deputy prosecutor and 25 other deputies are to be sworn in with Mr. Spencer. Thirty-seven deputy sheriffs are to take oaths with Mr. Ray. Municipal Court Judge Dewey Meyers accepted an invitation to administer the oath to Mr. Ray.

Two other county officials re-elected Nov. 3 will not start their new terms until Jan. 1, 1938. They are Frank McKinney, treasurer and John Newhouse, commissioner.

CIVIC LEADER DEAD

Times Special

HUNTINGTON, Jan. 1.—Funeral arrangements were being completed here today for John P. Kenower, business and civic leader, who died yesterday.

He was 75, and had been in business here 53 years. He was president of the John Kenower & Son Lumber Co., and former county Republican chairman.

LIQUOR STORE HELD UP

An unidentified bandit held up a liquor store at 839 Fort Wayne-av and escaped with an undetermined amount of money last night, Lewis Bomush, 3726 N. Meridian-st, proprietor, reported to police.
