

Redbud Shoot Draws Bow Experts From Many Towns

Brown County Park to Be Scene of Annual Archery Contest Next Sunday.

By JOHN W. THOMPSON

THE first recollection I have of a bow and arrow is a picture of one I saw at the age of three in a book of "Robin Hood."

The next thing I knew about them was when I learned to make a bow from a barrel stave and a piece of string, and an arrow from a corset stay. Of course if you wanted one with a little bit more endurance but no flexibility you could use a coat hanger.

A little later in my early days I was told at my grandpa's knee that a real bow could be made from a hickory limb. Up until that time my association with hickory limbs had been none too amiable but Grandpa helped and we hewed out something of a bow. The rows we made were fairly straight ones from willow reeds.

Then I sort of lost track of bows and arrows until my college days. I saw one there for the first time in years in the shape of a sorority pin (the arrow, not the bow).

SO the evolution of archery, as far as I'm concerned, is a long and noble one. It seems to affect other people that way too. For on April 18, to be exact, next Sunday, more than 100 wielders of the bow and shooters of the arrow are to gather at Brown County Park for the annual Redbud Shoot.

Now to our Jester Leslers the title of Redbud Shoot may mean only the fact that the redbud is beginning to give forth shoots, that spring is just on the threshold, that romance is creeping up through the grass roots in Brown County. But to those of us who can handle a bow and arrow and who follow the newly revived sport, the Redbud Shoot is an annual spring classic when the champions gather to outdo each other.

The shoot is being held, as usual, under the auspices of the State Department of Conservation. Virgil M. Simmons is the commissioner if you want to know where you can pick up a couple of good straight arrows before Sunday.

THE Redbud Shoot is always held on the level field near the swimming pool at the east entrance to Brown County State Park. The whole shebang will be getting under way about 9:30 o'clock in the morning. And that, on Sunday morning, to anyone but a dyed-in-the-wool archery fan, would be unheard of.

Archery teams from Butler University and Indiana State Teachers College are expected to attend, while unattached shooters are expected to trek to Brown County from such out of the way places as Indianapolis, Huntington, South Bend, Evansville, Pendleton, Bloomington, Kokomo, Brooklyn, Ft. Wayne, Lagrange, Marion, Richmond, Terre Haute, Galveston, Alexandria, Roanoke, and Greensburg.

It's easy to see that list that all people who peek from behind trees and plink away on bow-strings aren't Indians one way or another. It's really a civilized pastime.

THE defending champions in this year's meet will be Miss Catherine Thompson of Butler University and George F. Martin of Evansville. I don't know much about Miss Thompson's archery ability but I have ridden horseback with her along and if she can handle a bow like she does a saddle she then all the little bulls-eyes had better run for cover Sunday morning.

Three events are scheduled for the day's program. The men shoot 180 arrows in a Double American Round; women shoot 144 arrows in a Double Columbia Round and the juniors shoot 90 arrows in a Junior American Round. The men will shoot from 60, 50 and 40 yards while the women and juniors will divide their shots between 50, 40 and 30 yards.

I hope you are as pepped up over this meet as I am. There is something terrifically elfin about the twang of a bow and the whish of an arrow. Really, aren't you all a-quiver?

Packard, Marott Teams To Bowl in A. B. C. Meet

By BERNARD HARMON

Two of the city's outstanding tenpin aggregations, Packard Motors, Inc. and Marott Shoe Store, are on tonight's American Bowling tournament schedule in New York City.

The Packards with a lineup composed of Captain Leo Ahearn, Walter Heckman, Chuck Markey, Pad Hanna and John Blue, carries an average of 996 in the Indianapolis and Bean Regions.

Markey, an East Side youth who has forced to the front in the last two years, posted a 795 series, the season's top individual total in league play last season.

The Marott quintet, captained by the city's preeminent bowler, Oscar Behrens, also presents a lineup capable of leading the position in the standings. Rolling along with the aggregation are Harry Wheeler, Ed Stevenson, Carl Mindach and Paul Stemm.

The two teams, who are to face the marlets on the 10:30 squad, are scheduled to appear in their doubles and singles tomorrow afternoon.

Kernel Tops Leaguers
Dr. Karl Kernel rolled games of 268, 197 and 208 for a 673 in the Optimists Club loop at the Pritchett Alleys, the total landing him individual honors of last night's league play. Despite the leading series, his Realtors dropped two games to the opposing Stiffs.

Molles 631 and Charlie McCa-hills 619 were other honor counts of the Optimist session. In the remaining team matches Oilers blanked Clinkers and Lumber Jacks and Boxers won twice each over Drug-gists and Truckers.

Wilbur Oring tossed 668 series in the Evangelical League to nab runner-up honors of the evening. He had games of 254, 221 and 193, which with George Bader's 652, gave the Tigers enough edge to hammer out three victories over Athletics. Four honor counts emerged from the Cardinal-Red match, won by the former through a shutout. Louie Koehler and George Burck had 632 and 624 for the winners, while Paul Striebeck and Paul Moore tossed 650 and 622 for the losers.

Noffke Gets 650
Bill Noffke totaled 650 while in action with the Giants, but lack of support caused the team to drop three tilts to Cubs, which had Al Bottin's 611 as its best count. John Bentley's 623 for the Dodgers, who won twice over Yanks, was the loop's remaining 600 series. Senators took three games from Red Sox as White Sox and Browns won twice over Pirates and Indians.

In the Indiana Bell Telephone Co.'s matches at the Indiana, Bob Morris was the only pastime to top the 600 mark. He easily outdistanced rivals with a 663 that featured a 255 opener. Traffic Long Lines and Business Office nabbed shutout victories in the team matches.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Eastern bowlers trailed the Westerners in the high 100 standings of the American Bowling Congress today as the tournament entered its last 22 days.

The East holds fewer positions in three events and has an even break in only one—the all events.

There were no changes in the high standings by yesterday's bowling. Two teams last night threw away chances to displace the leaders after getting away to good starts.

Bridget's Brewery of Elizabeth, N. J., started with 1017 and 982, but slumped to 876 in the third game. Schemm Brewery of Saginaw, Mich., hit a 1034 and 941 in their first two games, but dropped to 905 for a total of only 2880. The evening's best mark was set by Harris Paints of Wooster, O., who turned in 2930.

Other scores included 2851 by Geh-hart Motor Supply of Decatur, Ill.

TRIBE BREAKS CAMP TOMORROW MORNING

Workouts at Perry Field To Be Hard

Killefer Anxious to Get Men In Shape Physically for Opener Saturday.

By EDDIE ASH

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., April 13.—Brushing up on signals, or "signs," as the ball players call them, infield drill and batting practice formed the program for the Indians today as they prepared to close out spring training in Bowling Green.

The Redskins will break camp tomorrow morning and resume training in Indianapolis on Thursday. Long workouts are to be held at Perry Stadium Thursday and Friday, beginning at 11 a. m., to put the finishing touches on the tune-up for the opening league game with Columbus Saturday.

Manager Killefer called for heavy action today and the players were eager to please the boss by giving their best on the last performance in camp. The Tribe chief still favors Vance Page for his opening day pitcher and the veteran right-hander is keeping sharpened for the important assignment.

A bad first inning cost the Indians the game with the Nashville regulars at Nashville yesterday, the Vols winning 5 to 4. The Southern Association Club is in good shape and fought out a 12-inning battle with the New York Giants Sunday losing, 3 to 2.

Phillips Pitches Well

Featuring the contest yesterday was smart pitching by Red Phillips and a home run with two runners on the paths by Bob Latschaw, rookie first sacker. Young Bob, who swings left-handed, hit the round-tripper against southpaw pitching and the drive soared over the fence in deep right center.

The batting order used by the Indians is expected to be the same on opening day, with Page doing the hurling. It was the first time the Redskins played on a grass diamond this spring and they looked just as agile as the Florida-trained Vols. Salty Parker played the full game at shortstop and reported himself all right today.

He retarded his spring training and until yesterday there was some doubt if he would be ready for heavy work on opening day. He got off to a poor start against Nashville in the first stanza, but smothered his play in the later innings.

The Vols jumped off to a two-run lead on errors by Parker and Berger and a double by Duke, but by the fourth round the Indians were out in front, 4 to 2. Nashville tied the score in the sixth when Duke cleared the short fence near the right field line for a home run.

And in the eighth a base on balls to McDaniel by Johnson developed into the winning tally when followed by singles by Chapman and Alexander, former first sacker for Detroit and Kansas City.

Southpaws for Nashville
Nashville employed two southpaw pitchers, Killefer and Phillips, in the last two games, allowing only two safeties in the last four innings. Phillips held the Vols to four hits in six innings and fanned three. Fred Berger got two of the Tribe's eight hits, one going for two bases. His double opened the sixth, but he was left there as Johnny Riddle was tossed out, Latschaw popped out and Sherlock fanned.

Latschaw poled his home run after one down in the fourth and Taylor and Berger, who had singled, scored ahead of him. Oscar Eckhardt led off the eighth with a safety to center, but was nailed on a close play trying for two bases. He is showing more speed than he has in the past and apparently is in for a big year.

Riddle's Talent No Puzzle to Team

One of the most popular players on the Indian roster is Johnny Riddle, the Tribe catcher. He has been showing his usual topnotch form at the training camp in Bowling Green. One thing that enables Johnny to keep at the top of the list in ability is the fact that he keeps in physical trim. He is shown above as he takes his turn on the rub-down table at the Indians' practice field.

Butler Faces Sycamores In Opening Diamond Tilt

The Butler baseball team today journeyed to Terre Haute where it was to open its 1937 season in a contest this afternoon with the Indiana State nine. Inman Blackaby, veteran hurler, probably will draw the mound assignment for the Bulldogs with Charles Wilson, sophomore, working behind the bat.

A lengthy warmup drill for the pitchers and a long batting session for the remainder of the team was held yesterday in the final practice before the Bulldogs departed. Coach Tony Hinkle shifted his lineup during the drill in an effort to put the strongest possible team in the field.

Clarence Laymon was shifted to the outfield from a third base berth, and Eldon Staller was assigned to the hot corner. Andy Boa took over the shortstop post held by Staller.

Others slated for action in the infield are Cody Burdette at second and Joe Mack at first. Outfielders for the Bulldogs probably will be Tom Harding, William Roudsburh and Laurel Poland.

Board Recommends Shake Dismissal as Mishawaka High School Net Coach

I. H. S. A. A. Group Makes Decision After Hearing on Altercation Between Coach Shake and Johnny Wooden, South Bend Central Mentor.

The board of control of the State High School Athletic Association has recommended unanimously that Coach Shelby Shake of Mishawaka be relieved of all duties and responsibilities connected with athletics as result of a near fistic clash with a rival coach, Arthur L. Trester, commissioner of the I. H. S. A. A., announced today.

The altercation between Shake and Coach Johnny Wooden of South Bend Central occurred on the gymnasium floor at conclusion of a basketball game between the two schools.

Both coaches, the principal and superintendent of each school, two members of the Mishawaka School Board and a few spectators testified at a hearing before the board in Indianapolis.

The evidence submitted showed that some of the difficulties had been brewing for some time and that it would have been easy then and probably would be easy now to get into more serious difficulties, the board stated in announcing its decision.

Indiana Athletic Group Names Marshall Champ

The Indiana State Athletic Commission went on record yesterday as declaring Everett Marshall, blond heavyweight wrestler from Colorado, as the recognized heavyweight world champion in Indiana.

The recommendation, made to the Commission by its chief inspector, Sam Marberger, puts Indiana on the list of states recognizing Marshall, along with Illinois and Missouri.

Marberger is also vice president of the National Wrestling Association and a member of that group's rating commission of four men.

Promoter Lloyd Carter of the local Hercules Athletic Club, contacted Billy Sandow, Marshall's manager, last night and received an O. K. for a match here starring the champion, but no definite date was set.

Returning to the Army mat tonight to engage in a finish match will be the two heavyweight rivals, Frank (Rebel) Speer of Atlanta, Ga., and Dorve Roche, former Illinois coal miner. Roche, who weighs 220 pounds, will spot his opponent approximately 20 pounds in weight.

The two wrestlers clashed last week and the decision went to Roche in a one-fall match. But Speer wasn't satisfied with being thrown once so tonight's tussle should prove interesting. Tonight's match will be for two falls out of three.

Another drawing card on tonight's program will be the second appearance of Chief Saunooke, 325-pound North Carolina giant who will trade grips with Whitey Hewitt, a Memphis mat man. Saunooke holds a draw decision with Everett Marshall.

In the program opener on tonight's card, Louis Theis, St. Louis wrestler, will tackle Juan Humberto, Mexico City.

South Side Golfers Open Season Friday
Coach Oral Bridgford, Manual golf coach, today released an eight-match schedule for the South Side links team. The first contest is slated with Technical High School on Friday at the Pleasant Run course.

Six golf team candidates, none of whom are veterans, have reported to Coach Bridgford for drill and are being rounded into shape for the season's opener Friday. They are Don Emery, Clifford Graham, Robert Holt, Alvin Mordoh, Bennie Nahmias and Charles Ludlow.

The schedule follows: April 16, Tech; April 19, Warren Central; April 23, Cathedral; April 26, Warren Central; April 30, Shortridge; May 7, Shortridge; May 10, Cathedral; May 19, Tech.

LAKELAND, Fla.—Elden Auker, who is scheduled to pitch the opener for the Detroit Tigers against Cleveland, held the Buffalo Bisons of the International League to six at Lakeland today.

The Tigers triumphed, 8-1, yesterday.

Lakeside Hospital physicians described his condition as "unchanged." Dr. Edward B. Castle, physician to the Cleveland Indians, with whom he made his fame as a hard-hitting, fast-stepping center fielder, believed Speaker would recover unless complications developed.

"The 'Gray Eagle,' who at 49 still loved vigorous sports, tumbled head-first from his porch while erecting a flower box he had made himself.

GREYHOUNDS FACE DEPAUW NINE HERE
DePauw University was to bring its baseball team here this afternoon for a game with the Indiana Central nine in the Heights diamond. The contest was scheduled to begin at 2:15 p. m.

William McNamara was the probable Greyhound mound choice, with Merrill Brown behind the bat. It will be the second game of the season for Indiana Central, which won from N. C. A. G. U. Saturday, 9 to 1.

MEETING TO BE HELD
Representatives from industrial and commercial softball teams in the city are to meet at 8 p. m. tonight in the Y. M. C. A. building.
