

PAROLEE FACES FILLING STATION HOLDUP CHARGE

Identified by Attendant as Gunman Who Robbed
Him of $3.

A Kansas parolee was to face charges of robbery, burglary and Uniform Firearms Act violation in Municipal Court today following his arrest last night in the vicinity of a filling station which had been held up.

He is Cleo Cozad, 32, of 1024 E. Market St. Police records show he served part of a 1-to-10-year term for vehicle charges in Indiana and three years in Kansas for burglary.

Police said Clarence Ball, 24, of 2008 E. Washington St., had identified him as the gunman who robbed him of $3 in a holdup at his filling station, 1015 E. Washington St.

Police officers said they were investigating the holdup when Ball called their attention to a man walking on the other side of the street.

Gun Reported Found

"That resembles him," they quoted Ball as saying.

They said they searched Cozad and found a 32-caliber revolver in his clothes. They said the amount of money on his person corresponded to the filling station loot.

A 23-year-old youth was held on vagrancy charges today after police said he had confessed to holding up a New Haven, Ky., bank last week and escaping with $1838.

He gave his name as Raymond Donnelly; said he was from Knoxville, Tenn., but that his father was a Louisville contractor. He was arrested when police investigated a complaint that some one was creating a disturbance at English's Theater last night.

Police said they found Donnelly getting into a cab after he had left the theater because, he told them, "Tobacco Road" was too vulgar for him.

Revolver Found in Cab

Pursuing the cab, police said they saw Donnelly hold a revolver which he dropped to the floor as they came along side, and which they said they found there.

Police have communicated with New Haven, Ky.

A lone hand early today held up a drug store at 2101 E. Michigan St., and escaped with $47.30, according to police.

They said Ruth Haupt, 28, of 427 N. Hamilton Ave., told them she was washing some glasses behind the soda fountain when the gunman entered the store and ordered her to hand over the contents of two cash registers.

Three drivers were robbed by gunmen early today, they reported to police. They are Henry Evans, 21, of 829 College Ave., and James Enlow, 21, of 322 E. South St.

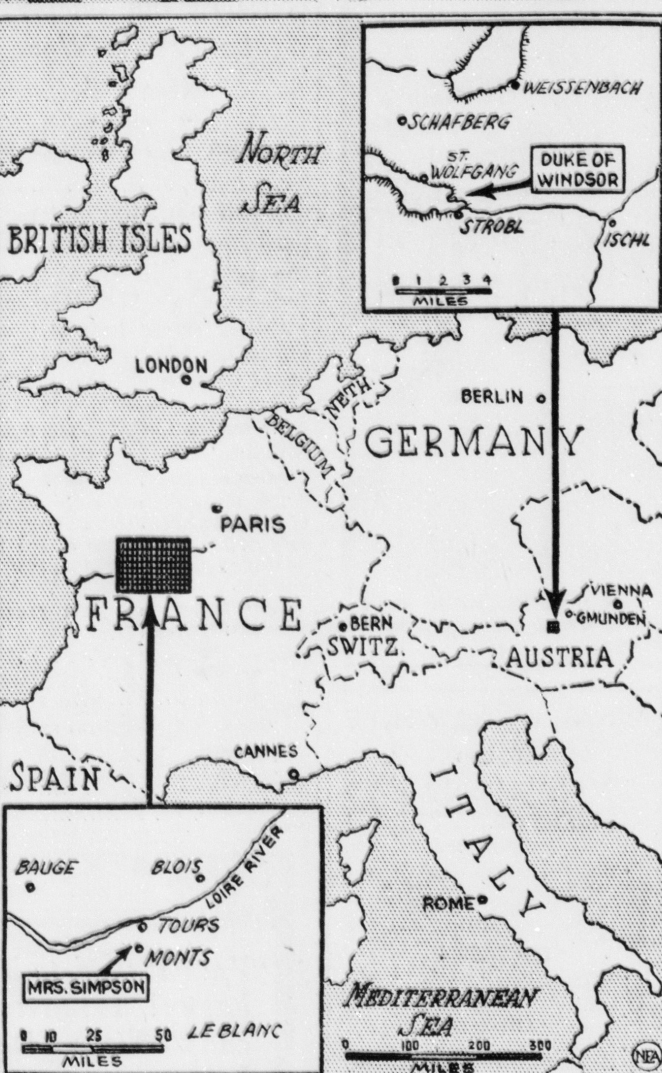

George Powell, 30, of 3042 Hovey St., a taxi driver, reported to police a passenger held him up at 24th St. and Ashland Ave. and escaped with $4.35.

Purse Snatcher Hunted

Two Negroes early today held up Peter Doyle, 29, filling station attendant at 401 N. West St., and escaped with $14, police learned. They fled on foot.

A purse snatcher who robbed two women on the North Side last night also was hunted by police. The victims were Miss Helen Geike, 25, of 1504 N. Pennsylvania St., whose purse contained $6, and Mrs.

700 Miles Until April 27

More than 700 miles—all of Switzerland, half of France and Austria—still separated Mrs. Wallis Simpson and the Duke of Windsor after their latest moves to new abodes, as the above map shows. Mrs. Simpson left Cannes and went to the Chateau de Candia, in the Loire Valley, near Monts, France. The Duke left Enzestfeld, 20 miles from Vienna, for a villa near Gmunden, Austria. Insert maps give close-up views. Mrs. Simpson's divorce becomes final on April 27.

Ora Hable, 1321 N. New Jersey St., robbed of jewelry valued at $200 which was in her purse.

Police said the descriptions of the two footpads tallied.

Mrs. Golda Dow, 46, of 2412 Roosevelt Ave., reported the theft of $20 from her home yesterday.

Neighbors told police they saw two youths enter the house while Mrs. Dow was absent.

Walter Ludlow, 28, of 2269 Harlan St., was robbed of $20 yesterday by two gunmen who held him up in the 2400 block on Cornell Ave. Ludlow is a bakery truck driver.

CRAWFORD IS SPEAKER
Earl Crawford, State Highway Commission chairman, was to address the Indiana Regulated Highway Carriers luncheon today in the Hotel Lincoln. The Rev. T. A. Dicus and Howard Acheson, Commission members, also were invited.

GOVERNMENTAL OFFICES FILLED BY BOY SCOUTS

Lads Take Over Duties of Governor, Mayor and Other Officials.

The State, County and City Governmental offices functioned as non-political units for awhile today as Boy Scouts took charge and elected officials explained civic duties to the youths.

At the Statehouse, Governor Townsend stepped aside momentarily for "Governor" Martin Miller, Eagle Scout of Troop 60.

"Mayor" Charles Breunig, Troop 18, took over the office of Mayor Kern.

"Mayor" Breunig announced his policy was lower taxes and more street paving. During his short Administration he received a letter from Miss Stella Doepers of scout headquarters, asking that 15th St. east of Central Ave. be paved.

He dictated a reply, saying there were no funds for it.

Other offices held by Scouts were: City Librarian, Donald Snapp, Troop 14; Postmaster, Harry Stander, Troop 48; Police Chief, Albert Strickland, Troop 56; Fire Chief, Morgan Kuetemeier, Troop 71; Chief of Detectives, Jack Siegesmund, Troop 3; Gamewell Chief, Alphonso Topp, Troop 41; Traffic Captain, Richard Emmelman, Troop 2; State Safety Director, Richard Schnell, Troop 21; Criminal Court Judge, Gerald Horton, Troop 55.

Tomorrow's feature of Scout Week is to be a court of honor at 7:30 p. m. in Tomlinson Hall. Nine are to be elevated to the Eagle Scout rank. Eight hundred awards are to be given.

Following a scout parade yesterday troops received awards for marching.

Honorable mention was given Troops 14, 19, 21, 24, 41, 60 and 91. Five Cub packs also received special mention.

The parade was reviewed by Wallace O. Lee, Central Indiana Scout Council president; Adjt. Gen. Elmer P. Straub, L. D. Badolet and F. O. Belzer, scout executives.
