

GRACE BORDERS, D. A. R. MEMBER, IS DEAD AT 52

Native of Boone County Ill
Several Months; Active
In Church Work.

MRS. GRACE BROWN BORDERS died today at her home, 2045 N. Rural St., after an illness of several months. She was 52.

Mrs. Borders was born in Boone County and was educated in the common schools. In 1905 she married to Walter Brown, who died in 1925.

Mrs. Brown married Henry A. Borders in 1929 and came to live in Indianapolis. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church, the Bible class and the church Missionary Society.

She is survived by her husband; three sisters, Mrs. Esther Kern, Gettysburg, O.; Mrs. Ruth Caldwell, Peoria, Ill.; and Mrs. Adeline White, Bloomington; and three brothers, Edward, John and Elvin O. Wall, Detroit.

Services are to be at the home at 1 p. m. Thursday and in the Old Union Church, southwest of Lebanon, at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in the Old Union Church Cemetery.

MRS. MATILDA HAGEMIER, who died yesterday morning at 1336 Olive St., is to be buried in Crown Hill tomorrow following funeral services at 10:30 a. m. in the Bert S. Gadd Funeral Home.

She was the mother of Oscar C. Hagemier, Chief Deputy Marion County Prosecutor. She was 82 and had been ill several days.

Mrs. Hagemier was born in Germany and came to the United States with her parents when she was 1 year old. She lived in Vincennes and Sullivan before coming to Indianapolis in 1916. She was a member of the Sutherland Presbyterian Church.

Survivors are two sons, Oscar and Clarence, both of Indianapolis, and four daughters, Mrs. Marian R. Borders, Mrs. Carl R. Sanders and Mrs. Helen Ford, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Henry Begler, Chicago.

MRS. FREDERICA DIPPLE CARL, life-long South Side resident, died yesterday morning at the home of her son, H. L. Dipple, 617 N. New Jersey St. She was the widow of George W. Carl.

She was 79 and had been a member of the Seventh Presbyterian Church for more than 50 years. Survivors, in addition to the son, are two daughters, Mrs. Laura Brown, Dover, O., and Mrs. Rose Brown, Indianapolis; and a granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Dipple. Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the Bert S. Gadd Funeral Home, with burial in Crown Hill Cemetery.

MRS. IDA SEGAL, 705 S. Meridian St., a resident of Indianapolis 26 years, died last night in City Hospital after an illness of four months.

Mrs. Segal was born in Russia and came to the United States in 1909. She was married in Russia to Harry Segal, who died five years ago. She was a member of Shara Tefila Synagogue.

Two sons, Henry and William Segal, and a daughter, Mrs. Harry Garfinkle, survive. Services were to be at 2 p. m. today in the Linath Hazedeck Funeral Home and burial in Shara Tefila Cemetery.

MRS. BERTHA BLOSSER, life-long resident of Marion County, who died Sunday at her home, 3716 N. Capitol Ave., was to be buried today after services at 2 p. m. in the J. C. Wilson & Co. Funeral Home. Burial was to be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Blosser was 55. She had been ill five months. She is survived by her husband, Albert S. Blosser; two sons, Alfred D. Blosser and Robert L. Blosser; three daughters, Mrs. Ruth McFarland, Mrs. Georgia Sticker, and Miss Emma D. Blosser, all of Indianapolis.

PATRICK F. GARVEY, 2426 Brookside Parkway, North Drive, who died Saturday at his home, was buried today after services at 10 a. m. at the home. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Mr. Garvey was 57. He was born in Ireland and operated a tavern at California and Maryland Sts. for many years. He formerly was employed at Kiggan & Co. and recently was stage doorman at the Indiana Theatre.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Stella Garvey; a son, Edward J. Garvey; and two sisters, Mrs. Julia James and Mrs. Cecelia Elstrod.

J. CLUSTER DENNIS, 5460 Hibben St., Big Four Railroad employee 23 years, who died Sunday night, is to be buried in Rushville following funeral services in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church at 9 a. m. tomorrow. He was 47.

Mr. Dennis had been a locomotive engineer, operating trains between Indianapolis and Chicago.

Survivors are: Wife, Mrs. Bernadine Dennis; daughter, Mary Louise Dennis; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dennis.

MRS. CORDELIA C. DIGGS, 1650 N. Jefferson Ave., who died in Methodist Hospital Saturday night, was to be buried in Memorial Park Cemetery following funeral services in the home at 1:30 p. m. today. She was 55.

Mrs. Diggs was born in Martinsville and came to Indianapolis in 1896. She was a member of the Heath Memorial Church.

Survivors are: Daughter, Mrs.

Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for Thomas Sheehan, city fireman, killed while fighting a blaze at an East Side grocery yesterday, are to be held tomorrow at 8:30 a. m. in the home, 231 S. Sherman Drive, and at 9 a. m. in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church. Burial is to be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

$50,000 DAMAGES SOUGHT FOR CRASH

Two suits against the Public Service Co. and the Indiana Railroad, on file in Superior Court today, asked $50,000 damages as result of a crossing crash Oct. 10.

The suits were brought by George Church and Herman Hogue who charged they were seriously injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by an Indianapolis-Louisville car four miles south of Indianapolis.

The Indianapolis-Louisville line is owned by the Public Service Co. and operated by the Indiana Railroad.

SMOKE ABATEMENT SCHOOL ARRANGED

A smoke abatement school is to be held in Crosey Auditorium, Public Library, beginning Feb. 26, Roy O. Johnson, Indianapolis Smoke Abatement League secretary-attorney, said today.

Sessions are to be held twice weekly for six weeks. Proper firing methods are to be taught.

MAROTT'S JANUARY SALE

A reliable sale that comes but once a year—Marott's January Sale—offering the greatest footwear values for the entire family. This is not one of the frequent "every day sales" but is an honest presentation of unequalled values. Our entire stock of shoes, women's, men's, boys' and girls' all over our store are offered—no reserves—you are certain to find your size and a genuine shoe bargain. We omit the use of shoe illustrations for they do not convey the quality of the leather or workmanship and very often shoe cuts in advertisements are very deceptive and can not be relied upon for true shoe value—reputation is your guarantee of complete satisfaction. We thank you for our fifty-two years of successful shoe service.
