

SLEEP-WALKER BRUISED IN FALL FROM WINDOW

Man Who Had Been Ill
Plunges 20 Feet; Two Die
In Accidents.

Oscar Singer, 62, of 1428 S. New Jersey St., escaped serious injury early today when he fell 20 feet from a second-story window in his home.

Hospital physicians said they were told Mr. Singer had been walking in his sleep. His wife, Maude, told police he had been ill for seven weeks.

Mr. Singer was treated at City Hospital for head lacerations and body bruises.

Giles Miskel, 52, of Route 4, Box 679, was in St. Francis Hospital today with serious injuries received in a fall from a farm roller when a team of horses bolted.

Funeral arrangements were to be completed today for Forest Wyong, 1130 Cottage Ave., fatally injured when he fell down the basement stairs in a tavern at 1109 Shelby St. last night. He was 60.

Police said witnesses told them Mr. Wyong entered the tavern, paused momentarily at the bar and then started down the stairs. They said he fell about half way down the flight of steps. He received a fractured skull.

Henry Adams, Terre Haute, died in City Hospital today from injuries received yesterday when he fell beneath the wheels of a Pennsylvania train in West Indianapolis. He was 65.

Police were told that Mr. Adams was attempting to board the train which was leaving for Terre Haute. His legs were amputated when he slipped under the wheels. It was reported.

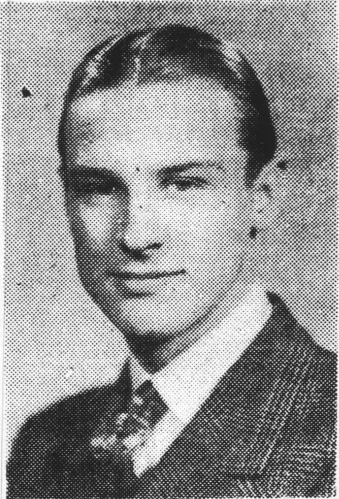

Charles Roberts, engineer, and W. W. McInturf, conductor, both of Terre Haute, were in charge of the train.

NAPS BESIDE STOVE; SUFFERS FOOT BURN

A police patrolman with a sense of humor made a report which read something like this:

"Lester Parrish, 36, of 215 W. 12th St., came to City Hospital today with his right foot burned. He said he was at home of a friend and was sitting next to a stove. He went to sleep and got foot too close to stove. (It woke him up.)"

Head Tech Class Play Cast

Mary Jane Johnson and William Keller are to portray leading roles in "The Londonderry Air," to be presented by the Technical High School Senior Class A-K division at the school Friday night. Homer Huesing and Alice Hankins are directing. "The Drums of Oude" and "A Wedding," other one-act plays, are to be presented the same night.

Plan to have your own Home

Rents Are Increasing

There is no sense of independence which can compare with that of owning YOUR OWN HOME. It is YOURS... yours to enjoy, to beautify, to be proud of. It builds responsibility, security and the knowledge that you have AN ESTATE.

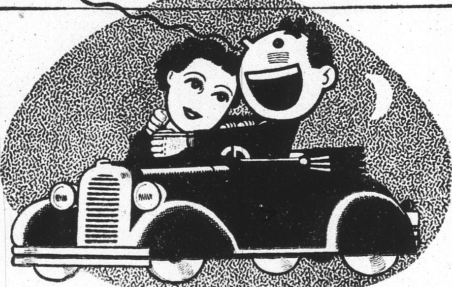

Building and Loan Associations of Marion County make it possible for you to own a home. They make it possible for you to pay for it with easy, monthly payments... and when you obtain a loan from a local association you are dealing with men of your own community... with headquarters here at home. Prompt action and close personal interest is assured you.
