Marion County's traffic death toll for 1937 rose to 18 today as the name of Mrs. Evelyn Mattingly Collins was added to the list.

Mrs. Collins, who died yesterday in Methodist Hospital, was struck by one of two cars which collided at Addison and Ohio Sts. Dec. 29. She lived at 250 N. Addison St. She was 32.

Harry Wilson, 46, of 235 N. Temple Ave., was reported in serious condition at City Hospital today from injuries received last night when he was struck by an automobile while alighting from a streetcar. He has a possible skull fracture, hospital officials said.

Driver Arrested

Police arrested William Dushane, 335 N. Sherman Drive, on charges of leaving the scene of an accident and passing a streetcar which was disabled in the accident.

The accident occurred at Temple and Washington Streets.

Police said the auto said to have been driven by Dushane struck the rear of the streetcar, then hit Mr. Wilson and finally struck a telephone pole.

$18,000 PAID FOR ALCOHOL VIOLATIONS

More than $18,000 was collected by the State for violations of the alcoholic beverages act during the period from June 1, 1935, to Jan. 1, 1937, Ray Hinkle, chief of the Excise Department enforcement division, reported today.

The largest item was $6657.90 for additional seating capacity for which permittees had not paid license fees. A total of $5525 was voluntarily paid by permittees for law violations and $3218.67 was collected from the sale of illegal liquor, Mr. Hinkle said.

DINNER MEETING SET BY JUNIOR CHAMBER

A dinner meeting for members of the Indianapolis Junior Chamber of Commerce is scheduled at 6 p. m. tomorrow at the Athenaeum. Wives and friends are to be special guests.

Emory Hunter is in charge of entertainment, which is to include a sound motion picture depicting construction of the George Washington Railroad.

Following the dinner, the party is to move to the Crospus Auditorium at the Public Library for the weekly meeting of the "People's Congress," sponsored by the Junior Chamber.

SEEHAUSEN NAMED SYNOD PRESIDENT

Paul Seehausen was elected president of the Federation of Missouri Synod Lutheran Churches of greater Indianapolis at a special meeting at Trinity Lutheran Church, Parish Hall. Other officers are: Arthur Eickhoff, vice president; Frank Wissmeier, secretary, and Carl Thoel, treasurer.

A resolution was adopted instructing the president to appoint a coordinating committee to get the support of individual churches for the Red Cross relief fund.

FRATERNITY DANCE DETAILS ARE FIXED

Arrangements for the annual Sigma Chi Fraternity state dinner and dance Saturday, Feb. 13, in the Columbian Club, have been completed by Robert Orbison, Indianapolis Alumni Chapter president.

Entertainment is to be provided by members of Indiana University, Butler University, Purdue University, DePauw University and Wabash College chapters. The dinner is scheduled for 6:15 p. m. and the dance will begin at 9 p. m.
