

STATE ASSEMBLY WOMAN'S CLUB LUNCHEON ARRANGED

Committees Of Workers Are Named

Local Branch Members To Be Hostesses At Party.

Members of Indianapolis Branch, State Assembly Woman's Club, have been assigned committee work in preparation for a luncheon for Indiana branch members Tuesday at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Mrs. Walter E. Tracy, president, announced the assignments.

Mrs. Walter J. Behmen, treasurer, is invitations and ticket committee chairman, assisted by Mesdames Posey T. Kline, Estelle Ebaugh and Leo X. Smith. On the arrangements committee are Mrs. William F. Dudine, chairman; Mesdames Arthur L. Gilliom, William Storen and William Henry Harrison.

On Program Committee

The program is being arranged by Mrs. Julius C. Travis, chairman; Mesdames S. E. Rock, Joe Ford Beckett and James M. Ogden. The decorations committee includes Mrs. Lloyd D. Claycomb, chairman; Mesdames James P. Hughes, Alphonso Wood and Albert Walsman.

The reception committee includes Mrs. Frank Finney, chairman; Mrs. Treanor, Mrs. C. J. Buchanan, president emeritus; Mesdames Dana Mendenhall, Paul V. McNutt, Curtis W. Roll, William P. Evans, Harry G. Leslie, Arthur R. Robinson, Ralph N. Smith, George Batchelor, Lawrence Sullivan, Harvey J. Curts, Edward P. Barry, Luke Duffy and Jacob Weiss.

The publicity committee is composed of Mrs. Archie N. Bobbitt, chairman; Mesdames Clarence Martin, Carl Wood and Clyde Karrer.

Entertainment Is Planned

Entertainment is to include musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Saul Bernat and readings by Mrs. Chic Jackson.

State branch officers are Mrs. Thurman Gottschalk, Berne, president; Mrs. Ward G. Biddle, Bloomington, first vice president; Mrs. Martin Krueger, Michigan City, second vice president; Mrs. Rowland H. Hill, Carthage, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Kline, treasurer.

The state branch is to meet for a luncheon Jan. 20 at the Claypool Hotel and in the afternoon members are to be honor guests at a tea given by the League of Women Voters.

State Nurses Are to Select District Heads

Miss Beatrice Gerrin, Indianapolis City Hospital nurses' superintendent, is to be elected president of the Central District, Indiana State Nurses Association, at its annual meeting at 2:30 p. m. today in Banner-Whitehill auditorium.

Miss Gerrin is unopposed as president on the proposed ballot. Other nominees are Miss Grace Witwer, Methodist Hospital board of directors member, and Miss Mary York, Indianapolis City Hospital superintendent, for first vice president; Mrs. Vera Buell, Indianapolis City Hospital, and Mrs. Alice Jones, Indianapolis school nurses superintendent, for second vice president; Miss Fern Coy, Indiana University Nurses Alumnae Association president, and Miss Hazel Johnson, Methodist Hospital for secretary, and Miss Mary Heckard, Riley Hospital superintendent and Miss Margaret Kuse, Sunnyside Hospital superintendent, for treasurer.

Candidates for Directors

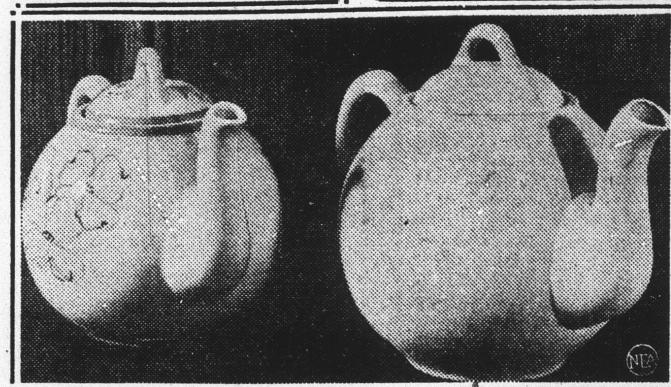

Candidates for the directors' board are, Miss Helen Broughton, Methodist Hospital children's floor supervisor; Miss Carrie McManus, Deaconess Hospital; Miss Mary Welker, St. Vincent's Hospital nurses' instructor, and Miss Aurelia Willers, Indiana University Nurses School instructor.

Miss Bernice Cain is arrangements chairman for a tea to follow the business meeting. The following Alumnae Association presidents are to be hostesses: Misses Margaret Torr, Bernice Cain, Fern Coy and Lillian Martin.

Guild Meeting Scheduled

The Theodore Potter Fresh Air Guild is to meet at 10:30 a. m. Friday at the school.

New American Industry Gets Its Start

Tennessee Clay and Cheap Electricity to Bring Porcelain, Marked 'Made in U. S. A.', to Tables of Nation at Low Prices.

By NFA Service

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 6.—Within the shadow of Norris Dam a small group of men have transformed gray Tennessee Valley clay into light, white, egg-shell porcelain dinnerware that is acclaimed as fine as any in the world—the first time that porcelain has been made from clay found in this country.

Up to now, either the clay or the finished product has been imported from Europe or Asia. And capping the achievement of opening America's clay deposits to industry, for the first time the firing or baking has been done by electricity.

According to S. T. Henry of Spruce Pine, N. C., who conceived the idea for the experiment, their success will have far-reaching consequences.

It means, for instance, that high grade dinnerware will become available in this country at a low price—possibly low enough so it can be sold in the lowest-priced stores.

New Industry Seen

It means a new, major industry in the United States. Now you have only to look at the back of your plates, cups and saucers to see that they come from Japan, England, France, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Hereafter, in times of war, we no longer will have to depend on other countries for kaolin vitally essential to make spark plugs and electric insulation needed in military transport.

The fact that North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama have rich deposits of kaolin is not news. Up to now small quantities of it have been used in a mixture with imported kaolin. The real news is that porcelain can be made from the native clay. Also that, in such a refined state, it can take the place of imported kaolin.

Mr. Henry and TVA administrators picked Robert E. Gould, an American ceramics engineer, to head the experimental laboratories. Mr. Gould, then chief engineer of a ceramics plant in Poland, picked his staff and set to work. After months of experimenting with a washing and settling process that had not been used before, they found ways and means to remove all impurities from the native kaolin.

Electric Oven Invented

Next was tackled the job of firing by electricity. Up to now electricity had been used in a small way in firing decorations on porcelain ware, but this called for a temperature of only around 900 degrees Fahrenheit, whereas the TVA researchers required a temperature of 2500 or more degrees for fusing

Lecture Club to Meet

The Woman's Lecture Club is to meet at 2 p. m. Friday at the Marriott Hotel. Mrs. Olive Belden Lewis is to talk on "Europe and the Present Situation." Mrs. William E. White is club president.

Studio Names Bridge Winners During Term

Mr. and Mrs. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. A. Conkey have been announced as the accumulative bridge winners for the last term at the King Bridge Studio.

Prizes are awarded to each

duplicate bridge winner, as well as to the United States Bridge Association.

Contestants who play five out of eight games during the term are eligible to win the accumulative prize.

The winter term opened yesterday with a luncheon at the studio.

Bridge instruction preceded the duplicate bridge game.

Annual SEWING MACHINE CLEARANCE

THE LINEN STORE SPECIAL

THRIFT DAYS

All Merchandise Greatly Reduced

W. S. AYRES & CO.

Floor Samples—Demonstrators Display Models

All new machines. Clearance of our regular stock at greatly reduced prices.

Formerly	Now
$80 Desk Model White $3.55
$95 White Rotary Electric 71.55
$88 Majestic Rotary Model 62.50
$70 White Rotary Portable 59.50
$65 New Willard Desk Model 34.50

Other Models at Reductions up to 20%; Trade Allowance on Most Models.

We Repair All Makes of Machines Estimate Without Charge

No Down Payment—and You Pay Just a Few Cents a Day!

Group of Used Machines, $5 and Up

Sewing Machines—Second Floor.

Are Your Eyes Up to Par? Wear Glasses If You Need Them!

Only a complete examination by an expert optometrist can determine whether or not you need glasses! Guard your eyesight—it is your most precious possession! Our optometrist and the most modern testing equipment assures you an accurate analysis of the present condition of your eyes!

•Dr. Waldo E. Stein, Optometrist
•USE SEARS PAYMENT PLAN!

Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Pupils Study Pet Animals For Project

Barn at Orchard School Is Place of Interest To Youngsters.

By BEATRICE BURGAN Society Editor

OLD MacDonald's farm didn't have anything on the Orchard School pupils' pet collection.

A barn built by the boys and girls is stocked with many animals and fowl, which previously were merely something seen fleetingly in pastures as they rode in cars across the countryside. Now they know the foods the animals prefer, something about their market value and their habits.

Frederick, John and Lucy Holley contributed a 22-pound pig which has eaten his weight in corn and grown to at least 60 pounds. The children weighed him daily for awhile until he became unwieldy. Now they guess his poundage.

Boys Favor Butchering

Fifth grade boys who are caring for the animal think it's high time the pig is butchered, but the girls have a different idea. "He's to young and innocent," they say. It's about settled that Christopher who arrived on Columbus Day from the Frederick T. Holliday farm, will go to market, and the children will see the butchering process on some farm.

Carl Eyleigh Jr. contributed his two pigeons to the "farmyard." They came from his parents' suburban place. The hen and duck were hatched at the school. At Christmas time many of the ducks were sold for holiday feasts. The chickens have been laying eggs—which are "dated" and sold at current prices. The duck and chickens were in the second grade project and the children have been keeping "books" recording the profits.

Pet Mice in Collection

Hilton U. Brown II has had some white mice as pets, and he contributed a pair of them for the first class.

A ewe and ram have been mated. Their lamb is to be the property of the kindergarten. The barn also houses pigeons and rabbits.

The children have been taking turns washing and feeding the animals, and have had experience in buying their feed.

In classes they have learned the use of the animals' by-products and have based English course compositions on their observation of the animals.

Ethiopia Topic Of Travel Clubs

Ethiopia is the subject for discussion at two International Travel Study Club, Inc. chapters this week.

The Alexandrian chapter is to meet tomorrow for a pitch-in luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. G. Mason, 1333 W. 31st St., who is to be assisted by Mrs. Mary Watt, Ethiopian readings are to be given by Mrs. A. R. Ward and Mrs. Carl Shup.

The Australian chapter met yesterday with Mrs. F. C. Noble, 833 N. Bancroft St., Mrs. C. H. Castor and Mrs. H. A. Stevens were assistant hostesses. Mrs. Lotte Snyder Emery gave a talk on Ethiopia. Mrs. Jules Ginter gave a reading.

Studio Names Bridge Winners During Term

Mr. and Mrs. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. A. Conkey have been announced as the accumulative bridge winners for the last term at the King Bridge Studio.

Prizes are awarded to each

duplicate bridge winner, as well as to the United States Bridge Association.

Contestants who play five out of eight games during the term are eligible to win the accumulative prize.

The winter term opened yesterday with a luncheon at the studio.

Bridge instruction preceded the duplicate bridge game.

At Home After Wedding Trip

—Photo by Bretzman.

Program of Art Festival Is Arranged

Federation of Clubs' Event To Be Held Three Days Next Week.

Music, literature, drama and art are to provide the theme for the Seventh District Federation of Clubs' fine arts festival next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Ayres' auditorium. Exhibits are being arranged.

Tuesday is to be Poetry and Music Day, and Mrs. Edward Katterhenry is to open the program with a talk on poetry. In the afternoon Mrs. Rudolph F. Grosskopf is to lecture on "Indiana Composers." Music is to be provided by the Irvington Chorus, directed by Miss Grace Gibson.

For Literature and Drama Day on Wednesday Miss Bjorn Winger is to review "Hobbits and Tales" by Hoffmann, and "R. V. R." by Henrik Van Loon. Mrs. Jane Johnson Burroughs is to direct a musical program by the White Cross Music Guild.

Drama to Be Given

In the afternoon the Expression Club is to present "Solomon's Judgment," a drama directed by Mrs. Walter E. Jenney. The cast is to include Mesdames R. H. Arnhofer, Frank Burns, R. B. Barnes, Mrs. Jenney and Miss Mary Beatrice Whitman. Songs from Handel's oratorio, "Solomon," are to be sung by Mrs. Max Critchfield and Mrs. Ruth Sexton, accompanied by Mrs. Rulus Doolittle.

For Fine Arts Festival Day Gordon Mess is to lecture and demonstrate a landscape painting. Music is to be offered by the Seventh District Chorus.

EVENTS

SORORITIES

Alpha Chapter, Omega Chi. Tonight, Miss Aletha Hayden, hostess. Lambda Chapter, Alpha Omicron Alpha. 1:30 p. m. Thurs. Mrs. H. T. Browns, 1025 N. LaSalle St., hostess. Business.

Alpha Chapter, Omega Kappa. 8 p. m. Today, Miss Dorothy Hudleston, 1310 N. Gale St., hostess.

Beta Theta Chi. 8 p. m. Today, Miss Mary Louise Bates, hostess. Delta Chapter, Xi Delta Xi. 8 p. m. today. Mrs. Edna Veever, 532 Woodlawn Ave.

Beta Chapter, Alpha Beta Gamma. 8 p. m. Today, Mrs. Carl Joyce, 1529 Dawson St., hostess.

Eudine Club. Tonight, Miss Lois Thompson, 621 Highland Drive, hostess.

Alpha Chapter, Omega Phi Tau. 8:30 p. m. Today, Spink-Arms Hotel.

Verde Sorores Chapter, Verus Cordis. 8:30 p. m. Thurs. Miss Mary Anna Perry, 4205 Boulevard Place, hostess.

CARD PARTIES

St. Patrick's Church January Circle. 2:30 p. m. Thurs. School.

Mrs. Frank Stahl, hostess. Cards.

St. Mary's Social Club. 2:30 p. m. Thurs. St. Mary's rectory. Mrs. Mary Laker, Mrs. Bernard Hauser, hostesses. Cards.

Empress of Australia

WEST INDIES CRUISES

Plus Central and South American ports

FROM NEW YORK

Enchanting Roads to Summer With a Famous Cruise Liner

JAN. 27—16 DAYS

$185 up

6 fascinating "sunshine" ports for a mid-winter "pick-up." Including Bermuda, Martinique, Jamaica, Cuba, Bahamas. Make your reservations now.

Other West Indies Cruises

FEB. 13—18 Days, $202.50 up