

MANY LEAVE CITY FOR SCHOOLS AND WINTER VACATIONS

Resorts in South and West Lure Residents; Collegians End Holidays

Christmas Season Visitors Bidding Goodbye to Hosts; Florida Destination of Numerous Travelers; Others Return Here as Classes Reopen.

By BEATRICE BURGAN
Society Editor

COLLEGE students are leaving their homes to return to classes. Holiday visitors are bidding their hosts goodbye. Others are preparing to head South or West for winter vacations.

When Miss Ruth White, Los Angeles, ended her holiday visit here her mother, Mrs. Jacob White, accompanied her daughter home by motor.

John Masters, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Masters, had a dinner party at his home for vacationing college friends before he and William Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, boarded the train for Middletown, Conn. There they are to continue studies at the Connecticut Wesleyan College. Shubrick Kothé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kothé, took the same train Saturday on his way back to Harvard University.

Mrs. Harry V. Wade's sister, Miss Carol Lester, Albany, N. Y., ended her visit here Saturday and returned to classes at the University of Wisconsin.

Arrange Miami Visits

Mrs. Jeremiah Cadick is leaving soon for Miami to vacation with Mrs. William Macomber, Kendallville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elder Adams, Mrs. Macomber's parents, also are to visit there.

In a few weeks Mrs. Earl Cox will go to Los Angeles to visit Mrs. J. A. Benell, formerly of Indianapolis, and other friends. She will see Mrs. A. W. Early, who is with her daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rockwood and their son returned from New Orleans and Havana in time for their children, Clyde and Charles, to re-enter school this week.

Thomas Binford, Park School pupil, and Virginia Binford, Taylor Hall, will be back in classes this week after a vacation in Arizona with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binford, who are to remain for a longer visit.

Emmy Jean Haerle, daughter of Mrs. Elsa Pantzer Test, ended her holiday at Glen Farms, near Louisville, Ky., in order to be back at Tudor Hall tomorrow. She visited Lolly Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cabot Hickman, who was her campmate at Pinewood, Burt Lake, Mich., last summer.

Tutor Teachers Return

Emmy Jean's cousin Dorothy Pantzer, daughter of Mrs. Oscar Pantzer, is to go to Tampa, Fla., in two weeks to be with her aunt, Mrs. Louis Best. Dorothy is to enter school there.

Many of the Tudor Hall teachers who vacationed away from the city have come back to resume their classes. Miss L. Hilda Stewart, principal, was at Keene, N. H. Miss Ruth Wells took a cruise to Havana and Miss Pauline Wilson was with relatives at Atlanta, Ga. Miss Dora Atkins went to her home at Poultney, Vt., before going to Fall River, Mass. There she attended the wedding of Mrs. Wayne Ritter, formerly Miss Dorothy Merrill, who is to teach at the school until Feb. 1.

Miss Marguerite Slawson, who vacationed at Eau Claire, Wis., and Miss Emily Rood, who was in Oakham, Mass., will be back when classes open tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Treat have taken an apartment at Sarasota, Fla., for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baker are back at Evanston, Ill., after a visit with Mrs. Baker's brother, Laurens Henderson, and Mrs. Henderson.

Club Arranges Fine Arts Fete

The fine arts festival of the Seventh District Federation of Clubs to be held Jan. 12 through 14 at L. S. Ayres & Co., is to open with poetry and music day.

Mrs. Edward Katterhenry, state chairman of poetry for the Indianapolis Federation of Clubs is to speak in the morning and Mrs. Rudolph F. Grosskopf is to talk on "Indiana Composers" in the afternoon.

The Irvington Chorus, of which Miss Grace Gibson is director, is to sing.

"Literature and Drama" is to be the subject for Wednesday. Mrs. Bjorn Winger is to give a book review and the Expression Club members are to present a dramatization of "Solomon's Judgment" in the afternoon. Mrs. Walter E. Jenney is directing the presentation.

Art is the topic for Jan. 14. Gordon Mess is to speak. Music is to be provided by the federation chorus.

Presidents of district clubs and their fine arts exhibit chairmen are to be hostesses. The lectures and the exhibit are open to the public.

July Wedding Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Diggs have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Frances Diggs, to Julius C. Travis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Travis. The couple is to live in Indianapolis.

The marriage took place in July. Mrs. Travis was graduated from Lake Forest Academy and attended Butler University. Both Mr. and Mrs. Travis are students at Indiana University School of Medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Gruner To Make Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gruner are to make their home in Indianapolis. Before her recent marriage, Mrs. Gruner was Miss Loretta Brennan.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. James M. Downey. Miss Mary Jane Menzel, niece of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant and Marion Gruner was best man.

St. Joan of Arc Women to Hold Luncheon Party

The St. Joan of Arc Women's Club is to entertain members of the January-February committee with a covered dish luncheon and white elephant party Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Arrangements were made at a recent meeting to have a dessert-bridge at 1 p. m. Jan. 20 in the school auditorium, followed by a bridge party in the evening.

A Valentine dance is to be held Feb. 6 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. It is to be the last social event before the Lenten season.

Arrangements committee members are Mesdames Fenton Auckley, Michael Carr and Joseph Speaks. The club's meeting time has been changed to the second Wednesday of the month.

Women's Club Head Going to Board Session

Mrs. Frederick G. Balz is to leave Jan. 12 for Washington to attend the annual midwinter meeting of the General Federation of Women's Club board of directors. Mrs. Balz is Indiana Federation president.

The three-day meeting is to open Jan. 13 with Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson presiding.

An organized effort to aid in reducing the maternal death rate in the United States has been announced by Mrs. Clarence Fraim, chairman of the department of public welfare of the General Federation. The nation-wide campaign is to be directed by Mrs. James R. Cain, chairman of the division of child welfare in the public welfare department.

A forest in each of the 48 states, planned, cared for and owned cooperatively by clubwomen and the United States Forest Service, is a conservation project recently announced by the federation through its division of conservation of natural resources, of which Mrs. H. B. Bogert, Akron, Colo., is chairman.

Aftermath Club to Meet
The Aftermath Club is to meet at 2 p. m. Thursday with Mrs. W. P. Hall, 205 E. 34th St. Mrs. Charles E. Smith is to talk on "The Youth Movement of America."

Recent Bride

—Photo by Bretzman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden Menough are at home in Indianapolis. Before her recent marriage Mrs. Menough was Miss Helen Hitch, daughter of C. R. Hitch. Mr. Menough is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Menough, Salem.

Wellesley Students Attend Luncheon

Miss Priscilla Johnson (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bates Johnson, and Miss Clara John Hill, Batesville, are Wellesley College students on vacation. They return to classes Jan. 6.

Meeting to Be Held Jan. 12 for State Assembly Woman's Club

A luncheon Jan. 12 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club is to open a series of activities for the State Assembly Woman's Club during the convening of the state legislature. The branch is to entertain. Mrs. Walter Treanor is local president.

Mrs. Thurman Gottschalk, Berne, is state president of the club, whose membership is composed of wives of the present and former state legislators and state officers.

The women are to hold their first meeting Jan. 13 to elect officers. The nominating committee includes Mrs. William F. Duane, Indianapolis; Mrs. Harry Strickland, Greenfield, and Mrs. Bruce Lane, Bainbridge.

The state club's first luncheon meeting is to be held Jan. 20 at the Claypool Hotel.

Other state officers are Mrs. Ward G. Biddle, Bloomington, first vice president; Mrs. Martin Krueger, Michigan City, second vice president; Mrs. Howland H. Hill, Chicago, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Miss Frances Failing is to talk on her experiences in Spain during the outbreak of the civil war. Miss Failing is a member of the National Association of Women Painters and Sculptors, the Indiana Artists' Club and the Plymouth Art Club of England.

Mrs. Kathryn Turney Garten is to present a program at the club's regular meeting Thursday. Dinner is to be served at 6 p. m.

Women Voters' Chief To Address Sorority

"The League's Legislative Program" is to be the subject of a talk by Mrs. S. N. Campbell, Indiana League of Women Voters' president, at a meeting of the Psi Sorority, Friday afternoon. The meeting is to be held at the Butler University chapter house of Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

A luncheon is to be held at 12:30 p. m. Hostesses are to include Mesdames C. W. Graves, D. O. Taylor, Ira Foxworthy, David McWhir, F. A. Harris and Will Shimer.

Miss Mary Lou Colvin, Butler University senior, is working on arrangements. A special edition of the Ritters' Cramp, a razz sheet, is to be issued at the dance. Newspapers are to be used to decorate the fieldhouse.

Amicitia Club to Give Bridge Tea on Friday

A bridge tea is to be given by the Amicitia Club at 2 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. G. T. Doyal, 1518 Edgemont St.

Mrs. E. P. Brennan is ways and means committee chairman. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Harry W. Bates.

P. O. E. Sisterhood Conducts Meeting

Founders' Day was discussed at a meeting of the Indianapolis Council P. O. E. Sisterhood at 10 a. m. today at Banner-Whitehill Auditorium.

Mrs. E. C. Michaels presided.

BARGAIN PERMANENTS
Crown or single Steam Oil Permanent complete with hair trim.
Shampoo, Set and Single End.
Roberta Beauty Shop
123 Main Ave.
$1

Schedule of Club Dances Is Resumed

Indianapolis Athletic and Columbia Programs Are Arranged:

Both the Indianapolis Athletic and Columbia Clubs are resuming their regular schedules of dinner and supper dancing.

At the I. A. C. members and guests are entertained with supper dancing Friday and Saturday and dinner dancing on Thursday and Sunday in the Lantern Room. Louie Lowe band provides the music.

At the Columbia Club members and their guests may attend dinner dancing on Thursday and Sunday in the dining room. Supper dances are scheduled for Friday in the dining room and Saturday in the ballroom. The Hammond trio plays for dinner and supper dancing every Friday except Sunday in the Cascade Room.

Women of the I. A. C. and their guests are to be entertained at a luncheon party in the Green Room Jan. 11. Mrs. E. W. Berger is chairman.

Committees Arranging Party For St. Francis Hospital Guild

St. Francis Hospital Guild is to sponsor a card party at Ayres' auditorium at 2 p. m. Wednesday.

The general committee is composed of Mrs. Edward Conerty, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Heidenreich, assistant; Mesdames Bernard Weimer, Everett Schmutte, tickets; Mrs. M. S. Vincent Lapenta, tallies; Mrs. Ada Roth, cards; Mrs. Henry Wachel, door prizes; Mrs. Joseph Kleiber, prizes, and Mrs. Ray Boehm, candy.

The bridge committee is composed of Mesdames Glen Conway, Richard Tubbs, Edward Trimpe, John Weber, A. P. Lauck, Roscoe McKinney. Arranging the euche is a committee which includes Mesdames Peter James, Roy Cogill, William Lawson, J. B. Matthews, G. S. Schmutte Sr. and Charles McDonough. Mesdames Carl Pfeiffer, John Gedig and Hugh Rogers are in charge of 500 play. On the pinocle committee are Mesdames Henry Gardner, Fred Koch, John Dransfield, Andrew Fromhold and William Greenwell.

Other assistants are Mesdames Edward Dux Sr., Henry Himmelgarn, Edward Dwyer, William McKinney and Miss Lucille Erpelting. The guild's monthly meeting is to be held tomorrow at the hospital. Hostess are to be Mrs. Boehm, Mrs. Gedig, Mrs. James and Miss Erpelting.

Kappas to Mark Anniversary of Butler Chapter

The sorority colors of light and dark blue are to appoint dinner tables at a birthday party to be held by the Indianapolis Alumnae and Butler University chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority Wednesday. The chapter is to mark its 59th anniversary.

Mrs. Thor G. Wesenberg, university Women's Council chairman, is to be principal speaker.

Mrs. M. Dill, one of the chapter founders, and Mrs. O. M. Pruitt, an early initiate, are to be among the guests.

Mrs. E. M. Schofield and Mrs. Emilinegar, co-chairman, are to be assisted by the following hostesses: Mesdames Ellsworth Maxwe, Royer K. Brown, Harry G. Jones and Joseph Matthews and Miss Anna Smith.

Couple Married in Christmas Eve Rites

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Eberhardt have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Janet Louise Eberhardt, to T. A. McClintock, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McClintock. The wedding took place Dec. 24 at 1142 N. Pennsylvania St.

Married Here

The marriage of Miss Isabelle Haessig to Virgil Ivan Vaughn, son of William T. Vaughn, took place recently. Mrs. Vaughn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haessig.

—Photo by Kindred.

The marriage of Miss Isabelle Haessig to Virgil Ivan Vaughn, son of William T. Vaughn, took place recently. Mrs. Vaughn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haessig.

Board of Women's G. O. P. Club to Meet

The board of directors of the Women's Republican Club of Indianapolis is to meet at 11 a. m. today at the Columbia Club.

Mrs. A. N. Bobbitt, president, is to preside. The club's meeting Jan. 21 is to be outlined.

Ask for Real Pies and Get the Best

"As Good as Mother Made" "Just Satisfy Your Appetite" THE REAL PIE SHOP
1312 BROOKSIDE AVE.
Phone CH-7723

"VORCLONE"
Method of Dry Cleaning
Brings out the Newness and Original Lustre of your wearing apparel. You'll marvel at the wonderful results of our exclusive method.
Wm. M. Leonard Inc.
519 W. Wash. St. RE. 4190

Speaks Here

Mrs. Oscar Hahn, American Legion Auxiliary national president, is to address the Indianapolis Council of Women's meeting tomorrow in Ayres' Auditorium.

Card Party Arranged By Eliza Blaker Club

Proceeds from a card party to be held Saturday in Banner-Whitehill auditorium by the Eliza A. Blaker Club are to be used for the organization's memorial fund.

Settlement House Board Sets Dinner

Program Is Arranged for Christamore Directors' Annual Session.

The Christamore House directors are to hold their annual dinner meeting at 7 p. m. today at the settlement house. Peter C. Reilly, president, is to preside and Mrs. Olive D. Edwards, house director, is to give an annual report.

Mrs. Kathryn Turney Garten is to review "The Biography of Jane Addams." House children are to present a skit depicting activities. The group has been directed by Miss Mary Stewart Haines, a Christamore Aid Society and staff member.

A large representation from the society is to attend. Mrs. R. Kirby Whyte is president.

House board members include Fred Appel, Earl Barnes, Arthur V. Brown, H. Foster Clipping, Russell Willson, A. Kiefer Mayer, Malcolm Moore, William E. Munk, James S. Watson, Mesdames Reilly Adams, Julian Bobbs, John N. Carey, William Griffith, Josiah K. Lilly Jr., Thomas D. Sheerin and Mrs. Edwards.

Mrs. Bobbs, Mrs. Lilly and Mrs. Roy Elder Adams compose the committee arranging the dinner. Election of board officers is to take place at a luncheon meeting next month.

Phi Delta Theta Mothers' Group Meets Thursday

The Butler University Phi Delta Theta Mothers' Club is to meet at 10 a. m. Thursday at the chapter house, 705 W. Hampton Drive.

Following a luncheon and business meeting, a musical program is to be given by Mrs. Ernest Owen, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Bailer.

Mrs. C. V. Sorenson is general chairman, assisted by Mesdames George Stewart, A. J. Lauth, S. C. Bitter, Maude Ruch and Blanche Harber, house hostesses.

The committee in charge of the card party to be given by the club Jan. 27 at Banner-Whitehill auditorium, includes Mesdames Bert Beasley, Jack Moore and Edgar Hart.

Installation Is Set By Grotto Auxiliary

Installation services are to be held for the Women's Auxiliary of Sahara Grotto at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the Grotto home with Mrs. Lois Houston, retiring president, in charge.

Mrs. Jess McLean is to be installed as president; Mrs. Nellie Riffe, first vice president; Mrs. Marguerite Schneider, second vice president; Mrs. Ann Hessel, recording secretary; Mrs. Mildred Armstrong, assistant secretary; Mrs. Ruth Reinhardt, treasurer; Mrs. Daisy Hollingsworth, first guard; Mrs. Leona Richardson, second guard; Mrs. Houston, Mrs. Evelyn Nelson and Mrs. Oliver Wald, trustees.

NISLEY
CLEAR CHIFFON
Pure Silk HOSIERY
59c PERFECT QUALITY
44 N. PENN.

Sears
Open Every Thursday and Saturday Night Until 9 o'Clock
Make a Clean Sweep for 1937

KENMORE Vacuum Cleaner
$21.45
and Your Old Electric Cleaner
$3 Down—$3 Monthly Plus Carrying Charge

- Powerful vertical bronze bearing motor.
- Adjustable for any thickness of rug.
- Improved stamped steel handle fork and handle adjustment.
- Inner sleeve bag to prevent dust from falling out.
- Motor approved by Underwriters.
- A $35 value! Complete with 20-ft. cord.

FAMOUS TRIPLE ACTION... Cleans by beating, sweeping and suction... Motor driven brush. Heavy rubber furniture bumpers.

Sears—First Floor and Basement.
Call LI. 8531 For Free Home Demonstration

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.
Alabama at Vermont
FREE BUS FREE PARKING