

U. S. COMMERCE AID TO JOIN IN LEGION'S DRIVE

Annual Aerial Roundup Set
To Start on May 2,
Officials Announce.

J. Monroe Johnson, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, is to participate in the fifth annual Aerial Membership Roundup of the American Legion May 2, it was announced today.

Mr. Johnson, Air Commerce Bureau head, is to speak at the annual dinner to be given that night for visiting pilots by Harry Colmery, Legion National Commander.

Other outstanding aviation personalities invited include Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, of the Lakehurst, N. J., Naval air station and former commander of the ill-fated Shenandoah.

Howard Hughes Expected
Another is Howard Hughes, holder of speed records.

More than 100 planes are due here on the day the Legion makes its annual collection of membership cards. Hop-offs of planes have been scheduled so that they will arrive at Municipal Airport between noon and 4 p. m.

Legion officials say that reports indicate the planes will bring in more than the 50,000 membership cards landed here on the 1936 roundup day. The cards are expected to boost the membership past the 900,000 mark.

Army Fliers Also Coming
Col. Ralph Royce, commander of Selfridge Field, Mich., is to lead a squadron of the U. S. Army's bullet-speeded pursuit planes to Indianapolis.

Maj. Walter Williams is to head a squadron of Tennessee National Guard training ships.

Legionnaires expected to fly their own ships include Dr. W. W. Arrasmith, Grand Island, Neb., Legion national aeronautics chairman.

Stamp Debut

Canada has beaten the rest of the British Empire to production of the first stamps portraying King George VI. In 1, 2 and 3-cent values, the stamps are fore-runners of a new series similar to that of King George V, still in use. All three values are like the 3-cent stamp shown above, except for the numerals of value.
