

NUPTIAL RITE AND BRIDAL PARTIES SCHEDULED TODAY

Miss Mueller To Be Wed in Home at 3:30

Charlene Buchanan and Mabelle Sherman To Be Honored.

A wedding ceremony and three pre-nuptial parties figure in today's news.

Principals in the marriage ceremony are Miss Bertha Jane Mueller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto T. Mueller, and Jack T. Godfrey, son of Mrs. John T. Godfrey. The ceremony is to be read at 3:30 p. m. in the Mueller home, 3268 Washington Blvd., by the Rev. William A. Shullenberger.

The wedding is to take place on the birthday of Miss Mueller's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Templeton.

Two Parties Set

Miss Charlene Buchanan, who is to be married to Donald B. Keller on April 10, is to attend two parties in her honor. Miss Marcia Morrison is to entertain with a luncheon in the Columbia Club and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cummings are to give a buffet supper tonight for Miss Buchanan and her fiancé.

Miss Buchanan is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Buchanan and Mr. Keller's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Keller.

Miss Mary Greger is to be hostess at a party in compliment to Miss Mabelle Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sherman, whose marriage to Thomas J. Blackwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Blackwell, is to be solemnized on April 17.

Cibotium fern, smilax and spring flowers will decorate the Mueller home for the ceremony. Miss Aleene Mueller is to be her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Edward Paul Gallagher, Mrs. Ray Bishop, Paris, Ill., and Miss Margaret Godfrey, sister of the bridegroom, will be bridesmaids. Ann Roberts and Lenore Caldwell, Birmingham, Ala., will be junior bridesmaids.

Skirts to Be Full

The maid of honor will wear periwinkle blue mouseline de sole, fashioned with short puffed sleeves, and carry spring flowers. The other attendants' gowns, of crepe, are designed with full skirts, deep V-necklines and cap sleeves. They will carry colonial bouquets. Mrs. Gallagher and Mrs. Bishop will wear chartreuse and Miss Godfrey, Miss Roberts and Miss Caldwell, periwinkle blue.

The bride is to wear Mrs. Gallagher's satin wedding gown trimmed with lace and Mrs. Mueller's veil. The bridal bouquet will be of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Mueller is to appear in a blue lace gown and Mrs. Godfrey will wear black with a beige lace tunic.

Following a reception, the couple is to leave on a southern wedding trip. They will return to 3402 Carrollton Ave. to make their home.

'Seeing Eye'

Albert G. Hahn, Evansville, accompanied by his "seeing eye" dog, is to be speaker at the White Cross Guild's fifth annual luncheon April 28 in the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

Mr. Hahn, a former president of the Indiana State Hospital Association, is chairman of the American Hospital Association Committee on National Hospital Day.

Mrs. Robert Fox Is to Speak to Women Voters

Mrs. Robert Fox, Hagerstown, is to talk on "The State Department As Our First Line of Defense" at an open meeting of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters' foreign policy department, Monday.

Ralph Showalter, 5661 N. Meridian St., is to be hostess. Mrs. Fox is the Hagerstown League's president of the department of government and foreign policy.

Mrs. Showalter's assistants will be Mesdames Donald Gerking, Fred Gifford, John Kautz, Ernest Ruppel, Horace Shonle and Harry Wenger.

The Indiana League's budget committee is to meet Tuesday morning in state headquarters. The group is to prepare the budget for the fiscal year beginning May 1, and is to report at the state council meeting May 18 and 19.

Sunnyside Guild To Dine Monday

Sunnyside Guild is to have its regular luncheon meeting at 12:30 p. m. Monday in the Columbia Club.

Mrs. Charles Renard, chairman, has appointed the following assistants: Mesdames Sydney Rice, Theodore E. Root, Charles W. Richardson, Gaylord T. Rust, John T. Sawyer, James Seward, G. G. Schmidt, Kurt W. Schmidt, Charles Seidensticker and Wayne O. Stone.

Spring flowers will be used for table decorations.

Miss Arnold to Wed

Everett B. Davis

Miss Alice Louise Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Arnold, and Everett B. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young, are to be married at 8 p. m. today in the First United Brethren Church. The Rev. George F. Snyder is to officiate.

The bride is to wear a white satin gown and a veil edged with lace. Her shower bouquet is to be of white roses and lilies. Miss Helen Davis, the bridegroom's sister, is to be maid of honor; Lloyd Cain, best man; Everett Fosnot and Richard Land, ushers.

John Sloane Kittle Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sloane Kittle, Kessler Blvd., and his roommate, David Sanders, Evansville, Ill., are in Bermuda for spring vacation with a group of Cornell University students.

Dances, Sports and Musical Events Hold Attention of Indianapolis Women's Groups

1. Elizabeth Monahan, Margaret Bigane and Joan Miller (left to right) look over scrapbooks their mothers have made for the St. Vincent's Hospital. The Hospital Guild is sponsoring a supper dance May 1 in the Indianapolis Athletic Club. (Times Photo.)

2. Among the committee workers for the Civic Theater's Stage Door Ball next Saturday is Mrs. Kirby Whyte. The dance is to be in the Columbia Club. (Photo by Porter.)

3. Misses Joan Metzger (left) and Miss Mary Stewart Kurts play a round of golf at Woodstock Club while they are at home during the spring vacation of Connecticut College for Women. (Times Photo.)

4. Miss Prudence Brown (left) and Miss Alice Vonnegut (center) watch Miss Nina Brown take a practice swing at Woodstock. Miss Nina Brown is a vacationing Sarah Lawrence College student. (Times Photo.)

5. Mrs. Paul Bernard Hoffman, Birmingham, Mich., tells her sons, Paul (center) and Peter the story of the picture in the book she is reading to them. Mrs. Hoffman and her sons are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cameron Moore. (Times Photo.)

6. Mrs. Wayne Ritter is occupied with details in preparation for three musical events. She is a team captain for the National Federation of Music Clubs' festival April 23 to 29 and is a worker on the women's financial committee drive for donations to the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. She also is rehearsing for a piano recital with Miss Elizabeth Stigall, to be sponsored by the Tudor Hall Advisory Committee May 12. (Photo by W. Hurley Ashby, F. R. P. S.)

Barbara Brown, Ballet Pupil, Turns Recital Choreographer

By BEATRICE BURGAN

Society Editor

BARBARA BROWN is Mrs. William Byram Gates' first dancing pupil to turn choreographer. Barbara has been the premiere danseuse of Mrs. Gates' spring recitals for several years but it wasn't until this season that she attempted to create an original dance.

The number, "Claire de Lune," is included in the program of Mrs. Gates' annual recital to be given April 16 in the Murat Temple Ballroom.

Barbara has attracted attention in the recitals for her grace and Russian-ballerina-like appearance. Dressed in her short white costume at Mrs. Gates' studio today, she halted her practice to explain how she worked out the dance. "Debussy's 'Claire de Lune' fascinated me, and I listened to it over and over until I had a picture in my mind. Then I tried arm exercises and positions to convey the effect which I had imagined," she said.

Others Join in Ballet

Now several of her dancing classmates are rehearsing with her. They include Marjory Flickinger, Leora Wood, Elizabeth Weiss, Helen Rudesill, Mary Ann Zinn, Nancy Briggs, Nancy Ryan and Peggy Trusler.

Barbara is to appear in a solo, "Gitanara," and in a tango with Robert McNeely, a group number, Emily Flickinger, Constance Miller, Nancy Briggs, Elizabeth Weiss, Helen Rudesill, Peggy Trusler, Leora Wood, Patricia Mushrush, Alice Greene and Mary Jo Clapp are rehearsing for this same dance.

Betty Lewis, Sally Stewart, Joan Atlass, Barbara Kiger, Mary Lou Dreiss and Mary Margaret Carroll are to do a military tap, and Martha Frances Dunn, a doll dance. Jewel Jean Lath is to be soloist in "Roses," with Sally Page, Sally Ann McBride, Hulda Pfaff, Jeanette Jinks, Suzanne Pearson, Mary

Dancers Named

Several girls are to be disguised as Russian dolls for an animated number. These girls include Ann Caldwell, Ann Clark, Mariou Hyatt, Suzanne Littell, Nina Lockwood, Betty Mayer and Katherine McClure. Patricia Mushrush will be the clown in a barback rider's interpretation by Marjorie Home, Betty Lee Washburn, Alice Gates, Martha Lee Adams, Mary Johnson, Mary Jo Gray, Elizabeth Lieber, Dorothy Sheerin, Margaret Rogers, Martha Frances Dunn, Mary Ann Zinn and Constance Miller.

High school seniors, who have been in the classes, will usher guests. These girls, who have been in other recitals, include Helen Griffith, Nancy Campbell, Patricia Eaglesfield, Ruth Fishback, Ann Holmes, Harriet Patterson, Jeanette Turkington, Eleanor Winslow, Sue Anne Eveleigh, Margaret Wohlge-muth, Catherine Kemp and Jane Rottger.

Council of Women to Conduct Forum and Elect 5 Directors

The Indianapolis Council of Women is to conduct a forum on "Present Day Economic Problems," and elect five directors at its all-day meeting Tuesday in Ayres Auditorium.

Miss Emma C. Puschner, American Legion child welfare division director, is to open the forum at 1:30 p. m., following luncheon. She will introduce Ferner S. Cannon, Railroadmen's Federal Savings & Loan Association president, who is to talk on "Finance From the Banker's Point of View."

S. E. Walker, William H. Block Co. controller, will discuss "Business From Businessman's Point of View." Mrs. Clayton Ridge is to speak on "Education From Educational Point of View," and Mrs. Arthur B. Robinson will talk on "The Home From the Homemaker's Point of View."

Committee Reports Due

Committee reports are to be made at the morning session. Mrs. Charles H. Smith, education committee chairman, is to present Mrs. Bessie Rasmus, University of Iowa instructor of speech and supervisor of the articulatory speech clinic. Mrs. Lowell S. Fisher, recreation committee member, is to introduce Mrs. Kin Hubbard, who will talk on

Issues Call for Junior League Conference in Chicago May 17

Times Special

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 3.—Mrs. Peter Harvie, Troy, N. Y., president of the Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc., today issued a call to the 17th annual conference to be held in Chicago May 17 to 21 in the Drake Hotel. Chicago and Evanston league members will be hostesses.

The Indianapolis League is among 145 leagues in the United States, Canada and Mexico which will send delegates. The Indianapolis members will choose their representatives at the annual meeting April 13.

The delegates will decide whether or not the leagues will enter the field of legislation and sponsor bills intended to further their social welfare programs. Mrs. Harvie has announced that a legislative meeting is scheduled for May 19.

On the opening day, May 17, prize winners in the association's annual art exhibition will be announced. This display will include fine arts, handicraft and an open class and will be on view in the Chicago Historical Society Building. Only entries which have won first or second prizes or honorable mentions in the regional or Canadian exhibitions are eligible for the show.

Couple to Entertain For Norman Gilman's

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ballweg are to receive from 3 to 6 p. m. tomorrow at their home, 5234 N. Capitol Ave., in honor of Mrs. Ballweg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilman are to leave Monday to live in Peterboro, N. H.

The Gilman's are to visit Mrs. Gilman's sister, Mrs. William E. Schorr, and Mr. Schorr at Hamilton, O., before going to their new home.

Mrs. Noble Ropkey entertained with a luncheon bridge party today for Mrs. Gilman.

Mothers to Lunch

Sigma Chi Mothers' Club is to hold its regular meeting Tuesday in the Butler University fraternity chapter house. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m.

New Members Entertain

New members of the Alpha Tau Chapter of Alpha Zeta Beta Sorority entertained other members at the home of Miss Louise Taylor, 1525 E. Michigan St., last night.

Everybody's Going to the

16th Annual Home Show

APRIL 15-25

Save 15c by Buying Your Ticket Now

Regular Gate Admission 40c after April 15th. Advance Sale Tickets now 25c at any Hook drug store or from any Garden Club member.

COLLARS FOR HATS INDIANA FUR CO. 29 E. Ohio St.

Two Cathedral Units Are Party Sponsors

The SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral Men's Club and Altar Society are to sponsor a party Tuesday night in the Cathedral High School Auditorium. James H. Drew and Mrs. William L. O'Connor, the organizations' presidents, are co-chairmen.

Their assistants are Mesdames Julia Alexander, Thomas Broden, Louis Dugan, Kathryn Hallman, William C. Fox, Richard Graham, Ray Dunn, Charles Moran, Robert Boyle, John Connor, Kevin Brogan and John Herrington.

Party Arranged By Fayette Club

Proceeds from a card party of the Fayette Club will be used to send a child to the Bridgeport Nutrition Camp. The party is to be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Ross E. Winder, 1057 W. 31st St.

The arrangements committee includes Mesdames Carl Shupp, Thomas Langston, Jennie G. Sparks, Ador Krueger, I. A. Snyder and Arthur Ferris.

NISLEY

CLEAR CHIFFON Pure Silk HOSIERY PERFECT QUALITY

59c 44 N. Penn.

Opportunity! for Beginners

We Furnish Violins, Violas, Cellos and String Bass

If You Do Not Have One For 10 Lessons

No Music to Buy

No Charge for Lessons

Starts April 5th—4:30 P. M.

For Details Telephone LI. 7511

Arthur Jordan Conservatory

1204 N. Delaware St.