

DANIEL CAYLOR, AGE 89, DIES AT HIS SON'S HOME

Retired Glass Manufacturer
Will Be Buried in Arcadia.

Daniel Caylor died yesterday in the home of his son, Harry D. Caylor, 2522 N. Talbot. He was 89.

Funeral services are to be held at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Hisey & Titus funeral home. Burial is to be in Arcadia.

In a Henry County, Mr. Caylor was a glass manufacturer in Arcadia before his retirement 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylor, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylor; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylor, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

Born Jan. 17, 1877, in Campbellburg, Ky., Mr. Hardesty had spent most of his life in Indianapolis. He was appointed to the fire department Jan. 21, 1905, and had been stationed at Engine House 32 many years. Surviving are three brothers, Elmo, John and Otto Hardesty, all of Indianapolis.

JOHN J. QUINN, Indianapolis resident for 15 years, who died yesterday in his home, 3902 Layman Ave., is to be buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery tomorrow following services at 8:30 a.m. in the home and at 9 a.m. in St. Frances De Sales Church. He was 42.

Mr. Quinn was born in New York. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus. Survivors are the wife, Elizabeth, and two sons, John and Daniel, both of Indianapolis.

MRS. IDA B. SCHOOLEY, 5210 Central Ave., Indianapolis resident for 49 years, died Saturday in St. Vincent's Hospital.

EDWARD M. BRENNAN died yesterday in the home of his brother, Howard Brennan, 1317 W. 36th St., following an illness of 10 years. Funeral services are to be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the brother's home. Burial is to be in Crown Hill cemetery. The Rev. Aubrey H. Moore, Seventh Christian Church pastor, is to be in charge of services.

Mr. Brennan, known as "Hunkie," has been blind 30 years. He was a lifelong resident of Indianapolis and was a member of the Seventh Christian Church.

Survivors are two brothers, Howard and Frederick Brennan, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Smith, all of Indianapolis.

WILL CECIL GIBSON, 1621 Broadway, railway mail service employee 34 years, died yesterday in Peoria, Ill., at 54.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete. Mr. Gibson was born in Jamestown. He was married to Miss Vera L. Young of Oakwood, Ill., 23 years ago. They came to Indianapolis in 1918. He was a member of the Masonic Order and the Railway Mail Association.

Surviving are the wife, a brother, Dr. J. E. Gibson, Indianapolis, and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle W. Covey, Mishicot, S. D.

MRS. IVA SHARKEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Whithorn, 648 Warren Ave., who died last Monday in Watford, N. D., was to be buried in Floral Park today following services at 2 p.m. in the Ray Street Nazarene Church. She was 38. She was the wife of the Rev. Forrest Sharkey, former resident of Indianapolis. Mrs. Sharkey was born near Burney and came to Indianapolis when a child. She was married here in 1916, leaving Indianapolis six years later to attend the Chicago Theological Training School with her husband.

Surviving, besides her husband, are six children, the parents and two sisters, Mrs. William Remmer and Mrs. Arthur Carter, the latter two of Indianapolis.

GUSTAV A. MACK, an interior decorator and an Indianapolis resident for 70 years, died yesterday in his home, 3102 N. New Jersey St. He was 72.

Services are to be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the First English Lutheran Church by the Rev. Clarence Gardner. Burial is to be in Crown Hill.

Mr. Mack attended Indianapolis schools. He has decorated many public buildings here, including the State House, Scottish Rite Cathedral and the Court House. He was a member of the First English Lutheran Church.

Survivors are the wife, Anna; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Danke; son, Clarence H.; a brother, Godfrey, Jr., of Indianapolis; three sisters, Mrs. Lena Miller, Ft. Wayne; Mrs. Hannah McDowell of Florida; and Mrs. Elizabeth Erdman, Indianapolis.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Lovern had lived in Indianapolis 42 years. He was employed in the mill department of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 23 years, later accepting a position with the Fleischmann Yeast Co. He worked for this company 14 years, becoming manager of the Vincennes branch.

Mr. Lovern was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Survivors are the wife, Roxie F.; a sister, Mrs. R. F. Pannell, Indianapolis, and a brother, John.

GEORGE HARDESTY, 2515 Carrollton Ave., a member of the fire department 32 years, who died Friday night in the Methodist Hospital, was to be buried in Greenwood Cemetery today following funeral services at 10 a.m. in the John R. Hardesty Funeral Home. He was 60.

BORN HENRY CAYLOR died yesterday in his home, 1121 Lexington Ave. He was 57.

Funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Caylors had lived in Indianapolis 27 years ago. He was a member of the Brethren M. E. Church and the I. O. O. F. His father, Elias Caylors, was the first white child to cross the Maumee River in Ohio.

Survivors, besides his son, are the wife, Mrs. Clara S. Caylors; a daughter, Mrs. Fannie Tomes, Rushville; and three grandchildren, Harriet and Francile Caylors, of Indianapolis, and Howard Tomes of Rushville.

WILLIAM H. LOVERN died yesterday in his home, 11