

I. U. STUDENTS ASK FUNDS FOR BRYAN AWARD

Memorial Scholarship to Be Established; Local Girl On Committee.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 19.—Doris Seward, Bloomington, and Otto Grant, Ft. Wayne, have been named co-chairmen of a student committee to co-operate with Indiana University alumni in raising funds for a new University scholarship and fellowship trust.

The trust, known as The William Lowe Bryan Scholarship and Fellowship program, is to be established as a memorial to the retiring University president, who announced his resignation March 16.

Numbering 23 members, the group is to begin solicitation of pledge cards on Foundation Day, May 8. Funds obtained are to be vested with the University Foundation, a body formed last year to receive endowments.

May Choose Advisers
According to the proposal, the interest earned annually on the trust will be turned over to Dr. Bryan, who will have the responsibility, with the help of any advisers he may choose, of making the awards. Scholarships, standing, character, leadership and promise of future usefulness are to be points considered.

No definite number or stipulated value for individual awards are to be specified, with the president given the right to distribute the funds in any way that he believes best.

The solicitation of funds also will be extended to include students at the Indianapolis medical center with Dean F. R. Henshaw of the School of Dentistry in charge there, it was announced.

The program is said to be the first attempt by a student body to organize a University scholarship program exclusive of outside aid since I. U. was founded in 1820.

U. S. TO DEMAND DEATH FOR TWO G-MAN KILLERS

Murder Charges Prepared After Agent Dies of Gun Fight Wounds.

By United Press
TOPEKA, Kas., April 19.—The Government today demanded the lives of two gunmen who killed a Department of Justice agent.

U. S. Attorney S. S. Alexander prepared to file murder charges today against Alfred Power and Robert Suhay, who are held in the county jail at Kansas City. He said he will request grand jury indictments quickly, and will demand the death penalty for both.

The men are held for slaying Wimberly W. Baker, 27-year-old federal agent, in shooting their way out of a trap set for them in the Topeka postoffice last week. They were hunted for bank robbery.

Power and Suhay were to be arraigned this afternoon in Kansas City.

Dwight Brantley, agent in charge of the F. B. I. office here, said the pair was told today that Baker was dead.

"Neither showed any reaction," Brantley said.

Working on his first major assignment with the department, Baker became the 10th "G-Man" since 1925 to die in the line of duty. He was the first one killed in 20 months of warfare between Federal agents and public enemies.

Shot Four Times

Shot four times, once in the back and three more times as he spun around and tried to bring his own gun into play, Baker died in a hospital Saturday night. In his taciturn manner, the Department withheld news of the death until Sunday evening, when the body was moved to a funeral home and surrendered to the father, H. H. Baker, a state senator of Yuma, Ariz., who was at the bedside.

The two gunmen, who were first wanted for a $18,000 bank robbery at Katonah, N. Y., ran into the ambush when they called for mail at the Topeka postoffice. Federal men had an idea that relatives might try to communicate with one of the men, so they watched mail sent by the hunted men's relatives, traced a letter to Topeka and waited here for them to claim it.

Three agents were posted at the postoffice. Baker tried to arrest one of the outlaws at the general delivery window and was shot from behind by the second gunman. Then both bandits fled.

Seized by Sheriff

Baker's companion officers fired several shots at them before they reached their automobile. One bullet struck Suhay in the arm. Sheriff Homer Sylvester and his brother, Cass, captured the gunmen at Plattsmouth, Neb., after chasing them into a blind road.
